

SOCIETY

All items intended for this department must be telephoned or sent in to the Society Editor before 11 a. m., the day before publication. All news items of interest to women are welcomed.

Music Club Meeting. The Cecelia Music club is meeting this Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 at the home of Mrs. Ruth Thompson.

Chicago Club Meets. The Chicago Club will meet with Mrs. O. M. Mull Friday afternoon. The hour is 3:30 o'clock.

Another Thought. Refuse to be gloomy. Cheer up! Get your mind off your troubles. Lead a natural life and walk on the sunny side of the street.

Dinner Guests Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Toms had as their dinner guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. John Dover, Miss Katherine Dover and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dover.

Old Sol Cheers. After the rain of the past week when the sun showed his face last week he cheered many people. Every body began to feel better even the "flu" patients and of course the women of Shelby were seen on the streets once more.

Spend the Day Party. Mrs. J. S. Dorton had as her guests to spend the day with her Thursday, Mrs. A. Biggerstaff and Mrs. Johnson, Miss Robbie Biggerstaff and Misses Nell and Margaret Young of Forest City.

Miss Mary Ford Elam Charming Young Hostess. Miss Mary Ford Elam was a charming hostess to the younger set on Thursday evening. After the assembling of the guests, games and music will away the happy hours. Later Miss Elam assisted by her mother, Mrs. Elam served the most tempting refreshments.

Miss Mary Griffin Hostess. Miss Mary Griffin always an ideal hostess entertained informally and delightfully on Friday evening with three tables of bridge. It was a neighborhood affair and there young men and women after the games and delicious refreshments motored out to Cleveland Springs and had music and dancing to complete a happy evening.

Informal Dance at Cleveland Springs Hotel. Cleveland Springs looked like the "good old summer time" on Saturday evening when quite a number of Shelby's young social set motored out and enjoyed a most informal dance. Quite a number of guests at the hotel were also dancing, making a brilliant scene with the beautifully dressed young women and fascinating music played by Miss Mary Griffin, Mrs. Boshamer, Mr. Buchanan and I. C. Griffin jr.

The Perfect Guest. She answered by return post. She invited her host. She caught the train she said she would. And chatted at stations as she should. She brought a small and lightish box. And keys belonging to the locks. Food rich and rare she did not beg. But ate the boiled and scrambled egg. When offered lukewarm tea she drank it. And did not crave an extra blanket. Nor extra pillow for her head. She seemed to like the spare room bed. She brought her own self-filling pen. And always went to bed at ten. She left no little things behind. But stories new and gossip kind.

Mrs. C. B. McBrayer Entertains Bridge Club. Cleveland Springs was the lovely setting and Mrs. C. B. McBrayer was the charming hostess to the South Washington Bridge club on Saturday afternoon. The weather was perfect and all the members motored out in the beautiful sunshine to this popular place. Mrs. McBrayer had her tables arranged in the attractive lobby and the places were found by little place cards in the shapes of hearts, spades, diamonds and clubs. The table covers were embroidered in these designs and the refreshments molded also in this charming way carrying out the card scheme. Many snappy rubbers were played and a number of visitors added to the pleasure of the afternoon. A delicious tea was served at five o'clock consisting of salads and sweets.

Miss Keller Entertains Night Division. One of the loveliest club meetings of the season was on Thursday evening when Miss Keller entertained the Night Division of the Woman's club at the home of Miss Elizabeth Webb. Miss Keller chose for her color scheme red and green and the rooms were beautiful with potted ferns, red flowers and red candles in silver holders. When the guest had assembled Miss Keller had arranged a most delightful "take off" on an intelligence test which was much enjoyed by the members. Original Valentines were given to the members applicable to themselves. The refreshments which were delicious, carried out the red and green color scheme. The program was most entertaining and Misses Elizabeth Roberts, Jessie Hamrick and Mrs. Jessie Ramsour gave splendid papers on James Lane Allen, John Fox jr. and Mrs. Burton Harrison.

Afternoon Division No. 2 Will Sell Tickets. The Afternoon Division No. 2 of the Woman's club will start the sale of tickets of "He Who Gets Flapped," featuring Lon Chaney and an all star cast playing at the Princess theater Feb. 5th, afternoon and evening. This is one of the finest pictures ever shown in Shelby. There is a big romance, drama, tragedy and circus life and it will delight the children as well as grown ups. Secure tickets now from any member of the club. The tickets are 25 cents each.

Miss Bernice Hamrick Charming Hostess. At the Hilliard tea room eight charming young women, composing the Hob Nob club met on Friday afternoon and had as their charming hostess Miss Bernice Hamrick. Not a member was missing and two tables of bridge was enjoyed for two hours. The tables were centered with lovely potted plants and dainty roses and place cards were used. Little roses and place cards were used. Little roses and place cards were used. Little roses and place cards were used.

Miss Frances Jolly Marries. The many friends of Miss Frances Jolly in Shelby and around Bowling Springs where she has a number of relatives will be interested to learn of her marriage on Saturday in Miami, Florida to Mr. S. S. Beam of Cherryville who is engaged during the winter months in vegetable growing. The bride has been making her home in Shelby for the past year since her mother died at her home in Rush Springs, Oklahoma. She is a very pretty and attractive young lady with a host of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Beam will make their home in Florida until June, when they will return to Cherryville.

Mrs. Julius Suttle 20th Century Club Hostess. The 20th Century club was most delightfully entertained by Mrs. Julius Suttle on Friday at her attractive home on East Marion street. The rooms were cosy and beautiful and the sweet fragrance of the potted plants permeated the atmosphere. There was a good attendance and a program instructive and entertaining was rendered by the following women: "Life of Ferdinand Ossendowski," Mrs. Lineberger; "Stories from the Book," Mrs. Reuben McBrayer; "Life on the Plains," Mrs. A. W. McMurry. After the program Mrs. Suttle served an elegant salad and sweet course. Mrs. C. J. Moriarty was a guest of the club.

"Looker On" Writes of Flower Gardens. Now that the Christmas holidays have passed and January is with us, we begin to plan for spring, and think of gardens, and gardening. Do you know you could write a book, and an enormous one too, about flower gardens. The garden is a school of patience. What ever its nature may be, its true beauty is in having grown old. The perfect garden does not exist. "God Almighty first planted a garden." So Bacon began his essay on gardens. Let us not forget the divine origin of gardens. In England, "that precious stone set in the silver sea," no house and grounds are too small but that they afford room for some sort of garden. Few are so poor that they will dispense with one. There is nothing that rewards the laborer more than the sudden magical appearance some fine morning of a burst of blue or scarlet flame out of the cold, brown earth. Something mysteriously lovely happens to one's soul at the sight of such magic; and I doubt if in all history there is a record of a single serious crime having been committed by a gardener, or even a city florist. Gardens were forbidden luxury in the middle ages. Life was only safe within fortified walls. There is an added charm about a garden where stately lilies blow and fill the air with fragrance, yet it is a surprise to note the infrequency with which we meet them. A garden is made not only to look at but to live in. A certain wag has observed that you can't be a good gardener, and a modernist, in religion—So much of the good gardener's time is spent on the knees. I am not so sure that the analogy be sound, but we are sure of the necessity in both garden and garden enjoyment. You simply have to kneel when you weed; but did it ever occur to you that the beauties of vast quantities of flowers cannot be enjoyed standing up or comfortably sitting down? You have to kneel.

CARD OF THANKS. We wish to take this opportunity to thank our friends and neighbors for their many kindnesses during the accident and death of our dear husband, father and grandfather. May God's blessings richly abide with you all is our prayer. Mrs. D. B. Green and Family.

It's a remarkable commentary on civilization when we point with pride to the fact that "only" sixteen persons were lynched in the United States last year.—Boston Transcript. A really practical diary is said to be coming on the market. Only the dates for the first week are printed, and the rest of the sheets are perforated for shaving-papers.—Punch.
