Mrs. James L. Webb and daughter Mrs. O. Max Gardner motored to Hendersonville Wednesday to spend the day with Judge James L. Webb, this being his birthday. He is holding court in Hendersonville this week.

Cleveland Springs

A delightful motor party comprising the following were guests at Cleveland Springs on Friday, Miss Kate Shipp of Hendersonville, and Captain F. B. Shipp of Fort Huachuca, Arizona and Mrs. William E. Shipp.

Alexander Dinner Party

Saturday evening, Mrs. Wm. T. Alexander gave a small but very charming dinner party at her home on South DeKalb St. Seated at the handsomely appointed table were Mr. and Mrs. Alexander, Miss Viola Giles, of Marion, and Miss Marguerite Leverette.

Afternoon Division Meets Saturday

Afternoon Division No. 1 of the Woman's Club that was to have met Thursday afternoon will meet Saturday afternoon at 3:30 with Mrs. John McClure as hostess. An interesting program has been prepared and members are requested to note the change of the meeting.

Surprise Dinner On His Birthday

Mr. Roscoe McWhirter was given a pleasant surprise Tuesday of this week, when Mrs. McWhirter unknown to him arranged a stag dinner in honor of his 33rd birthday. Seven guests were present and helped Mr. McWhirter celebrate the occasion.

Mrs. Leverette Hostess

Mrs. Maurice S. Leverette was hostess to a luncheon Sunday, honoring Miss Viola Giles, of Marion, who was the week-end guest of Miss Marguerite Leverette. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Leverette, Miss Giles, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Alexander and Misses Faye Lutz, Miriam Hoyle and Marguerite and Helen Leverette.

Mitchell-Cross Invitations

The following invitations have been received in Shelby:

Dr. and Mrs. Roland B. Macon request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Adele Dolores Cross to Mr. Burton Forest Mitchell on Wednesday evening December 3 nineteen hundred and twenty-four at six o'clock Trinity Church Clarksville, Tennessee

Dr. and Mrs. Mitchell, Dr. Tom Brice Mitchell of Philadelphia and Mr. Warren Brice of Charlotte will attend the wedding.

Miss Judith Bostick Entertains Circle

Miss Judith Bostick entertained the Fannie Heck circle of the Baptist missionary society at her hospitable home on Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Besides the members several visitors were present. Three delightful papers were read by Mesdames Suttle, Spangler and Ebeltoft. A business session was held and Mrs. S. R. Riley was elected secretary of the circle and two new members. Mrs. Wall and Mrs. Farthing added to the list. Miss Bostick's room was beautifully decorated with fall roses. She served hot chocolate and delicious little cakes and nuts.

Mrs. T. W. Hamrick Hostess to U. D. C.'s.

Mesdames T. W. Hamrick, Beuna Bostick, S. O. Andrews, Ceph Blanton and Charles Burrus were hostesses to the regular monthly meeting of the U. D. C. chapter at the beautiful home of Mrs. T. W. Hamrick on Tuesday afternoon at 3:30. After the roll call and reading of the minutes a business session was held and the treasurer reported $93 was cleared from the fair $150 having been taken in. Owing to the celebration of Armistice day no program was arranged and after a delicious ice course was served the meeting adjourned. Mrs. Hamrick's room was decorated with fall roses and other fall flowers.

The "Looker On" Writes Of New York

New York today in its present fever of building and its over-crowded streets makes the town of Shelby a rest surg, an almost silent place. For all that the fascination of New York remains as strong as ever. It's Indian summer of glorious sunshine made one glad to be alive and its blue canopy sent up the spirits as big as its buildings and came as a welcome change. Meantime New York becomes more and more the center of the drama of the world, more interesting and varied, more cosmopolitan than any other play producing city on the globe. A cursory glance at the not too many New York theaters shows that at this moment they hold representations of the work and acting of every other country with that of American writers and actors holding their own. The fecund and various Owen Davis; the workmanlike and brilliant James Forbes; our own original Hatcher Hughes and Leonard Stallings, industrious and lucky; Avery Hopwood, a cunning craftsman; Channing Pollock, provocative and unconventional; Eugene O'Neil and versatile and experimental Kaufman and Connelly, and certain-ly nowhere is criticism so able or so sincere as it is in New York.

Afternoon Division No. 2 Entertained by Mrs. Eskridge.

In exchanging with Mrs. John Black who is out of town Mrs. Herman Eskridge entertained the Afternoon Division No. 2 on Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Fall was beautifully presented in the decorations of the large living room where gorgeous fall roses and stately chrysanthemums held sway. The leader at this meeting was Mrs. B. O. Hamrick and she called for the following program "Life of Poe" by Miss Lilla Hull, "Poe the Writer of Tales" by Mrs. Will King, and "Poe the Poet" by Mrs. H. M. Loy. These papers were splendidly prepared and well written and much enjoyed by the members. After a round table discussion on parliamentary law Mrs. Eskridge served dainty and appetizing refreshments.

Mrs. Zeb Mauney Charming Hostess.

Mrs. Zeb Mauney entertained at one of the loveliest teas of the autumn season on Wednesday afternoon from 3:30 to 5:30 o'clock in honor of her sister Mesdames Hugh Wray of Gastonia and Mamie Wray Webb of Charleston.

Mrs. Mauney's home was a bower of beautiful white chrysanthemums, mammoth flowers, raised in her own flower garden. Mrs. Lawson Blanton and Mrs. Clayton Peeler welcomed the guests at the front door. Mrs. Mauney dressed in lovely lavender georgette and Mrs. Wray in black beaded satin and Mrs. Webb in black satin were receiving in the living room. In the hall Mrs. Scott Green and Mrs. J. S. Dorton spoke a word of welcome and invited the guests into the dining room where Mrs. H. T. Hudson and Mrs. C. R. Doggett presided over the table. The table was picturesque and beautiful with its cluny piece and a gorgeous arrangement of mammoth white chrysanthemums graced the center of the table in a lovely silver basket. Delicious refreshments consisting of fruit salad, saltines, two kinds of sandwiches, nut bread, mints and candies were served also delicious punch. Assisting in the dining room were, Mesdames Grady Mauney, Clarence Mull, Flay Hoey and Miss Janie Blanton. During the calling hours delightful music was rendered by Mrs. Grady Lovelace and Mrs. Ben Suttle.

Mrs. White Buried At Boiling Springs

Mrs. Caroline White died November 1st at her home two miles southeast of Boiling Springs after an illness of some months and her remains were buried Monday, November 2nd at Boiling Springs Baptist church where she held her membership. Mrs. White was 75 years of age and a fine Christian character, greatly beloved by all who knew her. She was quiet, unassuming, but a loyal and devoted friend to those who came into her life. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. John R. Green, pastor of the Boiling Springs church and the funeral was largely attended. She is survived by her husband Mr. William W. White and one son Meredith White, formerly a popular mail carrier on Shelby Route 3.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY MEETS WITH MRS PADGETT

The Woman's Missionary society of the Second Baptist church held its regular meeting at the church Monday afternoon. "China and Its Many Conditions" was the subject of the program, and several interesting readings and discussions were given. Mrs. Rush Padgett, our president, gave in her resignation on account of other important work. We will miss Mrs. Padgett and her efficient methods of leadership. Mrs. J. C. Dodd, having moved to the country, also resigned her office of vice president.

At the close of the program a social was held. As a token of her love each member presented a little gift to her loved one, whose name had been drawn by ticket two months ago. Mrs. Padgett then served refreshments. We enjoyed being together but regret having to give up our officers. We hope to have others take their place and serve just as faithfully.

Union Consolidated School Had Opening

Names of Teachers. School Running With Fairly Good Attendance Despite Harvest Season. (Special to The Star.)

A number of the parents and friends were present at the opening of Union Consolidated school. All the teachers spoke encouraging words to the pupils and parents, assuring them of their interest in school and community, and asking for the co-operation of the parents in behalf of the community, welcomed the teachers, in a short but impressive talk.

The teachers for the school year, are as follows:

Miss Meldona Livingston, Grover, principal, Mr. W. M. Elliott, Shelby, H. S. assistant, Miss Thelma Earl, of Earl, 6th and 7th grades. Mrs. Ruth H. Mauney, Shelby, R-5, 4th and 5th grades. Mrs. Blanche G. Lattimore, Lawndale, 3rd grade; Mrs. Selma M. Gold, Shelby, R-5, 2nd grade. Miss Virginia Harris, Lawndale, high first grade. Miss Nida M. Elliott, Shelby beginners department.

Although some fields are still white with cotton and farmers are very busy needing the children to help with the gathering of crops, the school is running with a fairly good attendance. There were 121 enrolled the first week others are entering. It is hoped all will soon be in line of work.

Miss Livingstone's experience and past record as H. S. principle insures her ability for the work. With the corps of excellent teachers, as co-workers, we are expecting a successful school year.
