Cow Killed—Friday night a valuable milk cow belonging to Mt. T. G. Morehead, who works at the Shelby creamery and lives south of town, broke her neck. She was tied out during the night and it is presumed became entangled and fell.

Fell From Tree—Joseph V. Carter, 12 year old son of Joe F. Carter, barber, fell from a tree Friday sustaining a broken arm and ugly and painful bruises about the head and face. Young Carter was taking down a swing from a high tree when he lost his balance and fell a distance of about 25 feet.

Moose To Meet—There will be an open meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the B. F. Curtis hall on East Warren street for the purpose of organizing a local order of the Loyal Order of Moose. The meeting will be open to everybody and anyone interested in the organization is urged to be present.

Talks to Farmers—General Manager U. B. Bialock of the North Carolina Cotton Growers association, addressed a gathering of farmers in the Cleveland county court house Saturday at 11 o'clock on matters of importance to the association and cotton farmers. He was heard with interest by those in attendance, including some of the most prominent farmers in the county.

Not Organizer Now—Lee R. Fulp who is held in jail at Statesville in connection with the death Sunday afternoon in Charlotte of W. W. Johnson, a Mt. Holly barber, is not an organizer of the P. O. S. of A. now according to local officials of the order until March of this year and while in that capacity visited Shelby, but it is said he relinquished that office in March.

Fair Premium Lists—The premium list for the Cleveland county Fair is from the presses of The Star Publishing Company and contains over 80 pages. Those who contemplate making exhibits may secure lists from either the First National Bank, the four Union Trust banks, either of the county agents, The Star office, the fair secretary, Dr. J. S. Dorton of Shelby or the Peoples Loan and Trust Co., of Kings Mountain. Copies may also be secured free by mail upon request.

Bascom Bumped—The Star's janitor, Bascom M. Martin, colored, this week worked a little extra by contributing or rather furnishing some "copy." It is this Bascom was crossing Marion street Friday afternoon between the court square and Star office pushing his ever-present bicycle, when in some manner the bicycle Bascom did a side step and the Henderson taxi belonging to Mr. Plato Grigg and driven by Roy Probst, came in contact, rather crashed together. As a result Bascom has a new spoke or so and a few other new parts on his wheel at the expense of the car driver and is a little bit wary of crossing the main thoroughfare.

Each session of congress always seems to be the limit, but the next one proves that it wasn't.

BOXER DIES FROM RING PUNISHMENT

Baltimore, Sept. 4.—Charley Holman, Baltimore featherweight boxer, died at a hospital today from injuries sustained last night in a bout with Lew Mayrs, another local pugilist. Mayrs was placed under arrest.

In the tenth round Mayrs knocked Holman through the ropes, his head striking the floor. Holman continued the contest, however, until toward the closing moments of the 12th and final round when he sank to the floor under the rain of Mayrs' blows on the head and body and was carried to his corner unconscious. Efforts to revive him were of no avail and he was taken to a hospital where physicians said he was suffering from hemorrhage of the brain. Holman was 24 years old and married. His wife was at the ringside. When he sank down in the final round she seized a towel and threw it into the ring to save him from further punishment.

Defense Day to Be Observed Locally

Company K, Ex-Service Men, Reserve Officers and Others to Conduct Defense Day Program

National Defense Day, Friday, September 12, will be observed in Shelby by the local unit of the National Guard, ex-service men, reserve officers and others interested, according to a statement by Attorneys C. B. McBrayer and O. M. Mull, the committee appointed by governor to arrange a program for the day.

Mr. McBrayer asks the cooperation of Patriotic Order Sons of America, Junior Order and other citizens of the town between 18 and 45 years and that they assemble with the local guard unit in formation at the Company K armory at 7:30 Friday evening, where there will be brief addresses and refreshments. He says that "the assemblage of the guard unit and man power of Cleveland county does not mean or pertain to war other than a popular demonstration of war on war, and the step to be taken Friday in mustering the available war strength is nothing more than the old militia musters, which were days of great enjoyment, pleasure and mingling of the men of old Cleveland. The soldiers, ex-soldiers and men in the demonstration will not in any manner be bound or obligated to enlist in any branch of the service, nor is such expected of him."

Since the war with Germany the Army of the United States has been divided into three component parts, namely, the Regular Army, the National Guard, and the Reserve Corps. The Regular Army at present is a very small force and in the event of any trouble of any consequence, this country would have to rely on the other two component parts, the National Guard and the Reserve Corps.

September 12, the date that General Pershing will retire from the army, has been designated by the War Department as National Defense Day. On this day all components of the army will have a test mobilization and in most places will observe this day with a ceremony of some kind. Shelby's local unit of the National Guard will hold a formation at 7:30 and all members will be required to be present to observe National Defense Day by an inspection and regular drill, which will include a parade around the square.

First Lieutenant M. H. Austell, who is in temporary command of the local unit in the absence of Captain Peyton McSwain at Camp Perry Ohio, wishes to extend an invitation to all Reserve officers in this locality, to all Legionnaires and ex-soldiers, and to all men between the ages of 18 and 45 who desire to do so, to meet with the local unit to observe this day.

BUILDING TAKES LIFE.

building is being finished inside. The plastering is done and floors are now being laid. Delay in shipment of the stained glass art windows may make it impossible for the congregation to occupy the new church for 30 or 60 days longer. This delay is therefore delaying J. E. and Claude Webb from beginning the remodeling of the old Central church building which will be converted into a moving picture show, with a two story building between the church and the City Hall property.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Ponder and daughter of Savannah, Ga., are spending a week here with his brothers, Messrs. Hershall and J. C. Ponder and sister, Mrs. Dock Jones. Mr. Ponder is a native of Cleveland county who has been living in Savannah for 25 years.

THE FALL SEASON

Is fast approaching and cotton will soon be on the market. The extremely dry season appears now to have brought about an early cotton season and many think a short one, but perhaps it will be better than we think now.

THE HARVESTING OF COTTON

Means a great deal to the people of our county for it is the "money crop" of Cleveland county. Many will have money "when they sell their cotton" who have not had any for many months.

AND IT SHOULD BE A GREAT DEBT PAYING TIME.

Make your merchant, fertilizer dealer, landlord or banker, or whoever has been helping you feel good by first "paying up."

Here are some timely suggestions for the thrifty for this season:—

Pick your cotton as fast as it opens.

Don't leave it in the field at the mercy of the weather.

Market it as fast as possible until the debts are all paid.

Save all the feed stuff possible.

Sow rape and rye for the chickens.

Make your plans to sow oats and vetch.

PAY YOUR DEBTS if you have any, as fast as you sell your cotton.

SAVE ALL YOU CAN.

BANK ALL YOUR MONEY. Don't carry it around in your pocket or keep it at home.

Get close up with your farm work, so the whole family can take in the CLEVELAND COUNTY AGRICULTURAL FAIR, OCTOBER, 14, TO 18.

Since cotton will open up early, don't wait for note and account notices, but pay them as fast as you can and "clear the way" for new business.

WITH GREAT HOPES AND ASPIRATIONS FOR THE PEOPLE OF OUR GOOD COUNTY.

Yours Truly, THE UNION TRUST CO., Shelby, N. C. Resources Over Four Million Dollars. "The Bank Of Personal Service"
