Mrs. William McCord Honors Miss McMurry.
Mrs. William McCord will entertain Friday afternoon with a lovely party honoring Miss Sarah McMurry.

Missionary Society With Mrs. Newton.
The Young People's Missionary society of Central Methodist church will meet with Mrs. D. Z. Newton on Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Lovely Morning Party For Visitors.
Miss Elizabeth Dudley was the lovely young hostess on Tuesday morning at 10:30, honoring her delightful guests, Misses Ernestine and Ruth Redwine, of Spiro, Oklahoma. The rooms were decorated with pink roses, making lovely background for the attractive guests. After many exciting games Miss Dudley assisted by her mother, served a delicious ice and sweet course.

Hamrick-Patterson Wedding.
Mr. J. Paul Hamrick and Miss Christine Patterson were happily married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Patterson Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock in the presence of friends and relatives. Rev. Beverly Wilson performing the ceremony, the bride is a most attractive and popular young woman, well educated and highly esteemed by her host of friends. She was educated at Greensboro and has been teaching school at Patterson Springs. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Hamrick and is a most energetic and promising young business man having a position with the A. Blanton Grocery company. Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for a trip to Asheville, Blowing Rock and other points in western North Carolina.

Misses Pattie and Elizabeth Roberts Honor Miss McMurry.
One of the foremost social events of the week was the lovely bridge party given by the Misses Roberts honoring Miss Sarah McMurry, who this week is being entertained at a round of beautiful pre-nuptial parties. The hospitable Roberts' home was never more attractive than on this occasion. The Dorothy Perkins roses, sweet peas, and mountain laurel made a beautiful combination of colors and the placing of these June flowers were most artistic. During the hours eight tables of bridge was played. The score cards were pretty little bridesmaids in rainbow colors and at each place were the rainbow baskets filled with luscious cherries. As the bride's table the bride in miniature, was at Miss McMurry's place. At the conclusion of the game the hostesses presented the honor guests with an exquisite piece of hand painted china. Little Virginia Faison Jenkins, Minta LeGrand, and Emily Miller dressed in rose costumes assisted Misses Pattie and Elizabeth in serving a most elegant luncheon at the individual tables.

Delightful Club Hostess.
The last meeting of the season of the Cecelia Music club was held at the beautiful home of Mrs. John Schenck jr., on South Shelby on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Schenck, Mrs. Pyle and Mrs. Schenck, sr., greeted the guests on their arrival on the delightful flower-decorated porch. In the hall and living room mountain laurel and pink roses were used with wonderful effect. The music room sanctioned hardy hydrangas and red roses in artistic pottery vases, and baskets. The dining room was a color scheme of entrancing beauty, lavender and pink predominating. The table with its lace mats, bowls of sweet peas and silver candles with lavender tapers made a perfect ensemble. The program was given by the following members, Mrs. Riley, paper, Irene Mangschand Ritter, Piano duet, Garden of Roses, by Mrs. Hennessa and Miss Mamie Roberts. Piano solo, Among the Flowers, by Mrs. Will Aray. Vocal solo, by Mrs. Ben Suttle. After the program Mrs. Schenck served an elegant salad and sweet course. Besides the club members Mrs. Schenck had a number of invited guests and Miss Sarah McMurry a bride of next week was the honoree.

Miss Blanton Gives Beautiful Afternoon Tea.
Miss Millicent Blanton entertained at a beautiful tea on Tuesday afternoon at her lovely home on West Marion street, Miss Sarah McMurry who is being showered with attentions this week prior to her marriage was the charming honoree. Large baskets and vases filled with roses and corn flowers, were used as decorations in the spacious reception rooms. Greeting the guests at the door were Mrs. D. W. Royster and Miss Mary Harris. In the receiving line were Mrs. George Blanton, in white crepe, Miss Millicent Blanton in white and lavender crepe, Miss Sarah McMurry in pink crepe, Mrs. Pitt Beam in a yellow iridescent crepe and Mrs. Boshamer in green crepe. Between the living and dining rooms, Mrs. A. W. McMurry and Mrs. Will Roberts stood and invited the guests into the sun parlor where Misses Adeline Bostic, Mrs. Willis McMurry and Miss Helen Eskridge served delicious punch. The dining room table presented a rare picture with its beautiful lace cloth and center of gorgeous basket of American pillow roses. Surrounding this center piece were silver vases with these roses and silver candle sticks with pink tapers. In here Misses Esdale Ramseur, Caroline Blanton and Minnie Eddins and Mary Adelaide Roberts served a delicious ice and sweet course, pink and white being the colors. During the calling hours which were 4:30 to 6, Mrs. William McCord and Miss Mary Griffin played enjoyable music.

Mr. Leon Ligon To Marry.
Soperton, Ga.—Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Daly have announced the engagement of their daughter, Sara Merle Daly, to Leon E. Ligon, jr., of Fort Mill, S. C. The wedding to take place during the latter part of June.

Mr. Ligon is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Ligon of Shelby and a most prominent young business man of Fort Mill, S. C., where he is secretary treasurer of the Cash Store.

U. D. C. Entertain Children Of The Confederacy.

The Daughters of the Confederacy were hostess to fifty of the Children of the Confederacy on Tuesday afternoon at Cleveland Springs hotel. Decorations appropriate to the occasion were used. This being Jefferson Davis' birthday, the following program was rendered by the children.

Piano duet "Gay and Graceful" Helen Campbell and Sarah Austell.
Piano solo, "Humoresque" Alice Sanders.

Paper "Life of Jefferson Davis," Alpha Gettys.
Piano solo "Sous Bois" Caroline Blanton.

Recitation: "Aunt Keturah's Visit to the City" Kathleen Young.

Piano solo "General March" Minnie Eddins Roberts.
After this splendid program Miss Roberts the leader of the Children read the telegram received that day from Mrs. E. R. McKeithan, state director of the Children of the Confederacy, awarding the Children of Confederacy's state college scholarship to Francis Whisnant. Delicious ice cream cakes and mints were served.

Mrs. Fred Morgan and Miss Margaret At Home.

Elegant in appointment and beautiful in detail was the lovely "at home" Mrs. Morgan and her charming young daughter, Miss Margaret, gave on Wednesday morning the hours being from 10:30 to 12. Dorothy Perkins roses were used in profusion in the artistic decorations. The entire plan of the party carried out the idea of the pink rose. Pink was the dominant note of the color scheme. Assisting Mrs. Morgan and Miss Morgan in receiving in the reception room were Mrs. T. W. Hamrick in orange voile with filet lace insets; Mrs. Joe Smith in white linen and embroidery; Miss Sarah McMurry, the prospective bride was gown in a handsome printed roshnara crepe of white beautifully printed with flowers and printed scarf and hat to match. Mrs. Pitt Beam, in lavender voile lace trimmed and garden hat; Mrs. Morgan was handsome in powder blue voile with lace, and Miss Morgan was stunning in a white sport suit with a Roman scarf. Her charming house guest Miss Mildred Hackney was lovely in lavender embroidered voile lace trimmed. In the living room Mrs. Paul Webb in black and white. Mrs. S. R. Riley in gold crepe de chine sport dress and Mrs. Charlie Williams in black with printed scarf received. Miss Arnes McBrayer in gray and white roshnara crepe, sport hat, invited the guests into the dining room. The table was a vision of loveliness with its exquisite setting of roses in silver baskets and vase and yellow tulle, extended from the baskets to the four corners of the table were intertwined with the roses. Assisting here were, Mrs. C. B. Suttle and Mrs. Flay Hoye dressed in yellow voile and crepe de chine and Misses Mae Washburn and Elizabeth Suttle in lovely yellow voile frocks, who served a most delicious salad course. On a rose bowered table in the den the punch bowl was placed and serving punch was Mrs. Frank Hoye in a white sport dress with orange hat, scarf and slippers to match. She was assisted by Misses Elizabeth McBrayer in blue voile and lace, Patty Roberts, in powder blue crepe de chine and Lucy Hamrick in blue linen and lace. During the calling hours Miss Mary Griffin in yellow voile with black and white trimmings and Miss Frances McBrayer in green accordion pleated crepe de chine and lace rendered music.
