Miss Rena Blanton Weds Dr. William Francis Strait.
A wedding of unusual interest in the two Carolinas was solemnized at Sandy Run Baptist church, Mooresboro, Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when Miss Rena Blanton became the bride of Dr. William Francis Strait of Rock Hill, S. C. The wedding was one of the most largely attended affairs Mooresboro has ever had and marked the union of two distinguished families of the Carolinas.

The church was beautifully decorated with pine and fern, the improvised altar forming a beautiful woodland setting with a background of white and green. Large cathedral candles shed a pretty glow about the altar where the bridal party formed in front of Rev. W. H. Frazier, D.D., president of Queen's college, Charlotte who performed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Lovelace furnished several beautiful vocal and instrumental selections, a favored pre-nuptial solo being "I Love You." Mendelssohn's wedding march was played as the bridal party entered as follows: Dr. Frazier entering from the left chancel, followed by the groomsmen, Dr. John Thomas Dixon and Dr. W. B. Ward, both of Rock Hill, S. C. The bridesmaids were Miss Elizabeth Gaston and Miss Rose Sease Hoke of Edgemore, this state, handsomely dressed in yellow and green chiffon crepe with picture hats and carrying pink roses. Miss Elizabeth Finley of North Wilkesboro, daughter of Judge T. B. Finley, served as maid of honor wearing orchid taffeta with picture hat and carried pink roses. The ribbon girls, little Misses June Evelyn Blanton of Lincolnton, a niece of the bride, Lillian Prichett of Danville, Va., a cousin of the bride, wore green and yellow crepe dresses and were accompanied by Masters James Lucas and John Z. McBrayer of Mooresboro.

Little Misses Rose Ann Guess of Rock Hill, S. C., niece of the groom and Martha McBrayer of Mooresboro a niece of the bride were the flower girls and wore green and yellow, carrying beautiful baskets of sweet peas.

Master Phillip Fahey, jr., nephew of the groom was the dainty ring-bearer, carrying the ring in a silver tray.

The groom entered accompanied by his best man, Dr. Thomas A. Pitts of Columbia, S. C., the bride entering on the arm of her father, Mr. John B. Blanton. She never looked more beautiful, wearing a midnight blue charmeen with gray accessories and carrying a corsage bouquet of bride's roses and valley lilies.

Messrs. John Blanton, Charlie Blanton, John Smart, Hobart Green, Yates McBrayer and Berry Green were the ushers, the large church being filled to capacity to witness the beautiful ceremony.

usual charm and grace. She attended Randolph-Macon, Danville, Va., and was graduated at Queen's college, Charlotte, after which she has been teaching English in the High Point school. The groom attended Davidson college where he was graduated with a B. A. degree, after which he attended school in Charleston, S. C. He finished his medical course in Washington, D. C., and is now a prominent young medical practitioner at Rock Hill, S. C.

Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left for Asheville, Washington and New York on their honeymoon. Upon their return they will be at home at Rock Hill, S. C.

Among the out-of-town guests were: Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Frazier, Miss Sallie McLean, Mr. B. Scott Blanton, all of Charlotte; Mr. L. B. Purcell, Miss Margaret Harrill of Bessemer City; Mrs. Rosa Strait, Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Stevens, Mrs. Rosa B. Guess, Mrs. Mary Quants, of Rock Hill, S. C.; Dr. J. N. Gaston and daughters, Misses Elizabeth and Joe of Edgemore; Dr. Phillip Fahey of Greenville, S. C.; Messrs R. G. Prichett of Danville, Va., and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Blanton of Columbus, Mr. and Mrs. R. Goode-McBrayer Wedding at Boiling Springs.
An event of unusual interest in an ever-interesting season, the Christmas holidays, was the marriage on Thursday afternoon in Boiling Springs of Miss Rinda Goode to Dr. James Harrill McBrayer. The bride is the attractive and accomplished daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Goode, and the groom, a young man of high attainments and sterling character, is the son of Mrs. Ida McBrayer. Both families are well known in Cleveland county, and the popular young couple number their friends and admirers by hundreds.

handsome new Baptist church. The interior was tastily decorated in the season's colors, banks of evergreens and cedar, running ivy, fern and mistletoe against a background of white, with a profusion of white chrysanthemums in large white baskets to enliven the effect. The setting was indeed appropriate for the occasion.

By five o'clock the hour set for the ceremony, the church was filled, including the galleries, with the relatives, friends and many wellwishers of the popular young pair. Promptly at the hour the swinging doors opened and one of the ushers led in the pianist, Miss Mary Holdford of Raleigh, handsomely attired in heavily beaded green georgette, and Miss Mary Sue Pruett, soloist, beautifully gowned in rose satin, the two colors representing the color scheme of the bridal party they wore corsages of pink roses. To Miss Holdford's accompaniment Miss Pruett sang in softened, but clear tones, as befitting the occasion, "At Dawning" and "I Love You Truly". Then, as the well-known strains of Lohengrin arose the procession began led by the ushers, Dr. R. C. Hicks of Shelby; professional partner of the groom, and Dr. C. T. Goode of Macon, Ga., brother of the bride. First came as bridesmaids Miss Mary Jones of Wingate and Miss Johnnie Mae McBrayer, sister of the groom, in exquisite gowns of green georgette, trimmed with ribbon and lace, and with silver lace hats to match. Both bridesmaids carried Columbia roses tied with pink tulle. The attendant groomsmen were Mr. Charles Gillespie of Henrietta and Dr. C. H. Harrill of Lincolnton. Miss Verna Goode of Greenville, S. C., sister of the bride, followed as maid of honor in a dress of rare beauty, rose georgette trimmed with gold lace, and with gold lace hat to match, carrying white roses tied with white tulle. Immediately preceding the bride came little Miss Rachel Huggins, in a dainty little dress of pink crepe de chine, bearing a basket of rose petals, with which she generously strewed the way for the bride.

The bride entered on the arm of her father, Rev. J. M. Goode. She was attired in a beautiful dress of a lovely golden shade of moire silk, trimmed with Spanish ceru lace, and wore a hat of gold lace to correspond. She carried a corsage bouquet of brides roses, orchids and lilies of the valley.

At the altar they were met by the groom and his best man, Dr. R. W. Thorpe of Atlanta, Ga., classmate of the groom. Rev. W. E. Goode of Reidsville, brother of the bride, officiated, using the beautiful ring ceremony, and Rev. J. R. Greene, pastor of the Boiling Springs church, offered the prayer.

The bridal party repaired for a short while to the home of the bride, and then the happy couple left for Atlanta, where a reception later was tendered them by a friend of the groom. The honeymoon will be spent in Florida.

Mrs. McBrayer was educated at Boiling Springs high school and Lime stone college. For several years she has been a very popular and successful teacher of music.

Dr. McBrayer is the junior partner in the dental offices of Hicks and McBrayer of Shelby. The young couple are expected soon to make Shelby their home.

The New Touring Car

F.O.B. DETROIT

A Striking Value—at $295

Considering the improved appearance of the new Ford Touring Car, one would naturally expect a proportionate advance in price.

Larger scale production, however, has made it possible to incorporate in this new type touring car a number of developments without increasing its cost to the purchaser.

A comparison extending over a long period of years will reveal the fact that the present price is actually the lowest at which the five-passenger open car has ever been sold.

The Ford Touring Car stands today, as it always has, a remarkable value in the motor car field.

This car can be obtained through the Ford Weekly Purchase Plan.
