Local People Speak Well Of Mr. McLean

Coy McSwain and Miss Agnes McBrayer Speak Highly of Him in His Home Town

Mr. Coy McSwain, who owns and is cultivating a farm between Lattimore and Shelby, and Miss Agnes McBrayer who has been teaching school for a number of years, two of our good Cleveland County people lived in Lumberton, N. C., the home of Mr. A. W. McLean a few years ago before he thought of running for office, and when they had an opportunity of learning the worth and merit of the man free from political aspirations. This is what they have to say about Mr. McLean as a private citizen.

To the Democratic Voters of Cleveland County:—
I lived in Lumberton, N. C. several years ago when I learned to know Mr. A. W. McLean personally. I am pleased to say that he is a most excellent man. He is well liked by his neighbors and all who know him. He is one of the largest farmers of his county and the farmers of his section believe in him. He has the confidence of his home people. He began life a very poor boy, doing all kinds of farm work for his father who lived on and cultivated a small farm. With this small beginning, Mr. McLean by his splendid ability and honesty has made a remarkable success. In addition to his farming he has helped to promote and is interested in much of the business being done in his home county. I believe he will use the same good judgment in looking after the state's business that he has in conducting his own, and will therefore make us a great governor. For that reason I am going to vote for him and ask my neighbors and friends of Cleveland County to do likewise.

Respectfully,
Coy McSwain.
To the Editor of the Star:—
I taught school in Lumberton for two years and am pleased to say that I know Mr. A. W. McLean personally. He is a very friendly man, kind and helpful to strangers and liked by all who know him. He has done much for his home county and town. He is a large farmer and interested in practically all the business done in that section. He began life as the oldest son of a very small farmer, and by his good judgment, good character and willingness to work has made a wonderful success. I believe he will apply the same good qualities to the conduct of the State's business and make us a great governor.

Yours truly,
Miss Agnes McBrayer.

Bob Gantt Asks For Support Of J. E. Long

Mr. Lee B. Weathers, Shelby, N. C.
Dear Lee:

While in Shelby and Cleveland a few days ago, several people made inquiries of me concerning J. Elmer Long of Durham, who is a candidate for the nomination of the Democratic party for the office of Lieutenant-governor, subject to the action of the primary of June 7th.

Always being interested in any matter of public concern, whether it pertains to men or things that any person or number of persons in Cleveland county are or might be interested in, I am writing this relative to Mr. Long.

It is a fact that all of us, pay but little attention, if any, generally, to the candidate or candidates for the office of Lieutenant-governor, when it should be otherwise, for he can by virtue of his position as presiding officer of the Senate, to a very great extent, shape and control all legislation that comes up for consideration and passage. So naturally that office (and all others for that matter) should be filled by a man of character and ability. When I say this I do not negatively refer to the opponents of Mr. Long in this race, for so far as I know they both possess these attributes.

I have known J. Elmer Long, well, for a number of years. He is a man of the highest character and integrity, an able lawyer, a good business man and an experienced legislator. He is a fine stump speaker and campaigner, and if nominated, he would along with the successful nominee of the party for Governor, help head and make a great campaign for the party in the fall.

Very truly yours,
R. M. GANTT.
