A New Year's Prayer.

Our glorious Lord and Savior, as man standing in a doorway between New Year, we owe to thee the gratithe rooms. Mr. Arnold, with his bride tude of our hearts for the abundant acting as nurse, was brought to his blessings that have enriched our lives brough the year that has just reachof its close. They are more than we over thou mayest lead, even though he way brings us into places where human souls are tested to the utmost. Give us a faith that takes firm hold upon Omnipotence; a faith that turns not back in the day of the hottest battle; a faith that never doubts in he darkest hour that God lives and he right will triumph.

May we so live that even those who oppose us will not question our loyalty to Christ. God of holiness, keep us ure in heart, so pure that we shall trade last year, even presidential have the unfailing vision of thyself. We desire to be blessed with an inreasing love for thee.
