Use Vine Cuts To Start Your Potatoes

Owing to the scarcity of sweet potato slips in Cleveland county and the whole state I want to urge every person who does not have enough potato slips to get out to use vine cuttings.

When the potato vines which have been set out get to be eight or 10 inches long these vines can be cut and pushed in the ground with a stick leaving only a little of the vine sticking out. The vines should be put in the ground while there is a season in it, and practically every cutting will live.

Vine cuttings can be set out profitably to July 4th and will make practically as many bushels as the slips and potatoes free from disease that will keep better than the potatoes grown from seed.

Everybody should put out a few vine cuttings to get your seed for next year and this is a good year to start when potato slips are so scarce.

R. E. LAWRENCE, Co. Agt.

HAIL STORMS ALL AROUND US

For the last few days the papers have been full of reports of damaging hail storms in every county around us—and in South Carolina, Tennessee and Georgia. We are having hail storms in our own county. A number of claims have come into us already. A number this week.

If your crop is not insured against hail damage you are taking a great risk. The cost is very small to insure, only $2.00 per acre if you take $50 insurance per acre. See us at once for hail insurance.

JUST TO REMIND YOU

We advertise ourselves as "The Bank of Personal Service."

The word "Service" is badly overworked in advertising fields; but, if ever a bank tried to constantly broaden its service to patrons, we believe we do.

That does not mean that we are inclined to allow people who call themselves our friends to persuade us to engage in banking practices not in keeping with legitimate and sound methods. It does mean that we meet our clients' wishes in every reasonable request, and we give them the benefit of cordial and hearty co-operation in their relations with us, to just that extent that they will permit us to treat with them.

Here are the services to be found in the "Personal Service" Bank.

Receiving deposits, and protecting your cash, Cashing your checks, or paying at your order—Collecting your checks—anywhere in the world—Keeping your account for you, and returning to you your paid vouchers—Paying you interest on savings and certificates—Bank drafts, Cashier's Checks, and Traveler's Cheques—Advisory service in financial matters—Lending money—Collecting for you your accounts on others—Foreign Exchange—Securities bought and sold for you—Any reasonable personal service you would ask.

The neglected opportunity!

Can you look back to last year, or last month, or last week and think of opportunities now forever gone?

Time past! Those weeks and months and years cannot be recalled. It is useless to brood over them, except to permit the experiences of the past to be a teacher and guide for the future.

One of the opportunities open before you today is that of saving—saving every penny that you can.
