ASHEVILLE TIMES CALLS ON LEUT. GOV. COOPER TO QUIT

"W. B. Cooper should celebrate his acquittal by resigning as lieutenant governor of North Carolina," declares the Asheville Times, independent Democrat, editorially.

"He should not wait until an outraged public sentiment has forced him to do the obvious and the decent thing grudgingly."

The Times declares that Mr. Cooper has shown himself not to be the "type of business man and the citizen to command the confidence of the people and to occupy an exalted political office."

There are tricks in every trade, but it isn't the tricks that win out in the long run.

Y. W. A. to Meet
 With Mrs. Washburn.
 The Y. W. A. will meet with Mrs. Charlie Washburn Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock instead of Monday.

Mrs. Gardner Entertains
 R. A.'s of Baptist Church.
 Mrs. O. Max Gardner was hostess on Wednesday afternoon to the Royal Ambassadors. These young boys are studying Cuba and Mrs. Gardner is the leader. After an hour of study and singing Mrs. Gardner served ice cream and cake.

Mrs. Kirks Entertains
 For Visitors.
 Mrs. A. H. Kirks entertained delightfully with an informal tea at her home on Wednesday afternoon honoring Mrs. St. Cloud and Mrs. Adams two charming women of Raleigh who are spending some time at Cleveland Springs hotel. The house was beautifully decorated with potted plants and spring flowers and after an hour of social intercourse, Mrs. Kirks served a delicious sweet course with accessories.

Styles of The Day.
 Evelyn Dodge writes "the new in New York" is the following. The new silhouette—straight and narrow and flat like a boys, with dresses buttoned up the front on a coat line with bosom fronts, with pocket flap tiers at the sides of narrow frocks. The new cape—worn with a straight cut jacket or with a narrow front closing dress and having much the look of a boys' ulster of a generation ago.

The new coiffure—the "wet seal" hair cut of a boy, cut close to the head behind, and worn waivered or straight. It is oiled to hold it against the head like a cap. The shingle which has replaced the bob, is far less trying.

The new tailleur—a sack coat like a young man's, worn with a waist coat blouse and trouser-narrow skirts a man's knitted silk scarf, a gardenia boutonniere, a man's size handkerchief of printed silk from the hip pocket.

The new tailored blouse—the gilet or waistcoat blouse.

The new scarf—like a boy's skating scarf.

The new neck—cut high and worn with flat Buster Brown or Peter Pan collars.

HOW FULL-O-PEP PAYS THE POULTRYMAN

Shelby, N. C., Feb. 18, 1924.

McKnight and Company,
 Shelby, N. C.

Dear Sirs:—

I have 350 hens and on January 18th I began using Full-O-Pep Feeds. At that time I was getting from 60 to 90 eggs per day. On February 17 I got 235 eggs. This proves to me that the Full-O-Pep way will increase egg production each day.

(Signed) Wm. S. McCurry.

Full-O-Pep Laying Mash and Scratch will get you the same results, if properly fed.

Ask your merchant for these feeds.
