Shelby Boys Going Good In Football

Randolph And Fred Logan And Charlie Austell Show Up Well On State College Eleven.

Raleigh.—While torrential down-pours have kept the State squad indoors, the Tech coaching staff has utilized the time by putting the youngsters through "skull practice" followed by rigorous setting up exercises.

The showing of the new men has been especially gratifying. McAuley, 1923 Freshman back, and Austin, who played quarter on last year's yearling team, have made a very favorable impression.

The latter has been shifted to end. He handles passes unusually well and although he is rather light his defensive work is above the average. McAuley gives every evidence of developing into a hard running, shifty back.

Fred Logan played tackle on last year's scrub team, the Logan family, of Shelby, being represented on the varsity by his brother, Randolph, who earned a letter at left tackle.

It looks like Fred will come through this year. His early season work is impressive. The youngster weighs 211 pounds and he is learning to use his bulk to advantage.

Charlie Austell is another product of Shelby high who is making a strong bid for a regular job in the backfield. He was on the squad last year but did not make his monogram.

Austell is, unquestionably, one of the fastest men on the squad. He is taking his football mighty seriously this year and it will be hard to keep him off the team.

Oil Land Gamble.

Raleigh.—Insurance Commissioner Stacey W. Wade Sunday night announced his purpose to bring criminal action in Wake superior court against the Carolina syndicate, an alleged "blue sky" enterprise proposing the sale of lands in Craven and Carteret counties on an oil gamble as the result of advertising placed with a Durham newspaper by the syndicate Sunday morning.

Gained Ten Pounds

Mrs. George S. Hunter, of Columbus, Ga., says she suffered severely with female troubles.

"I had to go to bed and stay sometimes two weeks at a time," says Mrs. Hunter. "I could not work. My... were irregular and I got very thin. I went from 126 pounds down to less than 100. My mother had been a user of and she knew what a good medicine it was for this trouble, so she told me to get some and take it. I sent to the store after it and before I had taken the first bottle up I began to improve. My side hurt less and I began to mend in health. I took four bottles in all during the last ten months. Gardui acted as a fine tonic. I am well now. I have gained ten pounds and am still gaining. My sides do not trouble me at all and my... are quite regular. I know that Gardui will help others suffering from the same trouble."

The Woman's Tonic
