White Woman Dies At Mulatto Home

Thomasville.—Mrs. Roxobel Gainey, of Wallburg community was buried at that place Sunday, her age being 95 years. Death released her spirit from what was mortal on Friday night while in the home of her daughter, who is a mulatto, with negro husband and a number of children. The home of this family with whom the aged woman had lived for many years is said to be in an almost unknown spot by the average white person in the neighborhood, described as a wood back of a pasture, the entrance to the premises being on a path with two gates to be opened and shut by those passing that way.

After an unfortunate circumstance which practically ostracized the young woman from her former associates, she married Mr. Gainey, with whom she lived until he died at the age of 70 years. It was then that Mrs. Gainey went to live with her daughter there making her home until her body nestled in a casket was borne from thence to the bier by the hands of her colored neighbors, led by a colored preacher, to a colored church where the funeral services were held by a colored preacher, interment being made according to her request in the colored cemetery thereby and again in accordance with her last request, by the side of a grandchild who died about four years ago.

Patterson Springs Has Mild Flu Cases

Mrs. J. E. Wilson Falls From Porch and Breaks Ankle. Box Supper Nets Sixty Dollars.

(Special to The Star.)

Patterson Springs, Dec. 3.—The box supper given at the school building last Saturday night proved a success—over $60 was raised for the plan fund.

Mrs. J. E. Wilson on falling from the porch met with the misfortune last Wednesday evening of breaking her ankle. She was carried to the Shelby Public hospital. She is now at home doing nicely.

A mild form of "flu" is prevalent in this section. A number of families have suffered from its effects recently. Just now Mrs. R. J. Neal is confined to the bed with something like gripe.

Mr. L. F. King has been quite sick, but is very much improved.

Mr. A. L. Neal and family have also been "laid up" with about the same trouble as is so widely prevalent in the community.

Mr. Wm. M. Lowery has had sickness in his family also during the last fortnight.

Several from among us have made some trips seeking turkey during the closing days of last week.

Prof. M. G. Latham visited relatives in York county, S. C.

Mr. C. F. McSwain visited relatives in Morganton Sunday.

Miss Grace King spent the week end in Rutherfordton with Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Callahan.

Mrs. Rollins Camp and children spent their Thanksgiving holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Potzman of Rutherfordton.

The following have honored the community by sharing the hospitality of several homes around our village while the fresh meat and the "fowl" repeats were at their best.

Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Britton of Spartanburg spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. L. F. King.

Mr. J. B. King and son of Charlotte also spent Thanksgiving holiday season with Mr. L. F. King.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Callahan of Ruth, this state, spent Thanksgiving day with Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Borders.

Mrs. Mike Borders of Charlotte is visiting her daughter Mrs. Andrew Thrift of this vicinity.

Mrs. William Rippy of Earl is a pleasant caller in the community.

Another new residence is now being erected in the heart of Patterson Springs for A. L. Neal. Mr. Doc Griffin of Shelby has the contract.

Lincoln Youth Killed When Gun Discharges

Lincoln Times.

Carl Malachi Hovis, son of Martin Luther and Frances Reid Hovis of the Arrow mill, was almost instantly killed by the accidental discharge of his gun while hunting Saturday afternoon. The fatal accident occurred about 3 o'clock on the lands of Mrs. John Davis, two miles west of Lincolnton, where young Hovis and several of his friends had gone to hunt.

The gun was discharged while in the hands of the unfortunate youth, though the exact manner in which the accident happened is not known as he was alone at the time. The entire load from the gun struck the boy in the side of the face tearing away the flesh and splintering the jaw bone. It then ranged down to the neck severing the jugular vein. He died within a few minutes. Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and interment was made at the Ore Bank church.

Hovis was 18 years of age and a likeable young fellow with many good traits of character. He was known to many people in Lincolnton, having sold papers on the streets here several years ago. He was a grandson of Malachi Hovis, one of Lincoln county's few remaining Confederate veterans.

Back With the Ledger.

Gaffney Ledger.

G. D. Parris yesterday resumed work in the mechanical department of the Gaffney Ledger, having returned to this city from Gastonia, N. C., where he had been connected with the Gaston Times for the past several months. Mr. Parris moved his family back to Gaffney yesterday. He has hundreds of friends throughout the city and county who will welcome him back home. Mr. Parris was an employee of the Ledger for practically 20 years, until about a year ago he decided he could do better elsewhere, and moved to Shelby, N. C., from where he later went to Gastonia.

Wore $1,000 Liberty Bonds for Apron

Youngstown, O.—Bonds and stocks valued at about half a million dollars, said to have been stolen from Bentleys Bank at Springboro, Pa., were found in a city park here and have been recovered by postal authorities. It was announced here today by Postmaster Edward Westwood and Postal Inspector Harry Taviner.

That the men who found the money, all foreigners, were not fully aware of the value of their find, was indicated when the foreman of one man, who works in a steel plant, said that last night he found the man wearing two $1,000 liberty bonds for an apron.

Does It Pay To Be Thrifty

(By Carl Anthony, 10th Grade.)

I dare say that every true red blooded Americans will tell you that it pays to be thrifty. Perhaps you have often heard it said, "that it isn't what we have that counts". In my mind the above statement is as true as the needle is to the pole. A person can make a hundred dollars a week and still not have any put aside for a rainy day at the end of the month or year if they are extravagant. The spend-thrifts perhaps say: "Take no thought for tomorrow for what we shall eat nor what we shall wear." It's true the Bible teaches us that. But let's go back a little and consider everything. Perchance you have noticed on a bright summer day the little ant how busy it was working from sun till sun in order to get ahead a supply of food for the winter weather. As God made us surely we, as his people have enough foresight and thought about us to do as the industrious little ant and lay up something for a rainy day. Have you ever noticed wasteful people? I presume that you have and on the other hand noticed saving people. There is as much difference in my estimation between saving and extravagance as there is between day and night. The thrifty person has never been overestimated nor will they ever be in their true worth and value to America and her causes. A thrifty person makes money and spends it too, but spends it wisely. Next beware of the tight wads for enough of them would force every business of its kind to be stopped throughout the great world today. They have money but will not spend it nor allow it to get into circulation. Take our bodies for instance can they be strong and the appetite quenched until some good wholesome food is eaten? And so the same applies to the tight wads if they have money and will not let it get into circulation. What good will their money be to their town or city? Until it is put into service it will be worth as much to the town or city as it is worth to the tight wad himself, practically nothing.

Why can't we make this year a real thrifty year? We can do it if we will. Every bank and building and loan here in Shelby in fact every institution of that kind in the United States wants to recognize you as a person of thrift. Now lets not only talk thrift but let's practice thrift during the year of '24, and show the world what we can really accomplish.

When you hear a person say their wanting a home will you kindly do them a favor and if they need any money that they can get it from the building and loans. And he will be able to build his own home and be much happier than living in a rented home. And so we see thrift develops character and promotes happiness. It is indeed one of the greatest of all virtues.

"PEACE ON THE EARTH"

Say It With Music

Peace on earth must begin with Love and Peace in the home.

There is no greater promoter of Home-Happiness than MUSIC, and the music that can truly be called "the Music of the Whole Family" is that furnished by the Registering Player Piano, VICTOR and EDISON phonographs.

Every Member Of The Family Can Be- Come An Accomplished Musician

Don't think every Phonograph you see is a Victrola. Look under the lid for the Victor trade mark, the Victor Dog, "His Master's Voice." There has been quite a number of people fooled in this section, they never know the difference until their phonograph breaks down, and when the truth is known, they have nothing but a WILD-CAT Phonograph with a COFFEE MILL MOTOR.

Come in and let us demonstrate the difference between a genuine REGISTERING PIANO and a Real Phonograph.
