Dinner Party at Cleveland Springs Hotel.
Miss Mayme Roberts was the gracious hostess at a dinner party at the Cleveland Springs hotel on Sunday, her guests including Mrs. S. F. Roberts, Miss Willia Hammond of Greenville, S. C., and Mr. C. C. Roberts.

Delightful Dinner Parties.
Dining at Cleveland Springs Sunday evening were Misses Pattie and Elizabeth Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McNeely. A party composed of the following were seated at another table and comprised Miss Moore's invited guests, these were, Misses Mary Griffin, Adeline Bostick, Grace Reed, Margaret Edmunds, Matilda Lattimore, Elizabeth Suttle, Mae Washburn and Margaret Moore and Messrs. A. B. Staeg, John Hudson, Jessie Washburn, Dr. King, Hackett Blanton, Harold Griffin, Robert Hord and Forrest McGill.

Junior Division U. D. C. Entertained by Miss Arey.
The Junior Division of the U. D. C. had for its charming young hostess on Saturday afternoon Miss Lula Agnes Arey the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Arey. The rooms where the members assembled were beautifully decorated with fall flowers making a bright scene for these attractive young people. When all had assembled a most interesting musical and literary program was given by these members after which Miss Arey with the assistance of her mother and Mrs. Ina Forney served elegant refreshments.

Miss Orni Lee White Delightful Hostess.
At her home near the Cleveland Springs road Miss Orni Lee White entertained at a Halloween party a number of her little friends and their mothers. In a dimly lighted room with a little spook standing by her side Miss White sang to the strains of the guitar, "The Little Winds of Autumn". Near by the big-eyed owl danced by the old black cat. A play was presented entitled "Old Man Post", after which they all joined in the fun of apple rolling. Peanuts, apples, ice cream and cakes were served.

Mrs. H. D. Wilson Entertains.
An enjoyable event was the lively party at which Mrs. H. D. Wilson entertained her Sunday school class on Friday afternoon at her attractive home. The members assembled and during the hours of 2:30 and 5 o'clock made a quilt for the South Mountain school. After needles and thimbles were laid aside Mrs. Wilson served the most delicious refreshments, consisting of salad, cake, nuts, cheese rolls, hot chocolate and candies.
The rooms were decorated beautifully with roses, chrysanthemums and ferns.

Misses Jarrett and Short Entertain Epworth League.
One of the most enjoyable events of the season was a social, given to the Epworth league of LaPayette Street Methodist church, Friday night by Misses Ellen Jarrett and Lorena Short. The color scheme of purple and gold artistically arranged, gave a very beautiful setting. Many games were enjoyed, after which delicious refreshments were served. The following are the officers installed for the ensuing year. Miss Lorena Short, president;

Miss Ellen Jarrett, vice president; Miss Lucy Short, secretary; A. H. Galloway, treasurer; L. S. Ritch, 1st department supt.; Miss Mattie Laughridge, 2nd dept. supt.; Miss Leaska Blanton, 3rd dept. supt.; Mrs. Tannie Bumgardner, 4th dept. supt.; Miss Annie Hughes, corresponding secy.

The Cleveland Guards chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy will hold its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. T. W. Hamrick on Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. This will be an important meeting and Mrs. Zeb Mauney, the president urges all members to be present.

Mrs. Ben Babington's Birthday Celebrated.
Fraught with "love and the heartful of good wishes" was the birthday dinner in honor of Mrs. Ben Babington who celebrated her 87th birthday on Friday November 7th, at her home. She had with her on this delightful occasion her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren, they being Mrs. Lee Sullivan, and Mr. Tom Babington and family and Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Babington and family, Mr. John Robertson and Mr. Hoover of Charlotte, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Williams and children and her friend of long standing, Mrs. Mollie Homsley of Charlotte. A number of beautiful presents were given to Mrs. Babington. A feature of the bountiful dinner was the birthday cake handsomely embossed and decorated with pink icing-roses also in letters of icing "grandmother" was written on the dates 1837-1924. The table was covered with snowy white line and had for its centerpiece an exquisite basket of pink roses.
During the afternoon many of Mrs. Babington's friends called and wished her "many happy returns" of the day.

Davis-McFarland Wedding.
A wedding of much interest through out Shelby and Cleveland county, was that of Mrs. Ora Poston McFarland and Mr. Walton F. Davis which was quietly solemnized Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock November 8th, at the Baptist parsonage Rev. R. L. Lemons, pastor of the First Baptist church performing the impressive ring ceremony in the presence of only the immediate families and a few close friends.
The bride was lovely in an ensemble suit of blue charmon which was fashioned in long slender lines. With this she wore hat and gloves and shoes to match. Mrs. Davis is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Poston one of Cleveland county's prominent families. She has for a number of years held a responsible position in the ready-to-wear store of J. C. McNeely & Co.
Mr. Davis is a splendid man of fine qualities and holds a responsible position as overseer at the Shelby mill.
Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Davis left for Asheville and other points of interest in Western North Carolina for a wedding trip of a few days. They will be at home in Shelby upon their return. Handsomely engraved announcements have been issued reading as follows:
Mr. and Mrs. James O. Poston announce the marriage of their daughter Ora Poston McFarland to Mr. Walton F. Davis on Saturday, November the eighth Nineteen hundred and twenty-four, Shelby, North Carolina.

Hail! Day of Armistice.
Hail! Day of Armistice, hail to the nations
Quenching the fire of the thunderous guns;
Ending the anguish of war's desolations,
Broken the strength of the terrible ones—
Hail to the warriors peacefully sleeping,
Nameless or known in the cross-covered plains;
Bow we with those who sit quietly weeping,
Bearing their loss for the world's richer gains
We will be keeping the trust ye decreed us,
Ye who lie under the wave and the sod;
Watchful we stand, guarding all that has freed us,
Resting our deeds in the judgment of God.
Hail, day of Righteousness! Storms shall be weathered,
Christ shall speak peace to the waves rolling high
Never again shall the Beast be untethered,
Never shall Wrong have a place in the sky.
Hail day of Brotherhood! Hail to the morning
Of the new day that has scarcely begun,
When o'er the earth in that glorious dawning,
Good will triumph and all men be one.

Beautiful Series of Parties By Mrs. D. W. Royster.
Two of the most beautiful parties of the fall season were given by Mrs. D. W. Royster at her lovely home on S. Washington street complimentary to Mrs. Ralph Royster and the Ishpening club. The home was a bower of roses, chrysanthemums and other fall flowers arranged with faultless taste. At the door receiving the guests were Mrs. S. S. Royster, Mrs. A. W. McMurray, and Mrs. Willis McMurray.
In the receiving line were Mrs. Royster, Mrs. Ralph Royster and the members of the Ishpening club. The dining room table was exquisitely beautiful with its lace piece of cut work and fillet and centering this was a large silver basket with white roses and ferns. During the calling hours delicious refreshments consisting of a salad and sweet course was served to the callers. Again Saturday morning Mrs. Royster was hostess to the Thursday afternoon club and on this occasion rook, the club game was played at three tables. Lovely flowers graced the tables and unique little score cards were used. Mrs. Royster served a lovely luncheon at noon.

Chicora Club to Sell Tickets.
The members of the Chicora club will sell tickets this week for the moving picture featuring Jackie Coogan, in Robinson Crusoe which will be shown at the Princess theatre Thursday afternoon and Thursday evening.

Autumn Leaves Tumble.
The autumn leaves are descending in Shelby and over the hills and mountains about our little city. Every hue of the rainbow may be seen. In the town they form something of a problem in the way of clogged roof gutters and littered lawns. In the hills and mountains they simply blanket the embryo violets until the breath of spring is abroad again.

Mr. Charles McBrayer Entertains Young Friends.
Mr. Charles McBrayer was a delightful host on Saturday evening at the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. L. F. McBrayer to a number of his young girl and boy friends. "Progressive Conversation" was the game of the evening and was much enjoyed by all present. Music was also interspersed with this delightful pastime. At the conclusion of the games Mrs. McBrayer served a delicious sweet course to the guests.

Mrs. John Schenk sr., and Guests Honored.
Mrs. John Schenk sr., of Lawndale and her most attractive guest Mrs. Tooley of Texas were the delightful honorees at a beautiful dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. George Blanton on Sunday evening at the Cleveland Springs hotel.—The table was beautifully appointed for the occasion and covers were laid for the following, Mr. and Mrs. Blanton, Mr. and Mrs. Schenk, Mrs. Tooley, Mr. and Mrs. John Schenk jr., Mr. and Mrs. Gene Schenk, Mr. Hal Schenk, Miss Millicent Blanton, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Butler of Gaffney and Mr. Maynard Smith, Miss Carolyn Blanton and Mr. Chas. C. Blanton.

Mrs. W. B. Nix Charming Hostess.
Mrs. W. B. Nix entertained the Chicora club in her own cordial and beautiful way on Friday afternoon at four o'clock. The rooms were aglow with bright fall flowers, and to add to the pleasure of the afternoon was the presence of Mrs. Robert Parthing so well known as "Miss Addie" and who is now visiting relatives here. After the roll call, minutes and a business session the following interesting program was rendered the first being a paper on "Jack London" written and read by Mrs. L. A. Gettys, this was followed by an interesting paper by Mrs. Hennessy her subject being "Raphael Pumpelly." Mrs. Holland concluded the program with an instructive paper on "Sir Henry Morton Stanley" at the close of the program Mrs. Nix served most delicious viands consisting of a salad and sweet course.

Mrs. Frank Hoey Club Hostess.
One of the loveliest parties of Shelby's many was on Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at Mrs. Frank Hoey's attractive home "Delcourt" when she was the charming hostess to the South Washington bridge club. The home was a vision of loveliness inside. The rooms re-decorated and exquisite. The Japanese idea was carried out perfectly in the flowers, favors, score cards, and table decorations. Gorgeous fall roses, handsome chrysanthemums and other fall flowers were used beautifully together making a wonderful ensemble. Ten tables of bridge was played the place cards being dainty little Japanese ladies and the favors little Japanese umbrellas. Mrs. D. W. Royster cut the highest score and received a lovely box of Japanese perfume. After cards were laid aside Mrs. Hoey served an elegant salad and sweet course.

Judge Webb Adding To His Buildings
Judge James L. Webb is adding a 30-foot extension of his building on Marion street on the south side of the Court House. This will make the store rooms occupied by W. A. Pendleton's Music Store, The Electric Service Co., and K. Kendall's and Miss Maggie Black's Millinery store thirty feet deeper than at present. The addition will be of brick and one story high. A basement is being excavated for a heating plant which may be added later. Construction work will begin this week and when finished will add greatly to the size of these three store rooms.
