Borrow Five Million In Anticipation Taxes

Treasurer Lacy Negotiates Six Months' Loan For General Fund at 3 1-4 Per.

Acting under authority granted by the Council of State at a meeting just before Governor Morrison left the city yesterday, State Treasurer B. B. Lacy has borrowed five million dollars for a term of six months for the use of the general fund of the State.

The money was borrowed in anticipation of taxes and is the first loan of the kind to be negotiated this year. The notes will not fall due until after the collection of the bulk of the income taxes for this year.

While borrowed for the general fund much of the money obtained yesterday will actually be used by the State Highway Commission, which is now in need of the proceeds of bonds issues which have been temporarily converted into the general fund.

Treasurer Lacy obtained yesterday's loan at the rate of three and one-quarter per cent, which is considered very favorable.

INHERITED A MILLION BUT GIVING IT AWAY

Mr. and Mrs. G. Leonard and their son Bruce, of New York, who received more than a million dollars in gifts and legacies from the late Robert B. Hawley, president of the Cuban American Sugar Company, are using the money to help relatives of the sugar man who were overlooked by him in his will, it is learned.

Marion Hawley Williams, grand niece of Mr. Hawley, said the Leonard already have given away two-thirds of the fortune her uncle gave them. Miss Williams, who is 19, formerly lived in Mississippi but when Mrs. Leonard heard of her ambition to become a concert pianist she arranged for her to live at the Leonard home and set aside a trust fund for her, she said.

HERBERT PARSONS TO SUPPORT DAVIS

The Democratic national committee Wednesday made public a statement by Herbert Parsons, former Republican member of the house from New York and former chairman of the New York county Republican committee, announcing he would vote for John W. Davis for President.

Mr. Parsons said election of Davis offered the only possibility for the United States to share in the working out of a plan of continued world peace and asserted that the people could only insist on honesty in office "by turning out the party guilty of dishonesty."

Asheville, Oct. 21.—T. J. Candler, 83, pioneer resident of Candler and great-grandson of Daniel Boone, died yesterday morning at 3 o'clock after an illness of about two weeks.
