

O. C. Fortenberry Dies In Charlotte

County News. O. C. Fortenberry, age 39 years this and 8 days, died last Friday at 8 o'clock at the Presbyterian hospital in Charlotte, following a long illness of two weeks ago. He was a native of Cleveland county and his life work as a minister of the M. E. church in this section of the state. Four of the churches of this faithful servant of the Lord were Ironton, Lincoln, Moravia and Lowesville circuits of the Methodist church. He was pastor of the Lowesville circuit and his residence was at Lowesville at the time of his death. He is survived by his widow and six children of Lowesville, and his father and other relatives of his native Cleveland county. His body was brought to Ashbury Methodist church, three miles east of Ironton Saturday, where the funeral and burial services were held. The funeral was conducted by Rev. H. H. H. Hickory, formerly president of this district, assisted by W. J. Combs. Ashbury church was crowded to overflow with friends and relatives present to pay a last tribute to the deceased, and a large number of people unable to get within the church gathered around the church. Hundreds of people gathered to take a last look at their friend, a large number of these being from the various congregations he had served. Following the funeral the remains were laid to rest in Ashbury church cemetery.
