It was here that the escape of Major Butler was planned. John was to have everything in readiness, and signal Mary from a large rock across the river. (now called Flashing Rock) by flashing gun pewder. The escape was planned for 4 o'clock in the morning. Major Butler was to leap from h window into a large tree beside the house. And thus Major Butler escaped, meeting John and some of his comrades at the appointed place.

John is Wounded Approximately two hours later the escaping party had a brush with the enemy, and John Ramsey was mortally wounded. His dying words to Major Butler were:

"I fought for you, because Mary wished it. She warned me not to be rash, but I could not help it. Be kind to her, Major Butler, and take good care of her. Tell her I did not fear to die, but for her sake and for the sake of my poor mother. Go to my parents, let them know that I thought of them in my last thoughts." And so a beautiful romance of the Revolutionary war was shattered. Mary never married, but continued
