> A STRAY BOY IS FOUND; CAME FROM SPARTANBURG

An eight-year-pld boy, poorly clad and highly excited came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Cochrane in S. Shelby Wednesday morning claiming that some man brought him over from Spartanburg, S. C., and he was wild to get back. Mrs. Cochrane tried in vain to get his name and show him some care, but he waived in vain at every passing car and ran hurriedly down the road toward Zoar, declaring that he was going home.

For County Fair

Subscriptions to stock of the Cleveland County Fair association is easy to sell if the men will only go out and offer it, according to J. S. Dorton who moting the fair. J. S. Dorton, W. L. Fanning, O. M. Mull and Lee B. Weathers made calls Tuesday on a few in Shelby who had not been previously seen and in two hours time they sold $1,900 worth To date the amount runs to approximately $15,-000, but $5,000 more is needed to put the fair over in a way becoming Cleveland's agricultural supremacy. Boiling Springs, Lawndale and Fallston sections have not been worked as yet, so committees will go out soon on another canvass of the county to get as many rural subscriptions as possible for farmers are needed to serve as officers and it would not be proper to As soon as the $20,000 is subscribed holders to perfect the organization so

"THE COMMITTEE OF THREE" Announces the Season's Most Important Theatrical Event!

Mr. Guy Bates Post, "America's Great Actor" In His Greatest Success,

> "THE CLIMAX" By EDWARD J. LOCKE. NIGHT PERFORMANCE ONLY.

(The Song Of A Soul.) AUDITORIUM, CHARLOTTE, Monday Night, March 10.

"The Committee of Three" are representative of "America's Theater Manager's Association," selected by them to secure, at least once each season, a representative star, to be surrounded by a company of players of positive worth and appear in a play of wide popular appeal—this company to make a transcontinental tour under the insurance and assurance of the "Committee."

This move on the part of the theater managers assures the amuse-ment lovers in all cities the same carefully cast and completely pro-duced productions that have heretofore been seen only in the favor-

In his present play, "The Climax," Mr. Post ignites the spark of genius that is a part of the subconscious mind of every man and woman, but lies latent in the souls of the vast multitude—Mansfield had the same gift, so did Irving and Booth and Patrick Henry and Henry Ward Beecher. Shakespeare possessed it—or it possessed him—to a super degree, and when we see Guy Bates Post's tense impersonations, fidelity to natural detail and hear his personal eloquence, he makes us know we are within the gripping reality of a quence, he makes us know we are within the gripping reality of a new world of acting.

Master of "art"—that manifestation of emotion speaking the only language that is understood by all, irrespective of creed, nationality, sex or education—whether the expression be of the emotion of gladness, sadness, shocks or tears.

Only the standard prices of from one dollar to three dollars for night performances will be charged. Mail orders will be filled in order received when accompanied by purchase price plus tax and self-addressed atamped envelope—another innovation is that only the comfortable capacity of the gallery will be sold and gallery seats can be had by mail or personal application at the box office in advance—the same as seats in any other part of the theater. There will be no laying aside of seats or reservations made by phone. The first applicants will have first choice—either by mail or personally.
