TO FARMERS, GINNERS AND GENERAL PUBLIC:

As you probably know the Southern Cotton Oil Company was prevented from starting their gins and oil mills promptly, because of a petition of the bank Creditors Committee of New York, in an effort to close our property in your town.

The Courts instructed us to do business, so therefore we seek the support of all good people about us to help maintain our industry in your town. Without your support it may be closed down, to the detriment of farmers, ginners and all citizens of your community.

The small two or three press oil mills can only survive when the people of that community see that the seed is sold to them, either direct or through the ginners and merchants who handle them in the community. You should insist on being furnished meal and hulls from your local mill.

Our reputation for fair dealing has long been established and our products are second to none.

We desire to maintain a fair market for your seed and a reasonable price for our products.

If you always desire to have an oil mill operated in your town, you should help us maintain it by giving your best support.

J. FRANK JENKINS,

Manager of Shelby Oil Mill for Receivers of the Southern Cotton Oil Company.

LATTIMORE SCHOOL SERVES HOT LUNCHES

These Are Served in Connection With Domestic Science. Number of New Homes Going Up.

(Special to The Star.)

Lattimore, Nov. 10.—A spirit of progressiveness prevades the town of Lattimore. A considerable amount of work has already been done toward installing electric lights in the town. It is announced that this work will be completed not later than January 1. Three new homes are under erection. Mr. A. B. Jones and Mr. B. H. Blanton are having erected dwellings on the lots adjoining their homes. Mr. John Hunt is having built an attractive bungalow into which he expects to move soon.

The Lattimore school opened November 3 after having been suspended for three weeks in order for the farmers to get their cotton picked.

In connection with the domestic science department, Miss Crowder has installed a hot lunch system, providing hot lunches for the children who would otherwise have to eat cold ones. This system is run on the club plan, and is working very successfully.

The Newton and Edgeronian literary societies are doing splendid work. They meet each Friday afternoon.

Our library is steadily growing. We expect to receive $150 worth of new books this week.

Our athletic club is doing fine with Prof. Tilden Falls as coach. After our three weeks suspension, we are back with a new determination to put things across. We do not have a football team, but hope to have one next year. Our basketball boys have been practicing hard all week and are getting toughened up for a successful season. The boys say they are taking the scalps, and when they set their heads for a thing they usually get it. Coach Falls has many new plays to pull in basketball. We are indeed hoping for a successful season. If any high school wants to schedule a game with us, write or phone Lander Farris, Lattimore.

We are all looking forward to Tuesday night as our second Lyceum number is to be given then.

Mrs. Smith and Miss Morehead, two of our grade teachers, spent the week end in Henrietta with friends.

A number of the boys attended the football game in Shelby Friday afternoon.

Prof. and Mrs. Blanton, Mr. and Mrs. Morehead, and Miss Maude Morehead took dinner with their aunt in Avoirville Wednesday.

Mr. W. C. Callahan and his octette sang at Trinity church last Sunday night.

We are indeed sorry that Miss Bridges, our third grade teacher, had to leave school Friday on account of illness.

Bleaka Blanton, Winnie Blanton, Lander Farris, Worth Micham, John Kennedy, Marion Champion, Odus Falls, James Harris, Glenn Grigg, Maxine Melton, Allan Melton, and Professor Falls of the high school spent the week end at their respective homes.

SELF-HELP STUDENT IS REMEMBERED AGAIN

Wake Forest, Nov. 10.—A news story appearing in North Carolina papers last fall, brought J. T. W. Davis of Mount Airy, self help student at Wake Forest College, $20 a few days ago. Davis was completely flabbergasted when a tourist by the name of Teague tipped him $20 for prompt, polite waiter service at the Wake Forest hotel last year. The two had struck up a cross-the-table acquaintanceship during the meal and Mr. Teague learning that Davis was working his way through Wake Forest grew friendly and recounted him he had worked his way through a Northern college. The student and the tourist have since been in correspondence and a few days ago Mr. Davis sent Mr. Teague the Wake Forest correspondent's account of the tipping incident.

"I am not the rich man that the story says I am, but I do have a soft spot for you fellows who are working your way. I am now touring through Florida. I enclose a little present," came back the reply. The "little present" was a check for $20.

"GONE TO HADES IN A HAND BASKET"

Gaston County News.

In speaking before the bankers of Group 9 of the North Carolina Bankers' association last Friday night at the Cleveland Springs hotel, Col. Walker Taylor of Wilmington, proudly referred to the fact that the Federal reserve system is a child of the brains of Southern men and that in every community three men stand out prominently, the minister of God who ministers unto us spiritually, the doctor who ministers unto our physical beings and the banker who guards our savings, using the money to help build the community. Col. Taylor declared that if either of these three go wrong, "society is gone to Hades in a hand basket."

Colonel Taylor furnished recent and authentic statistics from D. H. Blair of the U. S. treasury, to show that more money is handled in piedmont North Carolina than in any other like area in the United States and that North Carolina paid into the revenue of the U. S. treasury the fifth largest amount of any state in the union, being exceeded only by the states of New York, Pennsylvania, Michigan and Illinois.

SCHENCK IS APPOINTED SUPERIOR COURT JUDGE

Raleigh.—Michael Schenck, of Hendersonville, former solicitor of the 19 district and during the war judge advocate in the army Thursday received the appointment as judge to succeed the late J. Bis Ray.

Judge Ray, who was appointed by Governor Bickett, died several weeks ago. Governor Morrison could not make an appointment in time to get the name on the state ticket. The contest for the succession was between W. E. Breese and Mr. Schenck, but Governor Morrison says the Schenck endorsements were more numerous. This doubtless determined the appointment.

Judge Schenck is widely known in the state and especially in Greensboro which once was the home of the Schenck family.

MR. DAVIS WILL RETURN TO LAW PRACTICE IN NEW YORK

New York.—John W. Davis defeated Democratic nominee for President, will return to the practice of law in New York after a holiday to be spent on a cruise of the Mediterranean, it was announced today by his secretary Mr. Davis will leave within a few days to visit his former home, Clarksburg, W. Va.

Mr. Davis spent yesterday at the New York home of Frank L. Polk, former assistant secretary of state and today at his home at Locust Valley, L. I.

Upon his nomination for President Mr. Davis resigned from the law firm of Stetson, Jennings, Russell and Davis, which he joined in 1921 on finishing his service as ambassador to Great Britain. At the same time he gave up directorships in several corporations.

COSTS NOTHING TO RELIEVE TIRED FEET

For the weary shop girl or the door man who must stand all day on aching or burning feet, Dr. L. D. Hubbard has the following recommendation: Soak the feet for a few minutes in hot water then put them into cold, rub them briskly, dry them thoroughly and powder them.

"It sounds simple but it works," says Dr. Hubbard in the November-Hyge'a, popular health magazine published by the American Medical Association.
