PASTOR APPEALS FOR SABBATH OBSERVANCE

Rev. A. L. Stanford Says Lawlessness
Has its Origin In The Home.
Home Problem Discussed.

Rev. A. L. Stanford preached on the outstanding local issue of the day Sunday morning at Central Methodist church when he made an appeal for stricter observance of the Sabbath, declaring himself in favor of closing the drug stores except for filling prescriptions and closing the filling stations which are accustomed to staying open for the sale of gasoline. A circular distributed Saturday announcing that he would preach on "Shall we have in America a Continental or a Christian Sabbath; Shall we Live in Houses or Homes?" aroused interest as to what he would say. Mr. Stanford said the more he visited the homes, the dearest spot under God's bending skies and the more he contemplates the sorrows and joys, the successes and failures therein, the more convinced he is that the home problem is the most complex problem in our land today. If the home is pure all is pure, but if home is corrupt, all currents of our national life are corrupt. Our national life can never rise higher nor sink lower than our home life. You may build mansions, furnish them elegantly, pile up your fortunes and enjoy your luxuries, but what do these amount to when you sit in your home and contemplate "where is my wandering boy tonight" and what of my fallen girl?

Mr. Stanford referred to the Chicago murder and declared that if Leopold and Loeb had been reared in a Christian home they would never have perpetrated such a heinous crime and said the most beautiful thing in all the world is a Godly home where the members are on their way to Heaven, while the saddest thing that God ever looks down upon is a Godless home in which the members are on the way to hell.

At this point he asked his hearers to picture if they could what Cleveland county would be without the church of the living God. He declared that the county's greatest assets are not the cotton mills, banks, stores, schools, roads, etc., but the greatest institutions are the homes and the churches. Destroy these and the people go to the devil exceeding the speed limit. God's plan for each father and mother is first and foremost that they be Christians and that they teach their children to obey His commandments. Mr. Stanford bemoaned the lack of parental authority declaring that lawlessness has its origin in the home where the parents fail to exercise proper restrictions upon their children. This has caused an era which has never been equalled for disregard for civil, religious and political authority. Children are turned loose; parents don't know where they are. If the children do not want to go to public and Sunday schools, they do not go and parents don't seem to try to set the proper examples and compel them to live in the ways of righteousness.

Again Mr. Stanford said we are violating the divine law because some of us are arguing for personal liberty. These people argue that because gas is sold in other places on Sunday it is right to sell it in Shelby. The argument is false and rotten to the core. They say we must have more freedom and liberty. That was true years ago when the Israelites were circumscribed and wanted a king like the heathen nations round about, but when they got it their troubles began. The same thing was true in France which did away with the Bible, repudiated God's word and stopped Sabbath observance. "Because of that, Germany was a far better nation morally than France and any soldier who went overseas will corroborate my opinion," declared Mr. Stanford.

Mrs. Harriet Callahan Buried At Beaver Dam

Mrs. Harriet Callahan, who died Thursday night, was buried Saturday afternoon at the Beaver Dam church, the funeral services being conducted by Revs. J. C. Gillespie, D. G. Washburn and B. M. Bridges.

Mrs. Callahan, who was a valued member of the Poplar Springs church, was 56 years of age. She had been afflicted for about 15 years, but bore her burden with passive courage and bravery until death relieved her suffering.

She is survived by her husband, Mr. A. E. Callahan and five children as follows: Roland Callahan, of Boiling Springs; Rex Callahan, of Waynesville, Ga.; Alva Callahan, who is in the army and was unable to attend the funeral; Mrs. J. B. Blanton of Kings Mountain, and Mrs. Vessa Flowers, of Asheville.

Mrs. R. E. Campbell and two daughters returned last week from Chimney Rock, where they spent two weeks.

FIRST FEDERAL COURT TO BE HELD IN SEPT

The first term of Federal court to be held in Shelby will convene here about the fourth Monday in September, according to Attorney O. M. Mull. Judge E. Y. Webb who is now on a trip through Europe will return about the first of September and the term of court here will be the first term he will hold after the summer vacation period. The docket for the court will be made up by the clerk of the Federal court in Charlotte. Hon. Ernest Williams. It will be remembered that the judiciary committee of the house of Congress recently prepared the bill providing for two terms of Federal court annually in Shelby so the term in September will be the first to be held. The county commissioners granted permission for the Federal government to hold the court in the county court house.

WILL TRY COUPLE ON THEIR RETURN

Sloan Philbeck and Mrs. Jessie Francis, who are said to have eloped together last Wednesday week from their respective homes at Earl and who were later arrested in Pullman, Washington, on a warrant sworn out by Avery Francis, husband of Mrs. Francis, are expected to arrive here today in the custody of a deputy sheriff from Colfax, Washington, local officers state. Immediately upon their arrival here they will be given a preliminary hearing before Magistrate T. C. Eskridge, according to Attorney B. T. Falls, who is assisting in the prosecution. The charge against Philbeck who is also married, is that of elopement, and so far as is yet known no charges have been preferred by the Federal government, although this may be done later.

Philbeck and Mrs. Francis left Earl last Wednesday night one week ago and the husband of Mrs. Francis in making enquiry next day learned that they left together. They were taken to Morganton by J. O. Taylor, local taxi driver, where they boarded a train for the state of Washington. Local authorities wired a warrant there for their arrest and shortly after their arrival they were taken in charge by an officer there and started on the return trip. Mrs. Philbeck is said to have received a telegram from her husband Monday stating that he would be back Tuesday.

Philbeck's wife, mother and brother were in Shelby Monday seeking counsel and it is further reported that Max Gardner and Clyde Hoey have been retained by the defense. Local people are awaiting the preliminary hearing with much interest.

Over 1,500 People At Lutz Reunion

Many Shelby people attended the big annual Lutz reunion held at Kadesh church Thursday, the exercises lasting throughout the day. The event was considered one of the largest family reunions ever held in the county and was attended by at least 1,500 people from approximately six counties in Piedmont Carolina.

Members of the Lutz family and connections from many sections were present and the event was more successful than was even hoped. The dinner spread on a long table picnic fashion was considered the biggest array of "eats" ever seen in the section.

Features of the day were addresses by Congressman Bulwinkle, of Gastonia, and by Rev. W. A. Lutz, who spoke on "Our Reunion Settlers." The address of welcome was by E. W. Dixon and response by S. E. Lutz. There was singing by the Belwood community choir and a number of short talks.

Many People Enjoy Big Hamrick Reunion

The fourth annual Hamrick reunion held Thursday at the Hamrick Springs about three miles from Kings Mountain on the Bertie Hamrick farm, was the largest attended of any reunion ever held there. It is estimated that over 1,000 people were present, many attending from Kings Mountain and Shelby.

A talk on "Americanism" was made at 2:30 in the afternoon by Hon. A. L. Bulwinkle, who was introduced by Editor G. G. Page, of the Kings Mountain Herald. Dr. J. S. Dorton also made a short talk on the county fair. A general picnic dinner was enjoyed and the youngsters were directed in games and contests by O. F. McGill, field representative of the cotton growers association.

AGED LADY DIES AT 89 YEARS OF AGE

Mrs. Mary Abernethy Bern in Charlotte When It Was a Hamlet, Passed Away in Shelby

Mrs. Mary Abernethy, widow of Columbus Washington Abernethy, died Thursday evening at 6 o'clock at the home of her daughter Mrs. Daisy Wright on N. Morgan street after a lingering illness of 6 or 7 weeks from general break down of health by old age. Mrs. Abernethy was born in Charlotte in 1835 when that city of today was a small way-side hamlet. In her girlhood, she knew everybody in town and all the homes were familiar play places for her. When she died at the age of 89 years and two days, she was receiving the most patient and loving attention at the hands of her daughter Mrs. Wright and her sons who tenderly ministered unto her during her illness. She was a typical old fashioned mother who loved the beautiful, the true and noble things of life and the devotion of her children was most commendable. Although she had surpassed the allotted time of life she loved mother and did everything possible to prolong her beautiful life and make her comfortable.

Before marriage Mrs. Abernethy was Mary Kistler. She was married to C. W. Abernethy when she was about 21. They moved later to Catawba and later still to Burke county where she spent her latter years. Her husband died in 1918, this being the first death in the family. A son Charles died in 1912. While in Burke, Mrs. Abernethy lived with a daughter, Mrs. Jessie Cook, coming eight weeks ago to another daughter, Mrs. Daisy Wright on N. Morgan. She leaves the following children, T. H. and Will of Shelby, J. S., a Huntersville, E. S., of Hilderbran, Mrs. Dr. Jennings of Banner Elk, Mrs. Jessie Cook of Connelly Springs, Mrs. Daisy Wright of Shelby, 32 grand children and 29 great grand children, together with a host of friends. Rev. A. L. Stanford conducted a short funeral service over the remains here, after which her body was carried to Connelly Springs and tenderly laid to rest beside her late husband, the funeral there being conducted Saturday at 11 a. m. by Revs. Jim Green and Rev. Mr. Poe, pastor of the Methodist church of which she was a member.

600 ATTEND 102ND BIRTHDAY MRS. GRIGG

Oldest Woman in the County has 196 Descendants—Bible With Age Record is Found.

Mrs. Susan Grigg, perhaps the oldest living woman in Cleveland county, celebrated her 102nd birthday near the three county corners at the home of John Grigg last Friday when over 600 people were present. Mrs. Grigg was born when James Monroe was fifth president of the United States in 1822 and she remembers well many of the changes that have taken place in our government. Her body is frail and emaciated, but when her friends and relatives gathered Friday to pay tribute to her long life, she was able to walk out on the porch with the assistance of relatives and there have a great-granddaughter Ivie Watterson of Shelby dress her hair and arrange her for a photograph. The crowd that came this year was the largest that ever attended one of her anniversaries people going from Shelby, Grover, Kings Mountain, Gastonia, Mt. Holly, Paw Creek, Charlotte, Bessemer City, Newton, Morganton and other points. Two ministers made short talks during the day and all enjoyed the bountiful dinner and the social intercourse. Even Mrs. Grigg who is past the century mark has a clear mind and she laughed and talked with her hundreds of friends.

It was expected to have the Bible there in which her birth was recorded, but it is in possession of a brother-in-law, Perry Wright of Bessemer City, and Mr. Wright was unable to attend. She is the mother of 7 children—Rachael Poston, Levi Grigg, Monroe Grigg, Frank Grigg, Sarah Baker, Daniel and Columbus Grigg, the latter two being dead. The 196 descendants are as follows: 7 children, 42 grandchildren, 117 great grand children and 30 great, great grandchildren.

Play at Fallston.

There will be a play "Valley Farm" given by the Casar Baptist Sunday school at the Fallston school auditorium Saturday night August 16th, beginning at 8:30. Admission 20 and 30 cents.

Dr. and Mrs. Horace L. Yelton of Erwin, Tenn., are visiting relatives at Lawndale.

BOY BADLY HURT WHEN HIT BY BUS

Gregory Boy Runs in Front of Hudson Driven by Zeb Costner. Skull is Fractured.

Again the inevitable accident may claim as a sacrifice a human life. The life being that of little Neal Gregory six-year old South Shelby boy, who lies in the Shelby public hospital in a serious condition as the result of what was apparently an unavoidable accident Friday evening, when he was struck by the big Hudson bus driven by Mr. Zeb Costner on the Shelby-Rutherford bus line.

The accident occurred Friday evening between 7 and 8 o'clock near the corner on South LaFayette where the paved street link joins South LaFayette and South Washington streets and just above the Belmont mill. From the best information to be secured it seems as if the small youth, who was on the west side of the street, started to run across the street just after a car had passed going south and ran directly in front of the car driven by Costner. The bumper or front of the car striking the boy and knocking him against the pavement or curb and fracturing his skull. Costner from reports was driving at a slow rate of speed and managed to stop his car within a few feet. The boy was placed in car and hurried to the hospital by Mr. Costner. It is said. Those living near the scene of the accident state that the wheels of the car did not run over "the boy and that the car was making less than 20 miles per hour, perhaps about 15.

As is usual in such cases reports were circulated around town Friday night that the child was killed, while other reports had it that Costner was driving at a high rate of speed. However, it was stated Monday that relatives of the boy did not consider the driver at fault and were not holding him responsible for the near tragedy. The boy is the son of Will G. Gregory and the Gregory family is employed at the Olive Hosiery mill.

In Semi-Conscious Condition. At the hospital it was given out that the little fellow is "in a serious condition, his skull being fractured by the impact." With the exception of the fracture the other injuries are minor bruises and scratches and apparently there are no internal injuries. No prediction was made as to recovery further than that his condition was serious and that an operation is not possible at present as the boy is in a semi-conscious state.

Arthur Kendrick Dies At Kings Mtn.

Well Known Kings Mountain Citizen Died Suddenly of Heart Trouble. Funeral Saturday.

The many friends of Arthur Kendrick will be grieved to learn of his sudden death at his home at Kings Mountain Friday morning. Mr. Kendrick was well known throughout Cleveland county, especially at Kings Mountain where he was born and reared and around Shelby where he had charge of road work for sometime. Recently he had operated a jitney line between Shelby and Kings Mountain, but for the past few weeks his health had been bad, although physicians did not consider his condition serious. He died of heart trouble and complications.

Mr. Kendrick was the son of the late Squire George Kendrick one of Kings Mountain's most influential citizens who died several years ago. Mr. Kendrick is survived by his mother and wife, his wife before marriage being Miss Sue Cannon of Horse Shoe and a sister of Mrs. Bird who resides at Columbia, S. C. The funeral was conducted from the home at Kings Mountain Saturday afternoon and the burial was with Masonic honors, he being an honored member of that fraternity.

Train And Car Got Here At Same Time

Mr. and Mrs. Zeb Weathers returned last week from Morristown, Tenn., where they spent a week with relatives, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Goodson. In making the trip to Tennessee they travelled in automobile, but Mrs. Weathers did not enjoy the mountain roads and dangerous ravines. When time came for their return she preferred to come on the train, so Mr. Weathers left Morristown at 7 o'clock in the morning and she left at 9 o'clock by train. There was no effort on the part of train or auto to run a race but Mr. Weathers had to wait at Spindale to let the train pass on which his wife was a passenger. When the train reached Shelby Mr. Weathers was at the station to meet her and accompany her home.

Miss Jane Moseley, of Snow Hill, spent the week-end here with friends.

BILL PROVIDES FOR SABBATH OBSERVANCE

New Law is Introduced Giving Authority to Make Sunday Closing Laws and Employ Police.

Representative J. R. Davis of Cleveland county has introduced in the special session of the General assembly a bill which if it becomes a law, will give the county commissioners authority to make such ordinances and regulations for the better observance of Sunday and also appoint rural policemen to enforce the new Sunday laws and all other laws which are on the statute books. This is the outgrowth of an effort being made in the Shelby churches in which the town aldermen are asked to close the drug stores and gasoline filling stations in Shelby on Sunday and an appeal made last Monday by a number of farmers and other citizens of the county to the county board of commissioners in which they were asked to close the rural garages and filling stations because many of them have become public gathering places where rowdyism and immorality take place.

The Davis bill reads as follows: "A bill to be entitled an act to confer on the board of county commissioners of Cleveland county the power to make ordinances and regulations for the better observance of the Sabbath day and the appointment of rural policemen."

The General assembly of North Carolina do enact: Sec. 1. That the board of county commissioners of Cleveland county is hereby granted the power to make such ordinances, rules and regulations for the better observance of the Sabbath day in the rural districts of Cleveland county as they may deem necessary and may provide for their enforcement by imposing penalties on such as violate them; and may compel the performance of the duties imposed on the officers of the county by providing suitable penalties; and may in their discretion, employ one or more rural policemen to aid in enforcing the general state laws and the ordinances, rules and regulations as they may make from time to time—such rural policeman shall work under the direction of the sheriff and board of county commissioners of the county.

Sec. 2. This act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

Officers Want Owner Of Abandoned Coat

No one Eager to Claim Good Serge Coat Left Hanging in Pool Room. Court Cases.

This is not the "penny column" but Chief Hamrick has a good serge coat he will turn over to the owner upon application. Perhaps the "penny column" might get better results in this case for the coat was not exactly lost.

Saturday night Policeman Hester eased into the pool room and took a seat. A little later Chief Hamrick and other officers sauntered in. Near where the officers took their stand to watch the ivory cavort around the green tables hung a coat—just an ordinary coat and apparently like other coats hanging alongside while the wearers were doing the Willie Hoppe. As time slipped by coat after coat was taken down and put on by its owner, but not so the coat hanging near the officers. No one seemed to want it, it finally dawned on the bystanders that the vigil of the officers was to see someone put on that particular serge coat, but no one ever did, and today in the police department is a neatly made coat bearing on the inside pockets the initials "C E W." and lest it be forgotten and the owner unable to describe the missing garment—the inside pocket also contained what appeared to be a perfectly good pint of corn liquor.

Cases Heard Monday.

Among the cases disposed of in recorder's court Monday were: Thomas Champion, worthless check; judgment suspended upon payment of the costs and the check.

Marvin Byers, larceny of shoes; fined $25 and the costs.

Vernon Branton, receiving and possessing; fined $100 and the costs. Appeal noted.

Grover Green, receiving and possessing; fined $25 and the costs.

"John Doe" alias William Henry, an escaped lunatic from the state institution at Morganton, was ordered returned to the institution. Henry, who was captured at Kings Mountain, was taken back to Morganton Monday by Officers Dedmon and Lattimore.

Ray Panther, J. D. Branton and James O'Neil, operating motor vehicle without proper license; judgment suspended upon purchase of license and payment of costs, which amounted to $9.10 each.

Ed Hamrick colored, drunk and disorderly; fined $25 and the costs. Appeal was noted.

DOKIES TO HOLD A BIG CEREMONIAL HERE

The Dokies are coming! A big ceremonial will be held in Shelby Labor Day, September 1st, at which time between 600 and 1,000 visitors will be present, according to an announcement made yesterday by R. E. Carpenter, a Knight of Pythias. The Dokie band in full regalia will head a parade through the streets of Shelby and the citizens will be privileged to witness an exhibition of a fraternal order that is unusual for this locality in splendor and magnitude. The ceremonial will be put on by Suez Temple No. 73 of Charlotte. A banquet will be held at Cleveland Springs on Monday night September 1st. The Dokies are a fraternal branch of the Knights of Pythias, being an organization somewhat like the Shrine is to the Masonic order. There is a local order of Knights of Pythias here which has recently become quite active and numbers among its members some of the best men of Shelby.

NEW STATE HIGHWAY VIA EARL APPROVED

A new state highway from Shelby via Earl, Patterson Springs and on to the South Carolina line has been approved by Mr. Kistler, state highway commissioner of this district, according to a telephone message received yesterday by O. M. Mull and maintenance work will begin about the first of September. Mr. Mull who has been working patiently to have the state maintain a highway south of Shelby toward Gaffney says Col. T. B. Butler, of Cherokee county is urging the South Carolina highway commission to maintain the state road from Gaffney to the South Carolina line to meet the North Carolina highway, which will give the county a good road from Shelby to Gaffney, a distance of only 19 miles, via the Dravo double-width bridge. Mr. Butler says the South Carolina authorities are expected to act on the maintenance proposition in their state at a meeting to be held today.

The route which has been selected already has a fairly good road built by the townships but the road after September first will be maintained by the state highway commission which guarantees that it will be in fine condition all the time.

Fixtures Arrive For Fanning's New Store

Brown Mahogany Finish—New Lines Will be Added When Big Store is Opened.

The handsome fixtures for the W. L. Fanning company's new store have arrived and will soon be installed. The fixtures are a brown mahogany made by the Grand Rapids Show Case company of Grand Rapids, Mich., one of the largest concerns of its kind in the world. The new store here will be opened between the first and 15th of September and Mr. Fanning stated yesterday that he is arranging to add several new lines. The first floor will be devoted exclusively to men's and ladies ready-to-wear, one side for ladies and one side for men. The fixtures are of the latest and most modern design, the cabinets being glass fronts and absolutely dust proof. This floor will also carry a full line of fine shoes, piece goods, notions, toilet articles, novelties, etc. The mezzanine floor will be devoted exclusively to millinery with an altering department for the ready-to-wear, also a rest room for ladies, etc.

The basement floor will carry a full line of boy's wearing apparel, white goods, bed coverings, staple shoes for men, women and boys, curtain goods, work clothes, draperies, etc. It will be noticed in this list that the Fanning store will add a number of new lines such as piecings, boy's wearing apparel, millinery, bed and curtain goods, draperies, notions, toilet articles and novelties. The store when completed will be one of the finest in this section and a formal opening will no doubt be had when the new merchandise is placed in stock.

To Attend Convention Of Deaf At Asheville

Prof. Robert C. Miller, Messrs. Hugh and Andrew Miller, and Thomas Hamrick, jr., leave Shelby Tuesday, August 12, for Asheville to attend the convention of the North Carolina association of the Deaf which opened on Tuesday and continues through Saturday, August 16. The convention will be attended by many from South Carolina and Georgia as well as from this state.

Prof. Miller of the faculty of the state school at Morganton, is on the program for an address to the convention Wednesday.

KIWANIANS HEAR MORE ABOUT FAIR

Dr. Dorton Tells His Ambitions for County's First Big Agricultural Exhibit.

"We all want it to be the best county fair in North Carolina, and if we want hard enough, it will be," declared Dr. J. S. Dorton, secretary of the Cleveland County Fair association in telling the Kiwanis club Thursday evening of the progress being made on the fair grounds and late plans for the event. Dr. Dorton's talk was the main feature of a brief program and the representative body heard with interest the detailed account of fair prospects.

"Only $5,000 more stock will be sold by the association, after which no more stock will be sold to anyone," the secretary stated. It is the hope of fair officials to have this scattered among a number of people. Recently subscriptions as small as one dollar have been received from former Cleveland county people now living in other states who wished to have an interest in the fair and are planning to attend the big event this fall. The three main fair buildings have been completed; the race track is almost finished, and within a very short time the grounds will be ready. Dr. Dorton in the course of his talk stated that no county in North or South Carolina has better equipped grounds or tracks. The race track is the only up-to-date one in Western North Carolina and is better arranged than the one at Spartanburg. Within a few days work on the grandstand, which will seat 2,000 people, will begin. The view from the elevated fair ground was spoken of as one of the best in the state. With a first class site and buildings for a fair, the fair itself should be up to the hopes of its supporters. Manufacturers were reminded that a sample of every product manufactured in Cleveland county was to be put on exhibit and that a special building for the manufacturers has already been completed.

The program Thursday was in charge of Oliver S. Anthony, who called on various members to tell what they knew of the member to their right. A fountain pen as a prize was offered by Anthony and Anthony for the most informing speech. The pen was won by Gene Schenck, who introduced Wytte Royster as follows: "Kiwanians, this is 'Ick' Royster and I know very little about him except that he has never been in jail. If you ask me why, I can't tell you."

Half Lengthy Programs. Clyde R. Hoey introduced a motion that would hold programs to one hour unless special arrangements are made, or a special program prepared to last over an hour. Recently some speakers before the club have overstepped their time limit and these long distance talkers have visibly affected the attendance. The motion met with favor and hereafter a speaker will be informed before hand as to the time limit and called down if he exceeds. Exceptions will be made with approval of the club for feature nights or other events that cannot be confined to one hour.

Home After 13 Years In Pueblo, Colorado

Mr. Fitzhugh Hamrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elander Hamrick arrived in Shelby a few days ago driving with his wife and 26 months old baby from Pueblo, Colorado where he has been making his home for the past 13 years. Mr. Hamrick lived on a cattle ranch for a number of years after going to Colorado, but recently has been living in Pueblo where he has a responsible position with a large wholesale house. He likes Colorado but says the temperature drops to 20 degrees below zero during the winter, but does not stay this low for many days. He and his family came through the country in a Ford touring car making the trip in 12 days with no mishap whatever. They had a complete camping outfit and enjoyed the outing across the continent. He brings good tidings from Mr. J. T. Heatwole, a former resident of Shelby who is now an engineer on a railroad running out of Denver. Mr. Heatwole is a man of considerable means and still holds a warm spot in his heart for Shelby. It will be remembered that some years ago he gave a large mounted deer head through The Cleveland Star to the Shelby Public Library. Mr. Heatwole contemplates a trip to Shelby in the near future.

Mr. Hamrick and his family will remain here on a visit to his parents and relatives for two weeks or longer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hudson and son Hill, Misses Ettalie Moses and Lucile North are on a ten day trip to Baltimore, Atlantic City and New York.
