"Locker On" Writes Of Championship Game.

As all over now, and the teams home but our boys went down in a glorious defeat—but who suffered more, the team or the Shelby high school girls? Had the town seen their faces—for they were together at a meeting, when the score reached them it could have truly appreciated their feelings. Their hearts ached, they showed it, but they were loyal to the boys. They all said in one voice, "we would not have cared so much only for Charlotte" and these beautiful young girls voiced the feelings of many of the Shelby folks, deep down in their hearts for they felt the same way.

Miss Gardner Entertains Children of Confederacy.

Miss Margaret Love Gardner entertained the Junior chapter of the Children of the Confederacy on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The rooms were thrown together and the soft lights made a warm, bright scene within. Quite a number were present and a most interesting program was rendered by Misses Charlie Mae Laugh ridge, Virginia Hoey and Elizabeth Dudley after the business session and program were concluded. Miss Gardner assisted by Mrs. Max Gardner, Mrs. J. L. Webb and Mrs. S. R. Riley served a sweet course consisting of ice cream, cake, nuts and a dandy.

Miss Ebeltoft Entertains Hostess.

Miss Elizabeth Ebeltoft's beautiful home on South Washington street presented a beautiful Christmas scene within, her rooms being artistically and exquisitely decorated with ropes of Christmas greenery, holly, and potted bloom plants on Friday afternoon, when she was the gracious hostess to the Ishpeming club. The members were out in full force despite the inclement weather and a most enjoyable afternoon was spent. The program was most interesting and the papers were carefully and delightfully prepared. After papers were laid aside Miss Ebeltoft assisted by her mother, served the most delicious refreshments the Christmas idea being carried out perfectly in these delectable dainties.

Mesdames Blanton and Lineberger Joint Hostesses.

One of the loveliest of the early Christmas parties was the beautiful tea given Friday afternoon by Mesdames George Blanton and J. D. Lineberger at the former's handsome home on West Marion street. Mrs. Blanton decorated her reception rooms very attractively with a color motif of red and green the Christmas colors; holly and poinsettias being used in charming effect. Mrs. J. F. Jenkins and Mrs. S. R. Riley received at the door and Mrs. Clyde E. Hoey and Mrs. O. M. Gardner received in the drawing room. Mrs. Jenkins wore a beautiful orchid gown and Mrs. Riley black satin beaded in roses. Mrs. Hoey wore old blue velvet brocaded in roses and silver. In the receiving line were Mrs. Blanton in charming gown of powder blue brocaded velvet, fur and silver trimmed, Mrs. Lineberger was beautiful in red velvet. Five charming matrons from Gaffney, S. C., were guests of honor. They were Mesdames Ledbetter in black satin and lace, R. S. Lipscomb in black and white chiffon, T. B. Butler in black chenille, Charles Hames black crepe back satin and lace and Mrs. Louis Wood brown satin.

Inviting the guests into the dining room were Mesdames Carl Thompson in black beaded satin, green trimming and Mrs. Odus Mull in brocaded broche and satin. Receiving in the sun parlor were Mrs. Jap Suttle in black georgette beaded in old blue and Mrs. Paul Webb in tan beaded georgette fur trimmed. In the dining room were Mrs. F. Sherrill in black satin and Mrs. A. W. McMurry in electric blue chiffon, were seated pouring tea. The tea table was beautifully appointed having for its center piece a handsome silver basket with poinsettias and holly. Numerous red candles burned in silver candlesticks. Tea was served with delicious salad, sandwiches, cheese straws, nuts and mints. Assisting in the dining room were Mrs. Walter Fannin in blue velvet broche, Miss Amos Willis in black georgette, Miss Agnes McBrayer in rust georgette beaded in turquoise blue, Miss Mary Harris in flame chiffon and Mrs. Tom Moore in biscuit chiffon beaded trimmings. The reception hours were from 4 to 4:30 o'clock and in spite of the very inclement weather a large number were entertained.

Harvey Jetton Jr., Marries in Charlotte.

The man yShelby friends of Harvey W. Jetton, jr., son of former Chief of Police H. W. Jetton of the town of Shelby will be interested in the announcement of his wedding which took place Friday evening at 7 o'clock in the home of Mr. J. J. Austin, 1321 E. Fourth St., Charlotte, Rev. C. B. Mashburn officiating.

The bride was lovely in a brown ensemble suit, mid-season hat and accessories to match. She wore a corsage bouquet of bride's roses and swansonia.
The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Sallie Gill Wilson, and was graduated from East Carolina college in 1922 and since that time has been teaching in the Charlotte schools. She has made many friends with the faculty and student body. She is a young woman of bright intellect and attractive, winning personality.

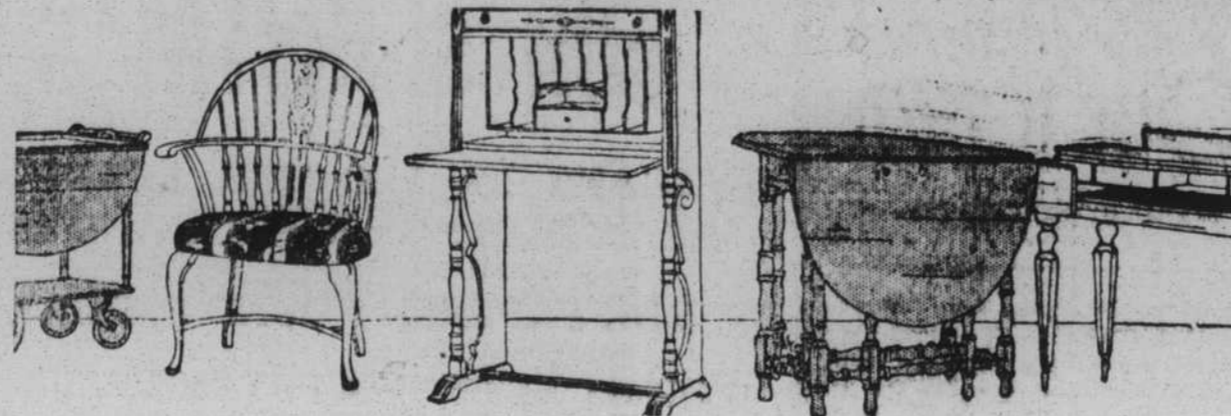

Mr. Jetton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Jetton of Lincoln. He is a young man of pleasing personality and sterling character and holds a responsible position with Belk Brothers in Charlotte.

Mr. and Mrs. Jetton left immediately after the ceremony for northern points.

Mitchell-Cross Wedding Brilliant Church Affair

With a beautiful setting and witnessed by a large assemblage of relatives and friends, the marriage of Miss Adele Dolores Cross and Mr. Burton Forrest Mitchell was brilliantly solemnized at six o'clock Wednesday evening at Trinity church. The service of the Episcopal church was said by Rev. George O. Watts. The decorations were elaborate, a profusion of artistically arranged smilax, white chrysanthemums and burning candles producing a lovely effect. The bride's grandmother Mrs. J. L. Slaydon, Mrs. Herbert Nichols and Mrs. Henry M. Lupton rendered the nuptial music, the following program being given:
Organ Overture from Lohengrin by Mrs. Lupton. Violin—Romance by Mrs. Nichols. Voice—"All For You," "O, Perfect Love" by Mrs. Slaydon. Violin Obligato by Mrs. Nichols. Organ "Pomp and Circumstance" Reeds Willows by Mrs. Lupton. Voice—"Untill" by Mrs. Slaydon.

During the ceremony Mrs. Lupton and Mrs. Nichols played "O Perfect Love" from the Episcopalian hymnbook. To the strains of the time-honored wedding march by Mendelssohn, the bridal party led by the ushers, Messrs Claydon Cross, William Marry, Nathaniel Gerhart, Prim Rodriguez, John and George Conroy, advanced to the altar. The maids and grooms entered alternately. The gowns worn by them and the matron of honor were fashioned alike and were of the rainbows colors. Panna velvet was the material used, with gold cloth trimming. The bodice was cut V-shaped outlined with rhinestones, and flower of contrasting color adorned the right shoulder. The skirt was draped at the waist with an ornament an insert of gold cloth and a puffing of the same material around the hem added charm to the costume. The flowers were arm bouquets of yellow specimen chrysanthemums tied with gold ribbon and tulle and each girl wore in her hair a wreath of gold leaves and flowers. Miss Sadie Hurst of Montgomery, Ala., and Miss Kathryn Starling of Hopkinsville were in gold and Miss Mary Yancy Port and Miss Finley Elder in orchid. The groomsmen were Farmers of Stanly County are har-vesting 120 bushels and over of les-nedza seed per acre this fall. One farmer with a mowing machine and seed pan attached harvested 75 bush-els in less than 20 hours a day was offered 55 per bushel for all that he would not need. This man just went out and found $27.75, states farm agent O. H. Philp.
