The Yanks Were A Gentlemanly Sort

When They Occupied the Court Square in Shelby During the Civil War, She Remembers.

To Editor of The Star:
 While eagerly scanning the Cleveland Star my eyes rested upon the following:
 "The Yanks Once Camped on the Court Square". This carried my memories away back to other days of long ago when the "Yanks" as they were termed located themselves on the court square of Shelby, and assumed complete control of Shelby and inhabitants, I remember well all, in regard to my feelings however, we very soon realized that the majority of those men were gentlemen of refinement who manifested their highest regards for the inhabitants of Shelby. I was more than agreeably surprised to meet such a rare treat that a Yank could be a real genuine gentleman. However, I have not and even now never met more polished gentlemen than the majority of those men who soldiered on the court square. During their sojourn we found the calling around of the officers very agreeable. We found each of them pleasant and very genteel.
 This remembrance of mine is of long ago, when many dear friends of Shelby have passed away, when I am yet blessed with a life of health and comparative happiness. However I may soon realize that I too, may lay down the drapery of her couch about the side of the garb of mortality and put on that of immortality. As one that herand lies down to pleasant dreams.

IN MEMORY OF MRS. MARVIN LUTZ.

Angels came and took our mother, whom we loved and cherished dear.
 It was Mother, yes dear Mother, can we help but shed a tear?
 And how hard we tried to save her; all we did was all in vain,
 Happy Angels came and took her, from this world of toil and pain
 We stayed near you mother dear, we stayed with you all we could,
 We longer to see your sweet face more, when life held you so we could.
 And hearts are ever aching, although we smile each day,
 For our thoughts are all with mother, whom God has called away.

Your suffering was short, you murmured not; you waited patiently for the call,
 Until at last with smiling face you quietly passed away.
 From this world of pain and sorrow, to the land of peace and rest,
 God has taken you dear wife, where you found eternal rest.
 We shall never cease to miss you, until on the Golden Shore,
 We shall meet and live forever, where life partings come no more.
 Oh, Dear wife, you smile so sweet upon me for a kiss,
 When you held my hand in yours, with a strong and loving clasp.

Now my heart is almost broken, looking for my dear wife home.
 But she is now in heaven's window, beckoning now for us to come.
 Mother thou was mild and lovely, gentle as the summer's breeze,
 Pleasant as the air of evening when it floats among the trees.
 Peaceful be thy silent slumber, peaceful in the grave so low,
 Thou no more will join our number; thou no more our song shall know.
 Dearest mother thou has left us, but your memories are so sweet,
 Could we see you now, Dear Mother, walking heaven's golden streets.
 Yet again we hope to meet thee, when the day of life is fled;
 Then in heaven with joy to greet thee, there no farewell tears are shed.
 Husband and Children.

Commits Suicide at Funeral.
 Chicago, Sept. 14.—As mourners attending two funerals today looked on, a man prepared a pile of dry twigs drenched himself with kerosene and set fire to his clothing. Persons close at hand were unable to reach him in time and the flames soon enveloped him. When they were extinguished the man still was conscious. He gave his name as Joseph Kopu-sea, but would offer no explanation of his act. He died several hours later.
