The New Theatre—Work on the new theatre which J. E. Webb is making out of the old Central Methodist church building is moving along rapidly. The brick front is now being stuccoed, which adds greatly to its appearance.

A Large Turnip—The Star is indebted to W. W. Covington, one of the leading farmers of the county, for a large turnip which weighs about four pounds. Mr. Covington also produced a potato about 18 inches long that was well sized from tip to tip.

III With Pneumonia—Walter Lucas, superintendent of the Mooresboro Cotton Oil company who recently suffered the loss of an arm which was caught in the gin machinery, is now ill with double pneumonia. He was just recovering from his injury when he developed pneumonia.

Some Pig—Mr. D. A. York, of the Lawndale section starts the hog killing season off. Mr. York recently killed a 20-months old porker that tipped the scales after being cut up and dressed at 575 pounds. It was so large it had to be weighed after being cut up.

Thanksgiving Offering—The 1st Baptist church and Sunday school made a special Thanksgiving offering of over $1,900 to the Baptist orphanage at Thomasville, while the Presbyterians raised $200 with other preachers to hear from, for the Barium Springs orphanage. It was impossible to learn what the Methodists had raised.

Mr. Eskridge Operated on—Mr. Forrest Eskridge, popular cashier of the First National Bank was operated on at the Johns Hopkins hospital, Baltimore, Md., having a stone removed from the kidney. He was accompanied by Dr. J. W. Harbison of the Shelby hospital who returned Wednesday and Dr. Harbison says Mr. Eskridge is getting along nicely. It is hoped his long standing trouble has been removed.

Last Tax Round—Sheriff Hugh Logan advertises engagements which he will make beginning next Monday on his final round of the county for the purpose of collecting taxes. He made his first round last month when collections amounted to about $50,000. The next round will be his last, and thereafter the tax payers must pay at the office. The tax rounds are made for the convenience of tax payers in various parts of the county.

Sends Month's Salary—Miss Attie Bostick, Shelby missionary in China, has sent her monthly pay check of $68 to help wind up the seventy-five million campaign. She had heard in far away China that some difficulty is being experienced in finishing the collection of pledges, so she made another heroic sacrifice, giving a month's salary after she had already pledged and paid $500 toward the campaign. She sets a noble example to others.
