The "Looker On" Writes of France.
Should I have an opportunity to go abroad I'd like to sail for France. For many reasons, and when one speaks of France I think of the garrets where poor bewitched Trilby loved, sang and died—the haunts of Rodin and Anatole. France—the alleys where valiant Jean Christopher starved and triumphed. Highways of a thousand ambitions, byways of a thousand romances, they are all there, the quaint Latin, eternal Bohemia of unreal verities, load-star of the moon-struck children of art—ah, well, it is part of the glorious spirit of France.

Y. W. A.'s of Baptist Church Meet.

The Y. W. A. of the Baptist church held a literary meeting in the church on Wednesday afternoon at 3:30. The mothers and women of the church were invited and each brought a tea glass. Grigg-Hamrick Wedding At Boiling Springs.

A wedding of unusual beauty and interest was solemnized at the home of Mr. Urie Hamrick, Boiling Springs Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock, when Miss Rosina Hamrick became the bride of Mr. James Tilden Grigg of Lawndale.
The bride is the attractive and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Urie Hamrick. She is a graduate of Boiling Springs high school, both from the literary department and music, and is now one of Cleveland county's teachers. The groom is the son of Mrs. Rossie Grigg, a young man of sterling character and keen business quality. This union represents two of Cleveland county's best families.

The interior of the bride's home was tastefully decorated in ferns, potted plants and running ivy with a background of white. By five o'clock a host of relatives and friends had assembled. Immediately entered the pianist, Mrs. James McBrayer handsomely attired who gave a beautiful and fitting selection "Believe Me, If all those Endearing Charms" with variations. Then as the strains of Lohengrin's arose, entered Rev. J. R. Greene, pastor of the Boiling Springs church.

Then preceding the bride and groom came little Miss Rachel Huggins and Master Jack Holland, little Rachel in a dainty dress of white satin and bearing a basket of rose pedals, generously strewed the way for the bride Master Jack wearing a little suit of white satin, carrying the wedding ring in a white rose handsomely marched to the altar by Rachel's side. Next came the bride and groom. The bride wearing a beautiful dress of a lovely shade of gray crepe with accessories to match.

While the beautiful ring ceremony was being performed by Rev. J. R. Greene the pianist was softly playing "To a Wild Rose." Immediately after the marriage the happy couple left for Charlotte. The young couple will make Lawndale their home soon.

HERE'S WHAT PEOPLE SAY ABOUT TANLAC

"If it had not been for Tanlac I would still be a sick, discouraged woman, for nothing else seemed to do me any good," says Mrs. Edward Gibbs.

All the advertising in the world and all the sales efforts combined could not have made the great success for TANLAC that has been attained, unless this reconstructive tonic possessed merit of the greatest degree. Over 40 Million Bottles of Tanlac have been sold and the demand today is greater than ever before.

That TANLAC possesses merit and has brought relief to hundreds of thousands of persons is attested by the great number of testimonials that have been received by the company from people in every state of the Union and every province of Canada. There are over 100,000 such statements on file with the company, all raving with sincere praise for TANLAC and what it has accomplished.

Here are excerpts from a few of the 100,000 statements on file:
Mrs. Edward Gibbs, Lancaster, Pa. "For 2 years indigestion deprived me of nearly all the pleasure of living. If it had not been for TANLAC I would still be a sick and discouraged woman, for nothing else seemed to do me any good."
Mrs. Mary A. Benson, Seattle, Wash. "Following an operation my stomach and nerves seemed to give way and I became almost helpless. As a last resort I tried TANLAC. I began to improve from the very first, gained 29 lbs., and today am feeling fine."

O. E. Moore, Kansas City, Mo. "My stomach seemed to pain me constantly, food seemed to do me no good, I would bloat up with gas, lost my strength, and could not sleep or rest. I was on the downgrade all the time. Tanlac corrected my troubles and put me in excellent shape."
Thomas Lucas, Peterboro, Ontario. "Well, sir, buying TANLAC was the best investment I ever made for it built up my health and strength to where I haven't a complaint in the world."
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Kaake, Detroit, Mich. "For more than a year our three children, age 2, 4 and 6, had been so peaked and lifeless that we were worried about them. Their stomachs were upset, appetites poor, the color had left their cheeks, their nights were restless and during the day they would just mope around, taking no interest in play or anything else. They began to improve with the first dose of TANLAC, and today there are no more healthy children in Detroit."
Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Over 40 million bottles sold. Accept no substitute.

RESOLUTION OF RESPECT.
It is with deep sorrow that the Baraca class of the LaFayette Street Methodist church, Shelby, N. C., chronicle the death of our brother, M. P. Cordell on February 2, 1923, therefore be it resolved:
First—That we bow submissively to the Divine will and command the loved ones left behind to the tender Shepherd's care.
Second—That in the passing of our co-worker we lose a member of sterling worth. In all the walks of life he was faithful to every trust.
Third—That he was a man of quiet demeanor, and always carried sunshine and good cheer wherever he went. The needy and distressed always found in him a true friend.
That copy of these resolutions be sent to the family, one to the Cleveland Star for publication and one recorded in our class record.
J. CRAWFORD WHISNANT,
