COTTON SEED 52 1-2c

Late Beans—Mrs. Robert L. Mode who lives on S. Washington street has plenty of green beans from her garden and will have them until a heavy frost stops the yield.

Concert at Sharon—There will be a moving picture show and musical concert by the Sharon Stringed band next Saturday night Nov. 15th beginning at 7 o'clock. Proceeds for the benefit of the church. The public is cordially invited.

Fine Turnip Yield—J. A. Yarboro of near Waco brought The Star office a four pound purple top globe turnip yesterday. He is selling quantities from a small patch about 200 feet square from which he expects to gather 100 bushels.

13 Jailed—Local and county officers had a considerable bit of work over the week end according to a survey Monday morning. Thirteen people were arrested and jailed Saturday night and Sunday through their vigilance. For the most part the charges were for drunkenness, they say.

Another Picking Prodigy—Ethel Shuford, the seven year old daughter of Mr. R. E. Shuford of No. 8 Township comes forward with a fine cotton picking record. One day last week she picked 108 pounds in a single day and was not trying to establish a record for one of her age.

Mr. Thomason Resigns—J. Lon Thomason who has been connected with the John M. Best Furniture company for a number of years, has resigned for a needed rest after 20 years work indoors. Mr. Thomason will devote some attention to his real estate holdings in Shelby.

Building New Home—Wm. Lineberger has begun the construction of his handsome home in Belvedere Heights. The home will be one of the handsomest in Shelby, two stories high, built of brick, with all modern conveniences. No contract has been let, Mr. Lineberger having the work done by day-labor.

First Tax Round—Sheriff Logan started yesterday on his first tax round of the county, filling appointments in every township of the county. Taxes paid now entitle the taxpayer to a discount of one-half of one per cent. Sheriff Logan's appointments appear in an advertisement in this issue.

Banks Close Today—The three banks in Shelby will be closed today in observance of Armistice anniversary. Those who have business with the banks should bear this in mind. Shelby stores remain open. Members of the American Legion are to give a sham battle at the Fair ground this afternoon.

Woodcraft Pictures—On Thursday night at the court house beginning at 8 o'clock, there will be shown a four reel picture entitled "The Hour Glass". This is highly educational and dramatic. Mr. M. L. Tremain will lecture on Woodcraft. You are cordially invited to be there with your family. No admission charge.

Gun Discharges—The small son of Bobbie Robinson, manager of the Cleveland Cigar company fingered with the trigger of a loaded shotgun laying in his father's car Thursday afternoon and the gun discharged. A hole was blown through the side of Mr. Robinson's car, struck "Shine" Blanton's car parked alongside and some of the stray shot struck the Rose Five and Ten cent store front. Mr. Robinson's gun which had been loaned a friend, had been returned and was laying on the rear seat. The father did not know the gun was loaded and when he left the car in front of Wray-Hudson's store, the boy innocently pulled the trigger.

Boy Struck—Posey Webb, young colored delivery boy for the Sanitary market, was slightly injured Saturday night when he was struck by an automobile driven by Mr. A. B. Stagg, travelling representative of the Bel-nap Hardware company, of Louisville, who makes headquarters at Cleveland Springs. Bystanders say that the accident, which happened in the uptown business section, was unavoidable on the part of the car driver, the boy on the wheel whirling in front of the car. The boy from his screams was apparently badly injured, but when taken to the hospital by Mr. Stagg it was found that he had only received a slight cut on the face and several bruises.

Sale of Poultry Proved Big Success

The first cooperative poultry sale held at Kings Mountain Saturday afternoon proved a success, the birds selling at an average of over $1 per head, there being 104 birds sold.

The sale was put on by the Peoples Loan and Trust company, of which Elmer Herndon is president, in cooperation with County Agent R. E. Lawrence. Last spring the bank gave 145 settings of pure bred eggs to 100 farmers of the Kings Mountain section with the idea of starting better poultry in the county. A condition of the donation was that each farmer bring back second choice pullet to be sold at auction and further the poultry movement. One hundred and four pullets were brought in and sold for $148. It was the first sale of the kind ever held in the state and means 104 more farms in addition to the original 100 to have pure bred chickens.

Around Our Town

SHELBY SIDELIGHTS

The athletic system they have over here in the Shelby high school keeps every student in perfect physical condition. Those that can't play football take their exercise in a snake dance during rest periods. And, listen once and you'll never worry about a lung infection invading the high school. Without all of which the world would not spin.

The most public place in Shelby—have you ever thought what it is? Our first contribution—we'll guess again if it's wrong—is the new fountain on the court square. And, don't forget, these people who tuck up legal notices will find the place where the most eyes flit over. There's already one notice on the interior fountain walls. Almost as good a place to advertise as in The Star? ? ?

The motto of Kiwanis is "We build", but it should have been "We unite" from the appearance of the spirit that invades the Kiwanis meetings at Cleveland Springs. Thursday evening we saw talking together; two preachers, two rival lumbermen, and two physicians who do not practice on the same patients. And the preachers were talking about a jug—as a musical instrument; the lumbermen were discussing chicken, and the doctors were, of all things, having a good time talking about the preachers. Yea, such is the Kiwanis spirit and Charlie Burrus, who doles out the spirit.

It's rather late to say it, but if you want to witness the big Legion Armistice Day celebration, it's time to start. And then the boys will present flashes of Action" in the evening at the Princess theatre.

Another McIntyre vision of Shelby—the fire department front: A big, gaping doorway. A scintillating red truck in the background. Two chairs propped on each side of the doorway. Two people are in the chairs, they're both "snoring." But remember "Red" and Bobby work 25 hours each day. The extra hour is two hours in one when they're both trying to get off.

This item is a tribute to Shelby as well as advertisement for Kelly Clothing company. Some years back the Kellys started selling gents clothing. Apparently they have made a success at it. A large number of suits in Piedmont, North Carolina bear on the inside label—"Kellys, Statesville, Mooreville and Kannapolis." Now they'll add Shelby, and they tell us that in branching out again they considered a number of coming towns—Shelby won the consideration.

Which brings the conclusion that we Cleveland county people think a lot of Shelby, but these big chain concerns with business experts all ways on the alert evidently are also impressed with the Cleveland county seat. For instance, Gilmer's, Eford's, Rose's, A. & P., Piggy Wiggly, Woolworth and now Kelly's, a North Carolina outfit. These concerns did not locate in Shelby just because they had enough extra money to stock another store.

There is no doubt about it, Shelby has the "ups" on visiting athletic teams when the contests are staged here. The visitors first ride over 2-941 bumps and the overhead bridge and then the athletic field and cemetery flash into view at the same time. They're strangers and don't always know what started the cemetery.

Shelby has not long been in the brokerage business, meaning that the ticker of the stock broker has not long been a part of the business hubbub of up-town Shelby—and naturally there are those who have not yet become familiar with the details of the "put and take," mostly take some of them say, by telegraph. Recently one of the "there are those" eased up the stairs to the brokerage of H. and B. Beer. For a few minutes he listened at the ticker and watched the chalk in nimble figures change the reading over the big board. Finally he gave his disgusted opinion: "Huh, that's easy. If I was playin' the thing I would buy when it was low and sell when it was high." Mr. Galloway wheeled, looked, and also grunted with disgust, and turned back to his figures on the board. The ticker kept ticking—and so far as we've heard Wall street did not tremble at the nearness the street came to bankruptcy.

Bits of conversation heard in front of the Cleveland drug store: "See what Governor Morrison said about Max Gardner when he heard the port bill was beat?" "Yea, and although I was one of the few that voted for it I'm glad it was beat now since I've read that outburst."

The sentiment no doubt is similar to that of many thousand voters over the state. These Tar Heels like good losers.

The arrival of the ZR-3 seems to be a case of Hans across the sea.—New York Herald Tribune.

A Bottle of Wine Destroys a Bible.
Wine is destructive even in the corner stone of a church. If "wine is a mocker," as the Bible declares, when hid away in a brick wall far from the gaze of man, what should we expect from its effects in a man's stomach?
But we let the Cleveland Star tell what a bottle of wine deposited in the corner store of the old Methodist church in Shelby did for the contents of that corner stone. The Star says: "When the old church was sold to J. E. Webb, the corner stone was removed and the contents opened, but lo and behold, all of the records were illegible because the wine had fermented in the course of years and saturated the other contents of the sealed box. The records were, therefore, so rotten by the dampness and age that even the Bible could not be opened. None of the records placed there when the building was erected were in any sort of preservation."

WHY
HAS THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF SHELBY THOUSANDS OF ACCOUNTS AND RESOURCES OF OVER FOUR AND A HALF MILLION DOLLARS?
BECAUSE—
For more than twenty years it has been the friend of Cleveland county.
BECAUSE—
Every officer and clerk has the fact constantly in mind that the customer is the most important individual connected with the bank. They know the bank is not operated just to pay salaries, but to give a definite service.
BECAUSE—
This bank has to offer every line of legitimate banking service from making change to securing Foreign Exchange.
BECAUSE—
It is essentially a Shelby and Cleveland County institution, having the confidence and trust of the public over a long period. In fact over three generations.
FINALLY—
The big outstanding reason why this bank has thousands of depositors is because it has wanted them and worked unceasingly for them! No account has ever been too small to receive careful attention. We appreciate small accounts! Every customer means another ardent supporter. The money value of an account has always been subordinate to the useful service able to be rendered to the public.

THE OTHER MAN
WILL SAVE YOUR MONEY IF YOU DON'T.
It is easy to spend money; in many instances it is wise. Penurious saving is not thrift. A man who will deny his family or himself the necessities of life is not a thrifty individual.
However, there is a thought quite worthy of your consideration:
A DOLLAR NEVER RESTS UNTIL IT IS SAVED. Money will travel until it reaches the hands of a saver. Many of your dollars are now drawing interest in another man's savings account.
