Lovely Dinner Party.

Mrs. Baxter Moore, of Winston-Salem, who is spending some time at Cleveland Springs hotel had as her dinner guests on Thursday evening Mrs. Clyde R. Hoey, Mrs. James L. Webb, Mrs. S. R. Riley and Mrs. O.

Charlotte Motor Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Pharr, Mr. and Mrs. George White, Miss Nancy Fairley and Mr. Julian Little, of Charlotte, formed a congenial motor party coming to Cleveland Springs and dining on Thursday evening.

Motor Party to Blowing Rock.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hoyle, Misses Margaret Hoyle, Marguerite Leverette, Margaret Jones, and Messrs. Clyde Hoey, Jr., Eugene and Wilbur Hoyle, and Will Higgins formed a congenial party motoring to Blowing Rock Thursday for the day.

Miss Lucy Hoyle Charming Young Hostess.

Miss Lucy Hoyle was a charming young hostess to several of her young friends on Friday evening at eight o'clock. The lawn was the scene of this happy occasion and many games were played. After a happy time Miss Hoyle served delicious refreshments.

Miss Leverette Is Dinner Hostess.

Honoring Mr. Aubrey D. Adair, of Greenville, Texas, Miss Marguerite Leverette was hostess to a small dinner party Monday evening, at her home on West Marion street. Besides Mr. Adair, the guests present were Miss Miriam Hoyle and Mr. Robert Wilson, Miss Margaret Jones, of Talladega, Ala., and Mr. Clyde R. Hoey jr., and Miss Faye Lutz and Mr. John Anthony.

Miss Rosalynd Nix Delightful Hostess.

Miss Rosalynd Nix entertained a number of her friends most delightfully on Thursday evening honoring her attractive house guest, Miss Mildred Taylor, of Tarboro.

The young people enjoyed an evening of pure enjoyment with this popular young hostess. Elegant ices and sweets were served to the guests on the lantern lit and attractively decorated porches, and a happy evening was spent.

Mrs. Hugh Miller Honors Miss Kate Caldwell.

One of the loveliest parties of the week was that given by Mrs. Hugh Miller on Friday evening, honoring her attractive niece, Miss Kate Caldwell of Charlotte. The large lawn and broad porches made a charming setting for these lovely young girls and splendid boys. "Progressive conversation" was the game played and it afforded much amusement and a most attractive diversion. Lovely flowers were used in the decorations and the lanterns furnished a soft light. Music and dancing was also enjoyed after which Mrs. Miller served most tempting refreshments.

Miss Thelma Young Honors Miss Mildred Taylor.

A beautiful luncheon was given by Miss Thelma Young at her handsome home on Friday, honoring Miss Mildred Taylor, of Tarboro, the charming guest of Miss Rosalynd Nix. The table was beautifully appointed and had for its center piece an exquisite basket of roses. Covers were laid for eight, the following were the guests, Misses Nix and Taylor, Mary Helen Lattimore, Matilda Lattimore, Janie Blanton, Mary Adelaide Roberts and Margaret Lackey, of Florida. A five-course luncheon was faultlessly served.

Enjoyable Dinner Party.

Mrs. Clyde R. Hoey always a gracious hostess entertained a charming coterie of women on Thursday with an elegant dinner. The rooms were beautifully decorated with golden glow and the table where the dinner was served had for its centerpiece a beautiful bowl of these bright flowers. Covers were laid for 10 and the following were Mrs. Hoey's guests: Mrs. John Shannonhouse, Mrs. John Miller of Griffin, Ga.; Mrs. Hoke Sisk of Jacksonville, Fla.; Mrs. Louis Foreney, Mrs. R. L. Armour, Mrs. Graham Morrison of Marioposa; Mrs. T. J. Babington, Miss Mamie Jones and Miss Leona Gidney.

Beautiful Lawn Party.

The beautiful lawn and spacious verandas of Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Mitchell's attractive home on South Washington street on Thursday evening were aglow with colored lanterns, the lights twinkling in and out among the trees and the baskets of sun flowers and golden glow, but a fairy like appearance to this beautiful scene where Miss Alpha Gettys greeted and introduced Misses Clara Wood and Delia Gettys to her many friends. The party began at 8:30 and the young people began assembling at this hour.

"Progressive conversation" was the game played and the wit and fun was much enjoyed from this delightful game after which dancing was indulged in. When the midnight hour approached delicious refreshments and ices were served by Miss Gettys's mother, Mrs. S. A. Gettys and her aunt, Mrs. W. F. Mitchell.

The "Looker On" Writes of Dogs Versus Motoring.

Why is it that nine dogs out of ten take to motoring like the proverbial duck to water? Some, we are convinced, motor because they are bored with life, like their mistresses. But the rest—the real dog with noses to smell with, instead of tilt, and eyes that are quicker to spot a rat than a chocolate cream. There will come a quick succession of cows and chickens, and skimming swallows, they know when the city or town is left behind and the ribbon road unwinds across the hills. Fresh breezes will stream by, laden with vibrant scents. Farm dogs will bark, children play in the yards, horses cavort skittishly beyond pasture fences. Everywhere will be movement, exhilaration, change. Yes, these must be the lure of motoring. For the real dog is a creature of active, pulsing life and he welcomes thrills.

Dinner Party at Cleveland Springs Hotel.

Miss Dorothy McBrayer and guest Miss Jack Cherry, of Mt. Olive; and Mr. Bill Hucklebee and Mr. John Hudson formed a delightful party for dinner at the Cleveland Springs hotel on Saturday evening.

Week-end Guests at Cleveland Springs Hotel.

Among the week end guests registered at Cleveland Springs hotel this week were Mr. and Mrs. "Red" Powell and Miss Caroline Dargan, of Raleigh; Col. A. L. Smith and Brevart McDowell, of Charlotte; Messames Ferrell and Roddy from Rock Hill, S. C., and Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Cabaniss and daughter of Charlotte.

Hospital Staff On Picnic.

The staff of the Shelby public hospital enjoyed a straw ride to Patterson Springs Saturday afternoon where they had a picnic supper. The party was composed of the surgeon, Dr. Harbison, the interne, Dr. Moore, the superintendent Miss Ella McNichols and all the nurses except a few who had to remain on duty with the patients.

Celebrates Her 6th Birthday.

Little Mary Glenn Washburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Washburn celebrated her sixth birthday Monday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Washburn on N. Morgan street. About 8 children of her age gathered to enjoy the occasion with her and after a series of pleasant games, the children were served a course of refreshments. The hostess is here with her mother from Kathleen, Ga., on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Washburn and Mr. and Mrs. W. Y. Crowder.

Former Cleveland Girl Married in Gaston.

The Gastonia Gazette announced the marriage last Friday of Miss Madge Styres to Mr. Henry Francis Andrews, the ceremony being performed by Rev. G. P. Abernethy of Shelby, former pastor of the bride. The bride is a native of the Elizabeth section of Cleveland and daughter of the W. A. Styres.

Sprays of crepe myrtle and vines of trailing green transformed the living room into a bridal bower. Mrs. U. F. Taylor presided at the piano, playing Mendelssohn's wedding march as a processional. Miss Mattie Styres, younger sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a ruffled gown of white organdy and carried an arm bouquet of pink gladioli. The only other attendant was Mr. David Smith, who acted as best man. The bride was most becomingly attired in white Canton crepe, with small hat to match. Her flowers were white gladioli.

Mr. Edward Conrad Weds Miss Pattie Mae Green.

Coming as a complete surprise to her numerous friends is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Pattie Mae Green to Mr. Edward Conrad, which took place on Friday evening at the Robert E. Lee hotel in Winston-Salem. Miss Green had been attending summer school in Greensboro. She is the beautiful and charming young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Green of this place and has many friends who will be interested in this announcement.

Mr. Conrad is a resident of Winston and is a promising young business man. After their honeymoon they will be at home in Winston.

Women are in politics, but recent developments indicate that they are not on to politics.

SOMETHING TO SEE AT THE PRINCESS

TUESDAY

"THE LIGHT THAT FAILED," the picturization of a Rudyard Kipling story. A tremendous story by the master teller of tales and the most famous of living authors. The picture is laid in the Soudan and in England, packed with drama and thrills. Kipling's great story made greater on the screen. You must see it. Extra—Fox News.

WEDNESDAY

"MISSING DAUGHTERS." What happened to Dorothy Arnold? Who killed Dot King and Louise Lawson? How did Dixie Dixon become a drug addict? What becomes of all missing daughters listed in the police records as lost persons? What is on the other side of the clutching fear in the hearts of American fathers and mothers? "MISSING DAUGHTERS" at the Princess Theatre Wednesday is the answer. A picture for all to see. A good comedy will help entertain you.

THURSDAY

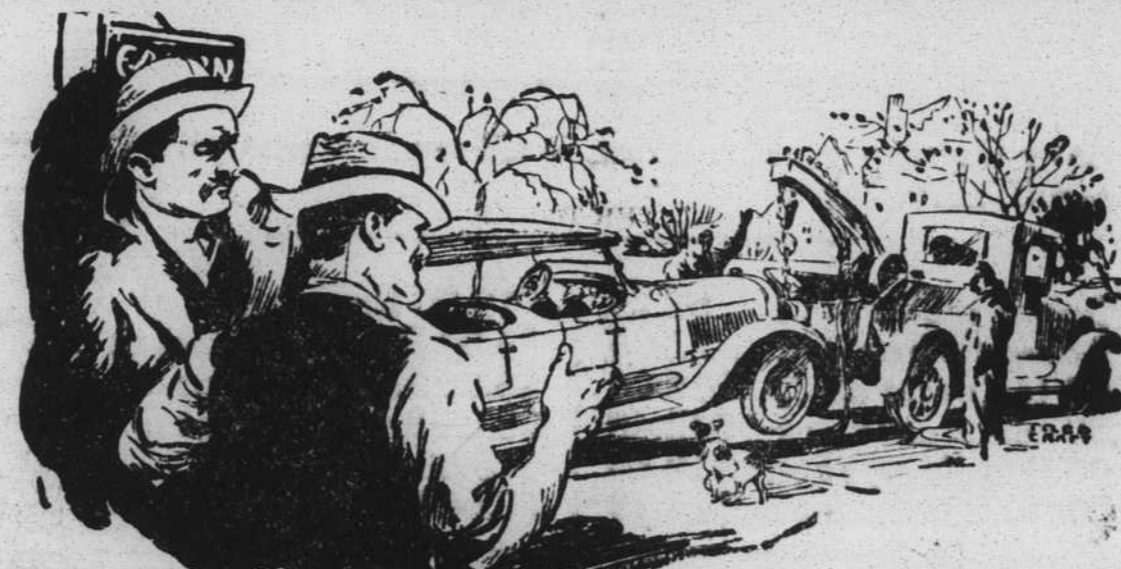

Is the big day at the Princess, for its the boys day, Jackie Coogan, the idol of childhood, is coming that day in "A BOY OF FLANDERS," under the auspices of Troop 1 of the Boy Scouts. This touching story is adapted from Ouida's immortal child classic, "A DOG OF FLANDERS." Everyone knows of Nello, the little Flanders boy with his wooden shoes, who at the death of his grandfather had only one friend, the great dog Petrasche, and a long milk route for a living. Jackie Coogan is the broken-hearted Nello, and the big friendly dog is almost human. Everyone should see "A BOY OF FLANDERS," first for pure entertainment, and to help the Boy Scouts. Its Thursday.

---COMING---

SCOUT TROOP NO. 1 OFFERS JACKIE COOGAN THURSDAY "THE BOY OF FLANDERS" THURSDAY, JULY 31ST

Afternoon and evening. Just the two shows, so begin making plans to attend one of them.

Troop No. 1, Boy Scouts of America, Shelby, is offering this great picture at the Princess. So great is the appeal of this fine picture that faces will be seen in the audience not usually seen there. My, but it's a great film and worth its weight in gold and is built for old and young alike. Try this one on our money back guarantee. Just this, the Scouts will call at your very door or see you on the streets offering tickets—the people from the country can phone Riviere Drug Co., and have tickets reserved. The Scout sale of tickets goes off at 11 A. M. Thursday—so buy or make reservation before that time. Fox News Extra. Admission 25c.

"Better stick to one Gas and Oil!"

THE old school of hard knocks has taught the Fleet Boss it doesn't pay to experiment with gasolines and oils. He finds it safer to use a team put out by a house of established reputation—gas and oil refined to work together in perfect harmony—gas and oil you can get anywhere. By standardizing on one good brand—and taking the trouble to insist on it—he knows enough when trouble comes to look for mechanical faults.

"Standard" Polarine Motor oils are the chosen running mates for "Standard" Gasoline—selected by the oldest and most experienced oil company in the world from among hundreds of oils made for all sorts of purposes—established by every practical and scientific test as absolutely the highest quality oils that can be made for the lubrication of automobile motors. Insist on "Standard" products.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY (New Jersey)

Buy the best oil but buy it by name, and the name is "Standard" Polarine.

"STANDARD" Polarine Oils you can Trust!

Three consistencies—one correct for your motor. Consult your dealer's Polarine chart—always name the oil it recommends.

Hosts at Delightful Dinner Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Webb were delightful dinner hosts on Saturday evening at Cleveland Springs hotel. They had as their guests Mrs. Louis Bailey, of Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. D. E. Pop, of Bading; Mrs. John Austin of Wadesboro; Misses Kate Webb, Ouida Mundy and Elizabeth McBrayer.

Convention oratory is very largely a matter of obituaries, stale stories and noise.
