Department of Home Economics of Woman's Club Meets.

Mrs. T. W. Hamrick will be the gracious hostess to the home economics department of the Woman's club on Monday afternoon January 28th instead of Monday afternoon.

Miss Kendall Cecelia Hostess.

Miss Mac Kendall was the gracious hostess to the members of the Cecelia music club on Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Mrs. William McCord began the program with a piano solo, "Moonlight Sonata" by Beethoven which she played in her artistic way. The vocal solo by Mrs. Rush Thompson and the solo by Mrs. Ben Suttle were beautifully rendered. After a business meeting when the program was concluded, Miss Kendall served a delicious hot course.

Channing's Symphony.

To live content with small means, to seek elegance rather than luxury, and refinement rather than fashion; to be worthy, not respectable; and wealthy not rich; to study hard, think quietly, talk gently, act frankly; to listen to stars and birds, to babes and sages, with open heart to bear all cheerfully, do bravely, await occasion, hurry never; in a word to let the spiritual, unbidden and unconscious grow up through the common. This is to be my symphony.—William Henry Channing.

Twentieth Century With Mrs. Lineberger.

Mrs. J. D. Lineberger entertained the Twentieth Century club at the Cleveland Springs hotel on Friday afternoon where she and her family are wintering. The lobby with its great, open fire place and open fire was a most cheerful setting for the club meeting. The following program was given by Mrs. J. H. Hull, Mrs. L. M. Hull and Mrs. R. L. Lemons. Subject "Fighting with Washington Turning the tide of British Victory and Richard Caswell".

After this interesting historical meeting Mrs. Lineberger had served a most elegant repast.

Mrs. Doggett Honors Mrs. Ben Suttle.

One of the most enjoyable parties of the season was the bridge party given by Mrs. John W. Doggett on Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock honoring Mrs. Ben Suttle one of Shelby's most recent brides. Six tables of progressive bridge was played. The tables had for their center pieces, vases holding pink roses and carnations and appropriate score cards were used. After many rubbers were played Mrs. Doggett presented Mrs. Suttle with a lovely vase. Delicious salad and hot chocolate, candies and nuts were served by Mrs. Doggett assisted by Mrs. Nelson Lattimore and Miss Julie Blanton and little Misses Doggett and Lattimore.

Dr. and Mrs. Royster At Home.

Dr. and Mrs. S. S. Royster were "at home" to a few of their friends on Monday evening at 8:30 honoring Mr. John Hanes of Rye, New York. Their elegant home, perfect in every appointment, was thrown open to these friends and during the evening Mrs. Ben Suttle a recent charming bride sang several beautiful selections. Delicious refreshments were served and a delightful evening spent. Those enjoying Dr. and Mrs. Royster's hospitality were: Mr. and Mrs. O. Max Gardner and guest Mr. John Hanes of New York. Dr. and Mrs. Reuben McCray, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde R. Hoey, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Suttle, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Blanton, Misses Ora Eskridge and Elizabeth McCray, Mr. and Mrs. Wythe Royster, Mrs. S. R. Riley, Mr. C. C. Blanton and Mr. Forrest Eskridge and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Suttle.

The "Looker On" Reads About "Mah Jong."

As yet the "Looker On" is not familiar with the old Chinese game "Mah Jong". She has truly been only a "looker on" to this game but after reading what "Old Hurraygraph" says it sounds so complicated I wonder if a "looker on" could get the inside of it. Here is what he says: "I don't know whether I have my 'Mah Jong' on straight or not. I must confess that I am all puzzled and mixed up with this Chinese puzzle. To be modish these days one has to add a few Chinese phrases to one's vocabulary. When the thing first broke out like the measles, I had a vague idea that it was some Mauchou grandmother jade who had come over to see us and they were making a to-do over her. But, law, honey, it has turned out to be a game, played with fanciful dominoes, that few know; this is correct little about. It has upset Americans socially and sartorially, and is changing the common language. People are playing it, and dressing it, everywhere. But I am still mixed up on it. I see they spell it "mah jong" "mah jung" and "fah jongg". What is right? I don't know. The only satisfaction I have is that I have is that I have "spotted" the game. There is a good deal of coloring to it when you consider Seki-ye and want ching-kara and yu-chi. I guess you can get them from Mr. Tai."

Mrs. J. S. Dorton Hostess.

Mrs. J. S. Dorton will entertain in honor of her charming house guests Misses Nell and Margaret Young and Miss Robbie Biggerstaff of Forest City on Friday afternoon at 3:30.

Dinner Hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis McMurry were delightful dinner hosts on Saturday evening at their home in Double Shoals the guests of honor being Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Suttle. Other guests were Miss Sarah McMurry and Mr. Tom Moore, and Miss Margaret Edmunds and Mr. Jessie Washburn.

Dinner Guests at Cleveland Springs.

Miss Millicent Blanton and Messrs. Hal Schenck and Harold Griffin were dinner guests at Cleveland Springs hotel Sunday.

A delightful Lincoln party dining was Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Elliott, Mr. H. Cline and Mr. Stowe Crouse.

Hickory people forming a congenial party were, Miss Clarissa Abernethy, Miss Alice Lyerly, Mr. H. E. Groves and Mr. H. J. Jones.

Benefit Rook and Bridge Party.

Under the auspices of the Cecelia Music club a benefit rook and bridge party will be given at Cleveland Springs hotel, Tuesday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock, the proceeds to be used in furnishing a room at the Shelby hospital.

Tables will sell at two dollars or 50 cents a person. All friends who wish to play together will please reserve tables by phoning Mrs. Earl Hamrick, president of the Cecelias, or either of the following committee: Mrs. S. R. Riley, Mrs. Grady Lovelace, Miss Amos Willis and Mrs. Ben Suttle. Those who do not make up a table, can reserve one place, and the committee will do the rest. No tables or single places can be reserved after Monday night, so get together now, make your plans to attend this worthy party and enjoy yourself.

Mrs. Riley Luncheon Hostess.

Mrs. S. R. Riley was hostess at a luncheon at Cleveland Springs hotel on Wednesday honoring Miss Kate Page of Southern Pines. After a four-course golf lunch was served at one o'clock Mrs. Riley's guests were Miss Kate Page, Miss Elizabeth Webb and Miss Millicent Blanton.

Four Circles With Mrs. Joe Smith.

On Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock the four circles of Central Methodist church met jointly with Mrs. J. C. Smith in her lovely and hospitable home on South Washington street. Every one knew that the meeting would be interesting having attended meetings of like character before but this one surpassed the most sanguine hopes and expectations of the large crowd present. The meeting was opened by a song in which all took part. A beautiful and inspiring prayer was offered by Mrs. C. F. Sherrill. Then the first chapter of First John was quoted and discussed in a most appropriate and helpful way by Mrs. J. C. Smith. Next a duet was rendered by Mrs. Tom Babington and Mrs. Alice Lineberger to the delight of all.

Recitation by Miss Virginia Hamrick was greatly enjoyed.

Tenor solo: "Jesus Remembers When the World Forgets." by W. F. Robertson.

Instrumental solo by Elizabeth Black.

Then followed the reports for each circle for the month. To the supreme delight of all the report broke all former records. About $1,250 in cash was reported to apply on the parsonage which the ladies built. A few remarks were made by the pastor and Rev. C. F. Sherrill. After having enjoyed the program which was so well prepared and so perfectly rendered, and after the thrill of the reports a real social half hour was entered into during which time lovely refreshments were served.

This was by far the best meeting of the circles that we have had so far and is only a prophecy of larger things the women of Central church can and will do during the year. All left with a deep sense of appreciation to the hostess for the delightful occasion.

Fertilizer must be "cured"

PERHAPS you didn't know that fertilizer should be "cured" or "aged" in order that the food for soil can be more readily available when that food is needed.

This is one of the details of the fertilizer industry that few people know, but it's mighty important. Such "details" as this represent the difference between Royster's Fertilizer and less carefully prepared foods—and the difference between profitable crops and crops that are not so profitable.

To keep vast quantities of fertilizer for months represents an enormous supply and a tremendous capital. Therefore, only a large company like Royster's can offer this more effective "cured" fertilizer.

Rid yourself of the idea that all fertilizer is alike. This is no more true than that all land is alike.

The truth of this can be proven—not done by the enthusiastic praise of successful farmers who have used Royster's, but by your own experience.

Use Royster's this year. Give it a fair test—and don't guess about fertilizer any more.

Grow better and larger crops by using fertilizer that has been "cured"—that is free from lumps—that has been proven chemically correct by forty chemists—and that has established a record for good works over a long period of years. Look for the name "ROYSTER" on the bags.
