GROVER NEWS OF LATE INTEREST

They Are Making Garden Despite the Weather—Senior B. Y. P. U. Holds Socials.

Special to The Star.
Grover, Feb. 19.—Several of the people of Grover began the making of their gardens during the fine weather of last week. Several of the farmers in the communities around began douching last week.

The rain is freezing as it falls today. There has not been any snow here all this winter.

Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Stephens of Delway, this state, spent Saturday Sunday with the family of Rev. W. J. Johnson. Mr. Stephens preached at the Baptist church at the Sunday morning service.

Miss Terah Pinkleton spent the week end at home from Limestone college.

Miss Edna Parker of Shelby spent the week end with friends in Grover. Miss Parker is a student at Limestone college.

Mr. C. F. Harry left last Tuesday for a business trip to Chicago.

Miss Mary Helen Keeter who is in school at Boiling Springs spent the week end at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Keeter. She was at home on account of the illness of Mrs. Keeter. We are glad to report that Mrs. Keeter is improving.

Mrs. C. E. Byers and little daughter Miss Eddis spent Saturday in Gaffney.

Mrs. Melvin Hardin was confined at her home last week by sickness. We are glad to report that she is improving.

Mrs. John Sheppard of Greenville, S. C., visited her sister Mrs. S. A. Crisen in Grover last week.

Miss Odessa Moore who is teaching in the Elizabeth community spent the week end with her parents in Grover.

Misses Mittie and Grace Newton spent the week end with their home folks near Casar. Miss Mittie is the teacher of the fifth and sixth grades in the Grover school and Miss Grace is a student in the high school.

Messrs J. C. Plonk and Wade Shurford and Misses Lillie Plonk and Nora Allgood all of Hickory, spent Monday night February 11th in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Roberts. They were on their way to spend a while in Florida. Cards have been received noting their safe arrival in Florida.

The senior B. Y. P. U. of the Grover Baptist church held a very enjoyable social meeting at the church last Friday evening. After several games were played those in attendance enjoyed refreshments of sandwiches and hot chocolate. The senior B. Y. P. U. is planning to hold its regular meeting on Friday evening for awhile.

Mr. G. L. Moore who was reported sick with pneumonia last week is improving.

Mrs. J. B. Keeter spent most of last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Keeter, returning to her home at Bessemer City Sunday.

Rev. W. A. Murray will fill his regular appointment at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning and night.

Rev. W. O. Johnson announces preaching service at Patterson Spring next Sunday night at seven o'clock.

Piedmont Wins First For County Honors

Playing on the Waco grounds Monday evening, Piedmont high defeated Waco 33 to 12 in the first game of the elimination series for the high school championship of Cleveland county. By defeating Waco, Piedmont attains the privilege of meeting another division winner on a neutral court.

The game was close and hard-fought at the opening, as the 4-3 score in the first quarter shows. H. Beam and L. Beam were stars for Piedmont, while Black, Whitworth and Hord were high scorers for Waco.

The line-up:
Piedmont (33) Waco (12)
L. Beam (9) Black (4)
right forward
Bullock (6) Whitworth (4)
left forward
H. Beam (10) Hord (4)
center
Harris (2) Canipe (0)
right guard
Falls (0) Sellers (0)
left guard
Substitutes: Hunt (6) for Falls.

Max Gardner Speaks Before Gaffney Club

Progress made by North Carolina in recent years was related at the Crustbreakers club at the Hotel Carroll Friday night by O. M. Gardner of Shelby, former lieutenant governor of the state, who was the principal speaker for the occasion. Mrs. Gardner and Mrs. Riley, of Shelby, W. J. Fullerton of New York, and C. S. Child, of Philadelphia, were out-of-town guests present at the meeting, and the members of the club had their wives and daughters with them. Mr. Gardner was presented by Captain J. B. Bell. Dr. R. C. Granberry president of the club, presided—Gaffney Ledger
