Attended Card Party in Gastonia.

Mrs. O. Max Gardner and Mrs. S. R. Riley motored to Gastonia Friday morning to attend the card party given by Mrs. Arthur Dixon at the Country club honoring her mother, Mrs. Husman of Iowa.

Miss Charlie Mae Laughridge Hostess.

Miss Charlie Mae Laughridge was the delightful hostess to a number of her young friends with a watermelon slicing on Tuesday evening. The guests assembled at 8:30 and progressive conversation a favorite game with this set was played after which the luscious watermelons were cut and much enjoyed.

Miss Mae Connor Delightful Young Hostess.

One of the most enjoyable parties of the younger set was that given by Miss Mae Connor on Tuesday morning at the attractive new Hilliard tea room at 10:30 o'clock. Rook was the game of the morning, six tables being played. Most unique score cards were used and the tea room was a lovely setting for this bevy of young girls. After cards were laid aside, a most tempting and delicious luncheon was served.

Mrs. Lineberger Hostess To the Embroidery Club.

Mrs. J. D. Lineberger always a gracious hostess entertained the initial fall meeting of the Embroidery club at her hospitable home on Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. The guests assembled in the large living room where beautiful fall flowers were used for decorations, and here a cozy, chatty afternoon was spent. After the sewing was put away Mrs. Lineberger served delicious salad, tea and sweets.

Miss Gardner Entertains Younger College Set.

Miss Margaret Love Gardner was a delightful hostess to the younger set at the Hilliard tea room on Wednesday morning at 10:30. The guests on arriving were presented with heart shaped score cards and found their places at the delightful little gray and blue tables. Rook was played merrily at five tables. After the games at 12 o'clock a delicious luncheon was served. Miss Gardner and brother Mr. James Webb Gardner were joint hosts again on Wednesday evening at their home on South Washington street to a number of their girl and boy friends. "Progressive conversation" was played punch served during the evening and later an ice course and sweets were served to the guests.

Miss Stella Scroggs To Marry Mr. Ellis.

The many Shelby friends of the bride to be will be interested in following announcement from the Asheville Times, Miss Scroggs having lived here a number of years, where her father was pastor of Central Methodist church and presiding elder of the Shelby district:

"Announcement is made of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Stella B. Scroggs to Mr. Herbert A. Ellis, the wedding to take place at the home of Miss Scroggs' sister, Mrs. W. G. Fortune, at No. 131 Hillside street, on September 18th.

"Miss Scroggs, a daughter of the late Rev. J. R. Scroggs, has been a member of the faculty of the West Asheville graded school for the past six years. She is a graduate of the Greensboro College for Women, and has also taken special work at the University of North Carolina and Columbia University. She possesses many winsome traits of personality and is an accomplished musician.

"Mr. Ellis is a railway postal clerk on the Southern railway between Salisbury and Asheville.

"They will reside at Mr. Ellis' home on Westwood Place, West Asheville."

Mrs. Loy Thompson Honoree.

One of the most beautiful afternoon receptions of the season was that given by Mrs. Z. J. Thompson honoring her daughter-in-law Mrs. Loy Thompson, a beautiful summer bride. The lovely Thompson home was the scene of this setting. At the front door little Misses Sarah and Ruth Thompson received the cards. Greeting the guests were Mesdames J. M. Black and Carl Thompson. The living room where the receiving line stood was exquisitely decorated with artistic bowls of bright colored zennias, and crystal vases of tube roses and ferns. In the receiving line were Mrs. Z. J. Thompson, Mrs. Loy Thompson, Mrs. Ralph Royster, Mrs. Louis Gardner and Miss Marion Durham. Entertaining in the living room were Mrs. Wilbur Baber, Mrs. Grover Beam, at the piano were Mrs. Rush Thompson and Mrs. W. C. Harris. At the dining room door inviting the guests in was Mrs. Tom Moore. Receiving in here were Mrs. J. H. Hull and Mrs. Guy Hull. Serving the delicious refreshments consisting of salad, sandwiches, cheese stars, crackers and nuts and tea were Misses Elizabeth Suttle, Hannah Washburn and May Washburn. The table was most beautiful and artistic with its handsome cloth, the center piece being a large silver basket containing beautiful pink fall roses, trailing clematis and ferns, the handle of the basket being tied with a large tulle bow. Lovely silver candle sticks with pink tapers and pink tulle bows were placed at the four corners and silver baskets with nuts completed the ensemble.

About one hundred and fifty of Mrs. Thompson's friends called during the hours.

Afternoon Reception.

Mrs. Jack Palmer is entertaining Friday afternoon with a large reception. The hours are from 4 to 6.

Misses Gardner to Marry Wednesday Sept. 24th.

Handsomely engraved wedding invitations announcing the approaching double wedding of Misses Lura and Sarah Mozelle Gardner, attractive daughters of Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Gardner at their home near Fallston on Wednesday Sept. 24th have been issued, reading as follows: "Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Womans Club Meets.

The Woman's club of Shelby held a most interesting meeting in the Shelby court house on Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The meeting was purely business and much business was disposed of and business for the incoming months was discussed. Quite a large crowd of women were present. It was voted to postpone the banquet until a later day. A large banquet will be given at Cleveland Springs hotel the latter part of October for the members and their husbands and Mrs. Palmer Jerman will be the delightful speaker of this occasion. The new members voted on and added to the club were Mrs. Wilbur Baber, Mrs. M. E. Green, Mrs. Oliver Anthony, Mrs. Frank Hoyle, Mrs. Beason, Mrs. Alger Hamrick and Mrs. Loy Thompson, and Mrs. A. V. Wray. After this Mrs. Stroup the president told the club members about the new club rooms to be in the new Masonic building. It was voted upon for the Womans club to have a booth at the Cleveland county fair, serving things to eat for the five days and the following committees from each five divisions were named and appointed for each day. Executive committee: Mrs. J. H. Hull, chairman; Mrs. John McClure, Mrs. John Coley and Mrs. Wallace

First day—Mrs. O. Max Gardner, chairman; Mrs. W. H. Jennings and Mrs. Dudley.

Second day—Mrs. B. O. Hamrick, chairman; Mrs. Herman Eskridge and Mrs. Frank Sanders.

Third day—Mrs. R. T. LeGrand, chairman; Miss Carrie Belle Lever and Mrs. Boyce Dellinger.

Fourth day—Mrs. John Schenck jr., chairman; Mrs. Charles Burrus and Mrs. C. B. McBrayer.

Fifth day—Mrs. Zeb Mauney, chairman; Mrs. Lewis Forney and Mrs. T. W. Hamrick.

Dr. J. S. Dorton was present and made a little talk asking for the cooperation of the Woman's club at the Fair.

It was also voted upon and decided to have a Bazaar before Christmas, the following women being appointed as a bazaar committee: Mrs. Frank Hoey, chairman; Mrs. W. H. Blanton, Miss Elizabeth Ebeltoft and Mrs. Earl Hamrick.

Miss Reba Hamrick Celebrates Birthday.

A beautiful birthday party was celebrated by Miss Reba Hamrick on Monday afternoon at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Hamrick. The lawn was the setting for the occasion and a beautiful sight was presented by these children playing games on the lawn. After an hour of happy revelry the birthday cake with its candles was cut and much merriment was afforded by this. The little souvenirs carried out the party color scheme of pink and blue. They were dainty little baskets holding nuts and sweets. A lovely ice and sweet course was served.

Those who think the entire nation will go as Maine evidently believe the Klan will rule after November.
