Telephone Rates For Rutherfordton Higher

Rutherfordton, Nov. 1.—The political pot is boiling fast in this section now, Felix Alley of Waynesville, spoke to a fair sized audience in the courthouse Tuesday night, at Ellenboro, Wednesday afternoon and Cliffside. He was well received at all places and delivered forceful addresses. He proved to be very humorous.

J. L. James, of Marion, is the new manager of the Central hotel.

The public schools of Rutherfordton opened Monday November 3.

The Green River Baptist Sunday school convention will meet with Round Hill church November 21 and 22. The program opens Friday evening, 21 and runs through 22. A most interesting four session program has been prepared and announced.

Rutherford county ginned 4,195 bales of cotton up to October 18 as compared to 7,508 for the same period last year. This is a decrease of 3,413 bales.

W. J. Hardin, of Shingle Hollow Rutherfordton, route 3 has been appointed county forest warden, also warden for Morgan township. There are eight assistants to Mr. Hardin as follows in the county: F. L. Valton, Logan Store township; F. L. Flynn, Chimney Rock; Henry Forney, Camp Creek; E. L. Parton, Gilkey township; W. A. Rucker, Green Hill township; Robert Swofford, Duncan's Creek township; J. J. Withrow, Golden Valley, and Thomas J. Vickers, Colfax, Ellenboro, N. C. The wardens will help to extinguish all unnecessary fires and prosecute the guilty parties.

William G. Tanner, formerly of this county but recently of Lexington, S. C., died last Saturday and was buried here at Tanner's Grove church Sunday afternoon. He is the last of the children of the late Col. W. A. Tanner. He was one of the county's best citizens.

The Rutherford County Telephone company which will soon be taken over by the Bell Telephone company announced that the rates would be increased effective November 1. Business phones have increased from $2 to $3.50, residential phones, on party lines will be increased from $1.50 to $2.25 per month and party lines of over three stations will be $1.75. There are 1,250 stations in Rutherfordton, Forest City and Caroleen exchanges.

Forty-two Wives Appear In Court On An Austrian

Vienna—Forty-two women, all claiming to be the wives of a man named Julius Gruenwald, appeared in court as witnesses against him.

Gruenwald had been arrested just as he stepped outside a tailor shop wearing a new suit of clothes bought with money which it was testified he had obtained from his 42nd bride.

From the testimony of the women it was adduced that Gruenwald was in the habit of getting married, obtaining money from his brides and then deserting them. The evidence indicated that he averaged about $80 per bride.

Promiscuous Bathing And Boxing Heavily Scored

Reidsville, Oct. 31.—The third day of the annual conference of the Methodist Protestant church in North Carolina was featured by the report of committees condemning legalized boxing in the state and the public bathing pools and the promiscuous bathing they promote. These items were condemned in the report of the social reform report made by Rev. T. H. Johnson, of Melbane. People of the state were urged to work for the return to strict adherence to the principles of clean morals and the consecration of a positive sentiment for law enforcement in the upholding of the Volstead act.

Rev. W. H. Neese, conducted the devotionals this morning, following which came the business session and the report on social reform work. The report of President A. G. Dixon was made during the morning, and Mrs. Dixon, wife of the president, delivered a brief address in the interest of the woman's missionary organization of the conference.

Dr. and Mrs. S. Spahr, of Greensboro, were introduced and Dr. Spahr was voted an honorary member of the conference, he being affiliated with the Baltimore conference.

The address of the morning was delivered by J. Norman Wills, of Greensboro, prominent layman and treasurer of the church board of extension. He reviewed the work of the body over which he presided and traced its growth over a period of 25 years.

The afternoon session was devoted to the interests of the general conference and official representatives, including Rev. F. W. Stephenson, of Pittsburgh, Pa., and others, delivered addresses. This evening the missionary interests of the church were considered and addresses and reports from officers given special attention.

Author Of "Little Lord Fauntleroy" Is Dead

New York, Oct. 30.—Frances Hodgson Burnett, author and playwright, known particularly for her novel and play, "Little Lord Fauntleroy" died last night at her home, Plandome Park, at Plandome, Long Island. She was 75 years old and had been in poor health for several months.

Until two months ago, when the last of her novels, "Head of the House of Combe," was published Mrs. Burnett had written more than a score of novels, six plays and was editor of "The Children's Book." She wrote her first novel "That Lass O'Lowrie's" in 1877. Among her best known works were: "Barty Croose and His Man Saturday," "Jhilia, the Showman's Daughter," "Esmeralda," "The First Gentleman of Europe," and "The Making of a Marchioness."

She was born in Manchester England, November 24, 1849, as Frances Eliza Hodgson. Her family moved to Knoxville, Tenn., in 1865.

95 Per Cent Cotton Sold At Kings Mtn.

Kings Mountain Herald.

That there has been two hundred thousand dollars worth of cotton ginned in Kings Mountain already this season may sound pretty big but the facts bear out the statement. And that 95 per cent of it has been sold outright for cash or an account and the money put into circulation seems another big statement. Also that during last week there were ginned and sold around $75,000 worth of cotton here is another eye opener.

Let's see. There are three gins here. The Kings Mountain Cotton Oil Company is the largest. It has eight 80-saw gins. Last week they turned out 330 bales, during the season 835 bales. The Victory Gin comes next with six 80-saw gins. Last week they ginned 270 bales, during the season 630. Then comes W. A. Ware with his new outfit of four 70-saw gins. Last week he ginned 145 bales, during the season 392. This makes a total of 745 bales for last week or 1917 for the season up to Saturday night. At 21 cents per pound, which is about the average paid so far, last week's ginning would run up around $75,000, to say nothing of the seed, and the season's ginning would total close to $200,000.

Cotton Stalk Over Six Feet High

Statesville Daily.

Eleven hundred pounds from 25 acres of cotton is the record to date of Mr. W. F. Anthony, whose farm is located on the Wilkesboro road, near the city. The cotton which is a large plant variety, averages four feet in height; a stalk which Mr. Anthony exhibited here Thursday afternoon was six feet and a half. The bolls are not opening though there seems to be no rust on them. The land was well fertilized. The past year the yield from this tract was 10 bales; this year he will be lucky, he said, to get five.

Inventions Needed

Sir William Bell, the noted British scientist and inventor, makes the following suggestions for inventions needed in the world:

Glass that will bend.
A process to make flannel unshrinkable.
A noiseless airplane.
A motor engine giving one horsepower to each pound of weight.
Practical ways of utilizing the force of ocean tides.
A pipe that may be easily and effectively cleaned.

Piedmont Has 360 Enrolled This Year

Twenty-eight of the 160 in High School Are Seniors. Football is Revived. Measuring Party.

Lawndale, Nov. 3.—Piedmont high school is this year keeping to the high water mark of former years of its glorious history.

There are 160 pupils in the high school, 28 of whom are seniors and 200 in the grades. Eleven teachers are caring for them.

As the school is passing from a private institution into the hands of the county and state, it is keeping the splendid ideals and traditions of former years while gaining the financial advantages of the modern county high school.

Interest in foot-ball has been revived under the leadership of Coach Johnny Hudson. A few years ago Piedmont put out a strong team coached by Zeb Walzer.

The girls of the boarding school department have a lively basket ball team under the direction of Miss Annie Leonard. The day girls expect soon to get a team organized. Lively times are looked for when the two teams clash on the court.

The three literary societies are doing a tremendous service in developing the students in self-expression. Each society offers a medal for improvement.

On Thursday evening October 30, the young men of the literary societies entertained the members of the girls' literary society with a "Hallowe'en party" in the library which was decorated with autumn leaves, corn and pumpkins. The festivities ended in a wicker roast by wood fires in the yard.

On next Friday evening November 7 there is to be a "measuring party" given by the Emersonian Literary society. A small admission fee will be charged.

Editor Page Speaks On Religion And Business

Editor Kings Mountain Herald Talks To Open Forum at Thursday Evening Session.

Gastonia Gazette.

Meeting on Thursday evening instead of Friday, which is the usual time the Gaston school of allied stewardship was well attended. The change in date was occasioned by Hallowe'en festivities scheduled to take place in the building on Friday evening.

Dr. Walter N. Johnson was again present, having been away last Tuesday evening at the Open Forum period Mr. G. G. Page, editor of the Kings Mountain Herald, made a most interesting and helpful talk on "Religion and Business." Following is his address in part:

Now, we are beginning to think of them together. We are now beginning to realize that both business and religion are for us all in this present time, and that whether we will or not. We are all in business and we are all religious and cannot help either. To say that we are all business people may sound new to many of us and to assert that we are all religious may sound ridiculous. But both statements are nevertheless true.

Business and religion are so closely related that we cannot separate them. We only think we can. Our business affects our religion and our religion affects our business and we cannot help it. The same religion that goes with you to church on Sunday will show itself in your business on Thursday. The same business acumen evident in your business on Friday will show itself in your religion on Sunday.

But we are unconscious of it. The person who is master of his own business may arrange his own program so that his religious life will not suffer; but if his business has him he has to make business the first consideration and religion comes in for a second place and the Lord does not have a fair chance at us. I have seen men in the clutches of business. They rise early and work late. They post books instead of attending prayer-meeting and are so tired on Sunday that they miss Sunday school and often church services.

Puts Ports Above More Roads In State

James A. Wilson writing to The Star says:

Vote for the ports and terminals bill today, and make North Carolina one of the greatest states in the Union. Just as soon as the legislature meets we will have $35,000,000 more appropriated to build roads. Better develop our ports first. That should have been done fifty or a hundred years ago. Don't allow yourself to be misled in this matter. With ports developed in the east, resorts in the west and the great manufacturing developments in the central part of state, will within 10 years put North Carolina at the head of all the states.

Organized Classes To Seek The Lost

Plan To Win 500,000 Unsaved Through Personal Evangelism In 1925 Is Projected.

Winning of 200,000 men and women to Christ during 1925 by the personal efforts of as many representatives of the organized Bible classes in Southern aims of the Organized Class Department of the Southern Baptist Convention, is one of the most important projects of the 1925 Convention, it is announced by Harry L. Strickland, secretary in charge.

Mr. Strickland has just concluded a week's demonstration of the possibilities of personal evangelism at Columbia, S. C., where seventy-five organized classes of the Baptist Sunday schools of that city participated and 460 personal workers interviewed at least 1,200 unsaved persons on the matter of giving their hearts to Christ. A delegation of 25 men called upon a number of the students of the University of South Carolina in their dormitories, and many other interesting experiences were related by the workers. The workers came together each evening at the First Baptist church where an evangelistic service was conducted by Mr. Strickland. A number of persons made professions of faith in Christ at these services.

Further plans for the development of this phase of organized class activity will be set forth at the approaching annual Organized Bible Class Convention that will be held at Shreveport, La., January 14-15, 1925.

The American ballot for the state and national election next Tuesday, says the Atlanta Journal, at which Georgians will express themselves for president, governor, state house officers, supreme and superior court judges, contains nearly 150 names, in addition to the captions of eight proposed amendments to the state constitution. It is nearly three feet long and nine inches wide—the longest and most imposing election ticket ever used in Georgia.

Despite its impressive length and imposing appearance, the ballot presents no difficult problem to the voter. It is simplicity itself, if only the voter follows printed instructions.

Weak Nervous
"I was weak and nervous and run-down," writes Mrs. Edith Sellers, of 466 N. 21st St., East St. Louis, Ill. "I couldn't sleep nights, I was so restless. I felt tired and not in condition to do my work. I would have such pains in my stomach that I was afraid I would get down in bed. . . My mother came to see me and suggested that I use

CARDUI
The Woman's Tonic

I felt better after my first bottle. I had a better appetite. It seemed to strengthen and build me up. I am so glad to recommend Cardui for what it did for me. I haven't needed any medicine since I took Cardui, and I am feeling fine."

Nervousness, restlessness, sleeplessness—these symptoms so often are the result of a weak, run-down condition, and may develop more seriously if not treated in time.

If you are nervous and run-down, or suffering from some womanly weakness, take Cardui.

Notice of Summons and Warrant of Attachment

North Carolina, Cleveland County. In the Superior Court. W. N. Dorsey, Plaintiff vs. Mrs. W. C. Corbett and husband W. C. Corbett, Defendants.

The defendants in the above entitled action will take notice that on the 31st day of October, 1924, summons in the said action was issued against the defendants by George P. Webb, Clerk of the Superior Court of Cleveland county, North Carolina, plaintiff claiming the sum of Four Thousand Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($4,250.00) due him under contract with the defendants, which summons is returnable on the 11th day of November, 1924, to the Clerk of the Superior court of Cleveland county, North Carolina. The defendants will also take notice that a warrant of attachment was issued on the 31st day of October, 1924, against the property of said defendants, which warrant of attachment is returnable before the Clerk of the Superior court of Cleveland county, North Carolina, at the time and place named for the return of the summons. And the said defendants are required to appear and answer or demur to the complaint on or before the 11th day of December, 1924, or the relief demanded will be granted.

This the 31st day of October, 1924.
GEO. P. WEBB, Clerk Superior Court.

In the first column of the ballot appears the names of the Democratic presidential candidate, the names of the fourteen Democratic electors, the names of the Democratic nominees for governor, state house officers, supreme and superior court judges.

To vote the straight Democratic ticket it will be necessary only to place a cross (X) in the brackets at the head of the ticket.

The same method of voting applies to the presidential tickets of the Republicans, American Prohibition and Progressive parties that appear on the ballot.

Newspapers and Crime.
Some recent statistics show that big metropolitan newspapers are devoting as high as 31.6 per cent of their news space to crime.

Important industrial and world news about progress and development is crowded out with sensational matter that tends to develop more crime.

In a southern Illinois town the other day the merchants met and asked the local paper to print less about crime and give more constructive news.

This criticism is not applicable to the country weeklies and small city dailies that reach about 60 per cent of the people.

To gain circulation and make a little more money by degradation of the reading matter that goes into the home is a crime in itself against the purity of the thought in the household circle.
