Junior Order—There will be a meeting of the Junior Order tonight in their lodge halls beginning at 7:30. All members urged to attend.

Moves to Shelby—Mr. Solon Beam and wife of Avondale will move to Shelby this week, where he will work at the carpenter trade. Mr. and Mrs. Beam have been living at Avondale for the past five years.

Raise Bid—The bid on the Allen farm of 160 acres on the Shelby-Fallston road has been raised by Wm. Lineberger, Mal Spangler and Jack Palmer and will be resold, the bidding to start at $16,931.25. This property will be re-sold Monday May 26.

Graduates—Two Cleveland county children will graduate at the North Carolina School for the Deaf this year, according to an announcement from that institution. They are Thomas William Hamrick, Jr., of Shelby, and Cecil Hunter Turner, of Grover. The graduation exercises will be held Thursday, May 29, at 11 o'clock.

Sinai Memorial—Memorial services will be held at Mt. Sinai church on next Sunday, May 18. Preaching will be at 11 o'clock by Rev. R. H. Weaver and dinner will be on the grounds. In the afternoon the graves will be decorated and at 2 o'clock there will be an address by Charles A. Burrus. All friends of the church are invited to attend these services.

Union Memorial—Memorial services will be held at Union church Sunday, May 18. The services in the morning will be by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Washburn. At 11 o'clock there will be an address by Attorney Eymann Weathers. In the afternoon at 2:30 o'clock Rev. J. W. Ingle, pastor of LaFayette Street church, will preach.

Another Contest—Squire Miles P. Harrelson of Waco announces today his candidacy for Register of Deeds, opposing R. L. Weathers who now holds this position. While Mr. Weathers has not had opposition until now, he has been a candidate, so both announcements appear in today's Star. Both candidates, Weathers and Harrelson are clean, high toned men, with a host of friends throughout the county.

Summer School—The summer for Cleveland county teachers will open on Monday, July 7, according to an announcement by County Superintendent J. C. Newton. This includes two schools, one for the white teachers, and the other for the colored. The course will cover a period of six weeks. The sessions for white teachers will be held in the Central school and the faculty will be composed of Professors J. H. Grigg and Lawton Blanton and Miss Agnes McBrayer.

Max Connor Home—Max Connor son of Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Connor, and star player on the Shelby baseball club, who was seriously injured in an automobile accident several weeks ago while returning from a game with Rutherford college, has improved considerably and Friday was removed from the Shelby hospital to his home. He is still very weak, but should his condition continue to improve it is hoped that he may be able to attend the Tuesday's game as a spectator.

Land Auction Sale—The Carolina Land Co. of Hickory will hold an auction sale here Friday May 16th beginning at 2:30 o'clock at which time the D. A. Beam property near the Southern depot will be offered for sale as business lots. Mr. Beam recently purchased this property from B. E. Hamrick and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Mitchell, it being the estate of the late Chief B. Edgar Hamrick. Easy terms, a band concert and the Pitts Brothers, twin auctioneers, will be features of the sale.

Dr. Ayers Preaches—Dr. W. A. Ayers, pastor of the First Baptist church at Forest City filled the First Baptist church here Sunday in the absence of Pastor R. L. Lemons who delivered the commencement sermon at the Forest City school closing. Dr. Ayers preached a beautiful mother's day sermon, recalling the love, courage and fidelity of Mary the mother of Jesus when she stood beside him as he hung on the cross at Golgotha. The rain kept many away from the churches on Sunday.

Stolen Car—Sunday afternoon V. A. Powell, farmer of Lawndale route 3, loaned his two-passenger red stripped-down Ford roadster to one of his farm hands Jesse Moses, a negro small in stature and dark in color, and as yet Jesse has not returned. Moses was accompanied by another negro, John Thomas, heavy built and light in color. The car is a 1920 model with half windshield and spotlight. Needless to say, it was not a permanent loan and the officers are now looking for the "stripped-down" and the negroes.

Mothers' Service—A very appropriate and touching Mothers Day service was held Sunday morning by several classes of the Central Methodist Sunday school meeting with the Men's class in the church auditorium. The opening and devotional exercises were in charge of the intermediate class and included fitting songs and recitations and a solo, "Mother Machree," by W. Fife Robertson. Hon. Clyde R. Hoey, popular teacher of the Men's class, followed with a very interesting talk to the entire body, using three characteristics, "Hope, Faith and Love", in paying a great tribute to the mothers of the world. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers for the occasion.

Burke Boys Fined $25 For Conduct

In recorder's court Monday morning Russell Mull and Dewey Alwan, two young men of Burke county, were fined $25 and the costs each for being drunk and disorderly and resisting officers in Shelby on Saturday. The incident Saturday created quite a bit of commotion. Mull and Alwan with others were said to have been drinking and when approached by Chief Hamrick offered strenuous objections to being taken in to custody. The struggle lasted for sometime around the court square, but with the assistance of other officers the two were overpowered and placed in jail, giving bond later. The arrest and ensuing scuffle attracted quite a crowd of Saturday shoppers.

Afternoon Division

MAN INVINCIBLE

"It matters not how strait the gate,
 How charged with punishments the scroll.
 I am the master of my fate;
 I am the captain of my soul!" —Henley

What do you see before you—only the insurmountables, looming up before you?
 What are you waiting for—some one to move them out of your way, lift you over, or show you the way around them?

One of the greatest physicians carried his work to final success despite total blindness. One of the great Presidents of the United States derived his education from books read by the firelight.

Man, with a clear brain, and an unalterable faith in the Almighty, coupled with a will to do, is unconquerable.

You are a MAN—formed in God's image. What barrier can fall across your path, which you cannot go around, go over, or go THROUGH.

There is but one insurmountable obstacle, and that is the cry: "I can't. The odds are against me!"

As a man, this bank extends the hand of good fellowship. You can reach your goal—set it high.
