ORDINANCE AUTHORIZING THE
ISSUANCE OF ELECTRIC LIGHT
BONDS OF THE TOWN OF LAT-TIMORE.
It is ordered by the Governing Body of the town of Lattimore, a municipality in the county of Cleveland, state of North Carolina, be authorized and issued:

(a) For the purpose of erecting, installing and building an electric light plant for the town of Lattimore.
(b) That maximum aggregate principal amount of the bonds to be issued hereunder is $15,000.
(c) That a tax sufficient to pay the principal and interest of the bonds shall be annually levied and collected.
(d) That a statement of the debt of the municipality has been filed with the clerk and is open to public inspection.
(e) The assessed valuation of the property subject to taxation by the municipality for the year 1923 is $302,471.
(f) The amount of the net debt of the municipality outstanding authorized or to be authorized by this bond ordinance is $15,000.
(g) The probable period of usefulness of the electric light system to be constructed with the funds derived from said bonds is found and hereby declared to be thirty years.
(h) This ordinance shall be in effect thirty days after its first publication or posting unless in the meantime a petition for its submission to the voters is filed under this act, and in such event it shall take effect when approved by the voters of the municipality at an election as provided by law.
The foregoing ordinance was passed June 2, 1924, and was first published on June 6, 1924. Any action or proceeding questioning the validity of said ordinance must be commenced within 30 days after its first publication.

LENOIR CITIZEN STARTLED TO LEARN WOMEN ARE VOTING

Kinston, June 8.—A report came up from a lower Lenoir county locality today of a man who had not heard of the Susan Anthony amendment until he went to vote yesterday. He had seen no end of automobiles, did not doubt the existence of flying machines was not so remotely situated that he had not ridden on railroad trains, and knew of the abolition of legalized bar rooms, but the enfranchisement of women was a development of which he was completely ignorant, he declared. A political vacation was respectable for his failure to be informed, he said. He had not been near the polls in several years.

The fact that there was one woman at the polling place exercising the sex's new prerogative betrayed the doom of the nation to the negligent freeman. He hesitated to vote. He was urged to go ahead and attend to the business of citizenship. At first he would "be d—d if he would." Finally he relented and said he might as well.
"I hear they're playing football up at town," he said.

MRS. JOHNSON DIES IN RUTHERFORD COUNTY

Mrs. E. B. Johnson died at Rutherfordton Saturday morning at 10 o'clock after a long illness. She was the daughter of the late William Twitty, and is survived by her husband, one son, two sisters, Mrs. M. O.
Dickerson and Mrs. H. L. Carpenter, and three brothers, Dr. J. C. Twitty, W. C. and R. M. Twitty. Funeral and interment were held Monday morning at 11:30 o'clock.

and I was run-down and so weak that I had to remain in bed much of the time and was like an invalid.
I had pains in my abdomen and in the

my stomach bothered me. My husband saw Lydia E.

vertised, thought it must be good, and brought it home to me and advised me to try it. After taking one bottle I was able to eat, and after six bottles I was doing my own work, which I hadn't been able to do for years. I have a new baby who is doing nicely, and I am still taking the Vegetable Compound and feeling better than I have for four years. The medicine is truly wonderful and a good thing to have

A Rose For Father

We all love Mother's Day, and keep it loyally; and it is good that we do because we are thus brought in closer touch with dear memories, with days that were young and glad; and our hearts are filled and thrilled with the desire to add to the happiness of "the dearest mother in the world"—as she always is to somebody. It has become a well beloved institution, with its own big place among the days we cherish. Nobody ever forgets Mother's Day.

But what about Father's Day?
It is more than likely that not one person in fifty even knows that it was ever thought of; yet it was suggested only a little after Mother's Day was instituted, by a big-hearted, kindly woman who felt that appreciation was due father as well as mother. And the first Sunday in June was set apart for its observance. That it has not been generally celebrated, and less and less each year, is to be deplored, although perhaps this lack of enthusiasm is natural enough. We somehow feel—most of us—that father does not enjoy or approve any leaning toward sentiment as touching himself; that he is made of sterner stuff. While he is glad and proud to lend a hand in making Mother's Day all that it should be, his own day is another story.

Suppose we change all this; at any rate, suppose we try to change it. Privately, I am sure there is not a father anywhere who will fail to appreciate the recognition of his deserts as evidenced by giving over to him one day of the year. He may acknowledge this rather sheepishly, if at all. He may even poolpooch at the idea and declare that such nonsense isn't for him. Never mind; let us observe Father's Day just the same. Let us show how much we think of him, how we honor and love him; it will not be hard to do this when we take a retrospective view of the years and remember how staunch and faithful he has ever been to the duties falling to his lot. It may be a little gift, a letter, a telephone call—anything that will prove to him we have not forgotten. And deep in his heart the remembrance will touch a responsible chord of tenderness, of rejoicing that he, too, is kept lovingly in mind by his children—always "the children," even though grown to the estate of manhood and womanhood.

The flower for Father's Day is a red rose, warm and glowing, symbolic of affection. Let us wear it to denote our allegiance to "the best father in the world," whether he is with us still, or has passed beyond the pale of human vision.

Establish Zones To Control Boll Weevil

Kinston, June 10.—The Eastern Carolina Chamber of commerce has announced the following principal zones for the state-wide campaign against the boll weevil, in which the sectional organization with headquarters here, has taken the leadership:

First zone to comprise Brunswick, Columbus, New Hanover, Pender, Onslow, Jones, Carteret, Craven, Pamlico, Beaufort, Hyde, Washington, Tyrrell and Dare counties.

Second zone, Robeson, Scotland, Hoke, Sampson, Duplin, Wayne, Lenoir, Greene, Pitts, Martin, Bertie, Chowan, Perquimans, Pasquotank, Camden, Currituck and Bladen counties.

Third zone, Cleveland, Lincoln, Gaston, Mecklenburg, Union, Cabarrus, Stanly, Anson, Montgomery, Richmond, Moore, Lee, Chatham, Wake, Johnston, Harnett, Wilson, Franklin, Nash, Edgecombe, Halifax, Northampton, Hertford and Gates counties.

Fourth zone, all other counties in the state producing cotton.
Within the territory of the sectional chamber of commerce, according to Newell G. Bartlett, the manager, four fifths of the North Carolina cotton crop is produced. The American Cotton association, various commercial and official agencies in North Carolina and hundreds of bankers, farm supply merchants, manufacturers, and other individuals are co-operating in what is expected to be the most intensive campaign against the cotton pest since the weevil first migrated from Mexico. The war will be waged relentlessly until the last bale of the 1924 crop is harvested. The cost will be many thousand dollars, but the managers are estimating a "return of many millions."

MORRISON TO MAKE
HOME IN CHARLOTTE

Charlotte, June 8.—Governor and Mrs. Cameron Morrison will make their home in Charlotte, in one of the exclusive residential sections of the city, upon completion of his term of office January 1, 1925.
His excellency and wife have closed a deal for purchase of the handsome Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Jamieson at the corner of Queens road and Radcliffe avenue, Myers park, opposite Queens college, two vacant lots in the rear of the residence and four acres of the Shakespeare Harris land nearby. The total consideration involved in the deal is said to have been $102,000.
The governor announced that upon return to Charlotte he and his family would occupy the Jamieson residence until completion of a more commodious home they expect to erect on the Harris lands.

GASTON COUNTY PAGEANT
IS AROUSING INTEREST

Gastonia, June 10.—Interest is spreading over the entire county in the approaching presentation of the Gaston county pageant under the auspices of the federated womens clubs of the county. The various committees are at work, and actual training of the cast will be commenced next week.

Miss Pearl Setzer, of Chapel Hill, who is to train the cast arrived in the city Monday, and will at once get rehearsals under way. She will visit each woman's club in the county, and expects that the president of each club will have her local committees organized and ready to function when she calls on them.

Miss Setzer was in Gastonia a few weeks ago, at which time the historical matter was placed in her hands for putting into pageant shape. This has been done. Mrs. Adelaide S. Beard, of Belmont, general chairman, has been devoting a great deal of time for the past few weeks to this proposition, and has everything moving along smoothly. She has the co-operation of a large number of the men and women of the county, and indications are that this pageant, the first of any importance to be presented in this section of the state, will go over big.

DAD AND SON TO MEET
BEHIND BARS IN PRISON

Little Rock, Ark., June 11.—Father and son will be reunited when John L. Gunn, of Memphis, Tenn., is taken to the Federal penitentiary at Atlanta Ga., to serve a sentence for violation of the anti-narcotic law.

John G. Gunn, seventy, the father began a sentence at Atlanta for a similar offense. He said he had been a drug addict since 1884.

Greener, June 10.—The heaviest rain fall of the season fell Friday afternoon. The rain was accompanied by much wind and lightning.

The primary passed off very quiet Saturday. A large number of votes were cast, McLean receiving overwhelming majority for governor.

Mrs. J. B. Ellis visited her sister Mrs. Plunk in Kings Mountain last week.

Dr. W. C. Gates of Belmont spent Sunday in Greener.

Mrs. Nancy McSwain is visiting her son Mr. Spurgeon McSwain of the Bethlehem community.

Mr. D. J. Keeter and family attended a birthday dinner at the home of their son Mr. J. B. Keeter at Bessemer City Sunday. This event celebrated the birth of Mrs. D. J. Keeter, her son J. B., and little granddaughter, Mary Jane Jenkins of York S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Randall spent several days last week with their daughter at Mountain Island.

Mrs. George Oates who has been confined to her home for some time is able to be out again.

Misses Terah Pinkleton, Ruby Ellis, Aline Mullinax and Ruth Anthony are home from Limestone college for the summer. We always welcome the girls back home.

Mr. Armin Rollins who has been at Oteen hospital for some time is spending a few days here with Mrs. Roll-

Mrs. Frank Hambrick has gone to Rutherford hospital for treatment.

The women of the community met at the home of Miss N. M. Livingston last Wednesday afternoon and gave her a very generous "pounding." This was only a little token of their appreciation of Miss Livingston's work in the school and community this year.

Mrs. C. O. Hambrick and children of Greenville, S. C., visited in the home of Mr. L. C. Hamrick Sunday.

Mr. D. F. C. Harry has been very sick for the past few days. He is reported to be a little improved at this writing.

Mrs. D. J. Keeter left yesterday to attend the meeting of the grand chap-
