Children of the Confederacy To Meet.

The senior members of the children of the Confederacy will meet with Miss Margaret Love Gardner on Saturday afternoon. The hour is 3:30.

South Washington Bridge Club Postponed.

The South Washington Bridge club which was to have met with Mrs. O. M. Gardner this Saturday has been postponed.

Enjoyable Thanksgiving Dinner.

One of the most enjoyable dinners of the Thanksgiving season was on Thanksgiving day at the home of Mr. George Dover on West Warren street when the children of Mrs. Mary Ellen Dover had a surprise dinner in her honor. Baskets overflowing with good things were brought and dinner was served to 40. Afterwards trays of cake and other eatables were sent to ten of Mrs. Dover's friends and neighbors who were sick. All six of her children and 14 grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren were present for the occasion.

New Styles in Fur Coats Being Worn.

Paris.—Autumn's first chill wind has brought out the winter furs of the 1925 season.

A fortnight ago fur was a trimming, something women wore because it was fashionable, but at Longchamp recently they had become an essential part of dress and were put on for warmth.

A natural sealskin coat trimmed with skunk, worn by one of the models was the sensation of the day. Paris had never seen such a seal coat before. Usually the sealskin as prepared by Paris furriers and worn by Parisiennes is of a brownish color, the result of clever handling by the fur experts. This seal had undergone no transformation since its capture on the banks of Newfoundland or Behring sea. It was grey, silky, shiny, in spots shading from grey to white, the seal in its natural state.

Otter skin was one of the favorites. By some unusual process of the furrier a golden tint had been given to the fur, which promises to be very popular. Fox furs, squirrel, badger, skunk and astrakan also were shown. Ermine is the chosen fur for evening wraps when chinilla is not used. Both these furs are popular for theater cloaks and coats. Stone martin, sable and mink are being used for scarves, which are wide and long.

D. A. R. Meeting.

Mrs. Hugh Logan, and Mrs. James Parker and Mrs. Yates McSwain were gracious hostesses to the members of the Benjamine Cleveland chapter D. A. R. on Tuesday afternoon at Mrs. Parker's hospitable home. Christmas was in the air and atmosphere, not only in the cheerful meeting given the members by these charming hostesses but in the lovely vase of flowers, red roses mingled with Christmas greens which centered the living room table making a beautiful picture, and the American flag draped most artistically over the doors entering the room. The Christmas decorations were carried out beautifully in the refreshments, which were elegant and delicious and in the doilies with their red poinsettias, also the candies, completed the Christmas scheme. In the absence of the regent Mrs. O. M. Gardner, the vice regent Mrs. W. H. Blanton presided. The chaplain also being absent the devotional exercises were dispensed with after Lord's Prayer and the allegiance to the flag. Mrs. S. R. Riley was voted to act for Mrs. Lamar Gidney as secretary until the March election Mrs. Gidney being unable to attend the meetings.

The yearly dues were then collected, other business transacted and the program was then rendered. Miss Ellen Brice a charming visitor and a Charlotte D. A. R. read in Mrs. Mitchell's absence a splendidly prepared paper by Mrs. Mitchell on "Pocahontas". This was followed by two beautiful Indian songs wonderfully interpreted and sung by Mrs. R. L. Lemons, which concluded the afternoon's program and a social hour with the delicious refreshments were much enjoyed.

Mrs. Ben Suttle Charming Hostess.

At her lovely new home on West Warren street Mrs. Ben Suttle was the charming hostess to the Music and Arts department of the Woman's club on Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The rooms were beautifully and artistically decorated with late fall flowers and Christmas greenery. The subjects of the afternoon were: "Art, The Flemish School" and "Music, Mozart". Miss Gussie Sisk was the first on the program and her interesting paper on "Landscapes and Marines, Ruysdael, Van de Velde, Hobema, was much enjoyed. This was followed by Mrs. George Moore telling the club about Vandyke and Reubens, these always attractive subjects. Miss Elizabeth Roberts entertained the members with a splendid paper on Rembrandt. Mrs. Durham Moore then changed the subject to music and discussed intelligently "Mozart's Life and Works," then Mrs. D. Z. Newton played beautifully the "Minuet in E. Flat" and Miss Etalio Moses concluded this delightful program by rendering exquisitely the "Minuet from Don Juan."

After the program Mrs. Suttle served most elaborate and delicious refreshments.
Miss Ellen Brice of Charlotte was a charming outside visitor.

Windows All Dressed Up.

Shop windows in Shelby are beginning now to be all aglow with Christmas offerings. The day of days is but a span away now and apparently everybody is starting in early to make a great affair of it. An unusual array of presents for old and young are on display.

Mrs. Grover Beam Delightful Hostess.

One of the loveliest early Christmas season parties was on Tuesday afternoon when Mrs. Grover Beam entertained the Entre Nous club at 3:30 o'clock. The rooms were beautiful with their Christmas decorations poinsettias being the flowers used. Three tables of bridge was played. The place cards were poinsettias and the most exquisite little favors were given being little Santa Claus houses with the Santa Claus on the chimneys. After an hour of enjoyable playing cards were laid aside and Mrs. Beam served the most delicious refreshments pertaining to the Christmas season.

Jarrett-Galloway Wedding Wednesday.

Miss Ellen Jarrett, attractive daughter of Mrs. Dan Jarrett, South Shelby and Mr. Archie H. Galloway, son of Mr. E. L. Galloway, in charge of H. and B. Beer's cotton office here, were happily married Wednesday morning at the home of the bride's mother in the presence of a few friends, Rev. A. S. Raper performing the wedding ceremony. Mr. Galloway is display manager and window card writer at Gilmer's Department store and a young man of many fine qualities, while the bride is a popular and friendly young lady. Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for points in South Carolina where they are visiting relatives. From there they extend their trip to Atlanta, Ga., former home of the groom, after which they return to Shelby to live.

The "Looker On" Writes on Radio.

A number of Shelby people have installed radio cabinets in their homes. They just bought the piece of furniture in, set it down, put some batteries in the back, shut it up, turned a few knobs in front, and lo! and behold! from nowhere comes the most beautiful music from somewhere. It may be Pittsburgh; New York; Texas. Not an aerial anywhere, not a piece of wire, all the doors and windows closed and from that little spooky cabinet issues these wonderful sounds. Now what I want to know, how does Pittsburgh "K D K A" get into the air, the air into the house, and into the cabinet? It's a weird, non-understandable thing, and a visitor from Charlotte said: "I hear it, but really I can't understand it, there ain't noshing thing' but there is;" a paradox which you can solve, that is if you can.

Home Economics Offers Recipes

The Home Economics department of the Woman's Club met at the central school building on November 24th, twenty members being present. Candy was the subject for the afternoon and Mrs. Jno. McClard was chairman, those who demonstrated were, Mrs. Nelson Lattimore, uncooked fondant, Mrs. Roger Laughridge, coconut caramel, and Mrs. Jap Suttle, Date loaf.

Cocoanut Caramel
3 cup sugar, 1 cup milk, butter size of walnut, melt one cup of sugar and add to mixture after it has cooked, then add one cup grated coconut and beat till smooth.

Date Loaf
2 cups sugar, 1-2 cup milk, let loaf till creamy, add one package dates stoned and mashed, cook till dates are dissolved stirring constantly, add one cup pecans beat till thick, pour on wet cloth and roll, let stand till cold then slice.

Recipe for uncooked fondant is in Shelby cook book.
