Twenty-Nine Years Ago

From The Cleveland Star of December 5, 1895

Ewers-Borders Marriage.

"Mr. Thomas S. Ewers, a popular drummer of Lynchburg, Va., was quietly married to Miss Mamie Borders, a charming and accomplished young lady of this place, Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock, at the residence of the bride, Rev. Dr. Huffman performing the ceremony in his usual graceful style. The bride was dressed in a beautiful brown travelling suit.
The little Brown girls, Misses Grace and Ethel, dressed in white silk, preceded the bride and groom, carrying orange blossoms. The wedding march was played by Mrs. W. B. Nix. Only close relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties were present."

Desperado Dies.

"Garland Goode, the desperado who was shot at Gaffney City sometime ago, died in the state penitentiary at Columbia last week and was brought to his former home in Rutherford county and was buried near Island Ford Friday. Goode was a desperate character and has been a terror to the people of Rutherford county and a part of South Carolina."

Remember Their Picture?

"The Cleveland Guards, Shelby's crack military company, are preparing for a big time during the holidays. On the afternoon of December 25th, they will have a target shooting at some point in the suburbs of the town, and valuable and beautiful prizes will be awarded the first, second and third best shots in the company. At night of the same day they will give an oyster supper for the benefit of the company, and oysters of the fine-est quality to be had, and other refreshments also will be served. During the evening the Guards will give a prize drill in the supper hall. Everybody invited to be present."

On the Go—Long Ago.

"Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Beattie are visiting friends at Gaffney this week."
"Mr. R. M. Gidney went to Gaffney City last Friday on a business trip."
"Miss Carrie Haynes of Henrietta was visiting Miss Priscilla Wray Sunday."
"Engineer Phelps, (Yankee) of the O. R. and C. railroad, was in town Tuesday."
"Mr. T. M. Holland of Mooresboro called in Monday and subscribed to this sheet."

"Miss Belle Jolly (the belle of Grassie Pond, S. C.) is visiting friends and relatives in Shelby."
"Mr. Thomas A. Stanley of Fallston, the leading merchant of that section, was here Monday."

"Mr. W. A. Goode, a handsome young man of Waco, was here Thursday giving Day and gave The Star a pleasant call."

"Masters Robert and Hugh Miller of the D. and D. school of Morganton, stopped over here a few days on their return from the Atlanta exposition."

"Messrs. J. Z. Falls, Jr., and wife, Sam Warlick and wife and Joe Kistler and wife, from the vicinity of Bel-wood left Monday for the Atlanta exposition via the Seaboard Air Line."

"Mrs. Fannie McCall of Denver, Lincoln county, who has been here visiting her mother, Mrs. D. C. Webb, returned to her home Tuesday, accompanied by her sister, Miss Kate Webb."

"Mr. G. W. Irvin and his men who have been here about three weeks with their barrows, left Tuesday for Statesville. Mrs. Irvin and Mrs. Robbins have won many friends during their brief stay in Shelby."

Little Reminders.

Belmont Cotton Mills will pay 14 cents for cotton seed. See notice in an other column.

Some of the bloods of Shelby played a match game of baseball last Thursday, Thanksgiving day.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Stamey of Fallston gave a Thanksgiving dinner Thursday to a number of friends.

The managers of the Shelby Poultry show are working hard to make it a success and from present indications it is going to be one of the fine-est shows ever held in the South. Are you coming?

Work on the new Baptist church at Cherryville is progressing finely. The walls are all up, the weatherboarding is about completed and it will be finished before Christmas ready for occupancy.

S. L. Gillespie of the Shelby Music store, has some fine pianos in stock and invites the music loving people and all the ladies of Shelby to call and see the genuine silver toned Mathushek piano. He also has a nice line of organs, and other musical instruments and will be pleased to show them to any one desiring to examine them."

To Another Church.

"Rev. W. P. McCorkle, pastor of the Presbyterian church here has received a call to the church at Graham.
This is a promotion for Rev. McCorkle and one he justly deserves. While the church at Graham is not very strong numerically, it is a rich church and pays a handsome salary. Rev. Mc-Corkle will, we learn, accept the call.
The people of Shelby regret to part with Mr. McCorkle, who has done such efficient and telling work here. The people of Graham will find Mr. Mc-Corkle to be a man of learning, pleasing in address and polished in manners."

Baptist Convention.

"The Baptist State convention met in Greensboro today. Revs. Huffman, Webb, Irvin, Limerick, Hawkins, Hamrick and other ministers of that denomination left Wednesday evening to attend the convention. E. Yates Webb, esq., is also attending. The convention this year is larger than before and there will doubtless be a larger attendance than at any time in the past. The genial Dr. Huffman has kindly consented to give The Star readers a synopsis of the work of the convention in our next issue."

"Capital Good."

"The board of county commissioners—I. W. Garrett, A. B. Peeler and W. A. Martin—met Monday and transacted the routine business for the county. There was nothing of special interest. A school complaint was heard that occupied a great deal of time. Dr.
O. P. Gardner was elected chairman of the board of health for another year. This is a capital good selection."

Another Marriage.

"Mr. Chevis L. Byers was married Tuesday night to Miss Georgia Hardin, daughter of Mr. W. K. Hardin, of Patterson Springs. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's father, by Rev. R. L. Owenbey in the presence of a large number of friends. The Star joins the many friends of the popular and happy couple in wishing for them a long life of usefulness."

Marries in Virginia.

"Mr. D. W. Washburn, one of Cleveland county's popular young men who has been in Virginia for several years, was married in that state, at Starmont, Monday, November 25, to Miss Fannie Katie Bristow, a charming young lady of that place. The happy couple went to the Atlanta exposition on a bridal tour and arrived home Saturday. The groom's legion of friends here congratulate him upon winning such a valuable prize, and all wish them every happiness."

"Bells Again"

"Mr. Chas. Harmon, an industrious farmer, was married Wednesday night to Miss Mary Jane Gamble, the charming daughter of Mr. A. J. Gamble, Dr.

Ben F. Dixon performing the ceremony. The Star wishes the newly married every happiness possible."

Gidney's School.

"Mr. R. M. Gidney opened his school at Patterson Springs Monday. Mr.
Gidney is one of Cleveland's best teachers and the people of Patterson Springs are to be congratulated upon securing his services."

"Hold Her Newt."

"Mr. J. L. Wray's horse was kicked to death last Wednesday night by a mule. The mule was in an adjoining stall but kicked down the partition and then kicked the horse in the side killing it almost instantly."

What a queer world. We all kick about income taxes but we all envy the man who is in the big income tax paying class.

We are always happy on New Year's because we know there will be no more Christmas shopping for about 12 months.

Scientists are searching for a gasoline substitute. Better still would be a substitute for the thing that consumes the most of it.

Trotsky's physician has advised him to go to a warmer climate and plenty of people have been wishing he was there for some time.

The ocean is between 70 and 100 million years old. It is old enough, no doubt, to have sense enough not to try to drown its troubles.

Some men have fine libraries because they love good books and others have large libraries because they like good looking book agents.

DEAR READER FRIENDS:

And this is nineteen-twenty-five!

And we are all wondering what kind of a year it will be.

Well, we are going to be among those who try to make it a good year. We are going to meet opportunity more than half-way.
We are going to try to make it the best year we have ever had. By this we do not mean only that we shall try to make it the best year in the matter of profits from business, but also the best year of service this bank has ever rendered. We want it to be a good year for our home town, our home county and our entire section.

We re-dedicate our institution to service.

We have made it strong enough to serve the largest business, humble enough to receive and appreciate the smallest business, kindly enough to make the most timid boy feel at home while transacting business here, conservative enough to make all men's money safe when entrusted to us.

If you are not a customer of this bank we invite you to place your business with us at the beginning of the new year. We offer you the kind of friendship and banking service that stands by you thru sunshine and storm.

Yours very truly,

— Paper-Hanging —

It's a known fact throughout this section with most people that painting, room decorating and papering done by

WM. HENRY QUEEN

Looks better, lasts longer. Ask those for whom I have painted.
There is a secret to the beauty and lasting part of painting. The kind of paint and the way its mixed with the right painter is the whole secret of a satisfactory job of painting. When you spend your money for painting you want your money's worth and not waste money on poor painting and work. I can furnish high class references from different parts of western N.
C., from parties I have painted for that I am honest and will give a square deal. I keep good workmen and try not to bother the people I am painting for no more than I can possibly help. Do not mess nor tear up around a house while painting. You may rest easy if you turn your painting over to me. May cost a little more for me to do your painting but its worth more than it costs. I am a new painter in Shelby, recently moved here from Morganton but I am no stranger here. Just moved to be more in the center of my territory. I do not reach all work I am asked to do but will do my best this year to reach all work I can. Don't be afraid to write me about your painting. Don't cost anything even if we don't trade.

Anything in the painting line done.
