Quillen Picks His Best "Aunt Hets"

Charlotte Observer:
"What are your favorite 'Aunt Het' saying for 1924?" Robert Quillen, the author, has been asked by many of the followers of his popular feature. Quillen, in reply, sent in the seven paragraphs quoted below.
"These are my favorites for 1924," says Quillen, "though I must confess I'm rather fond of everything the old dear does."
"Pa's asthma usually gets pretty bad on Sunday evenings, but he don't never wheeze much on lodge nights."
"Most women spends half their lives wonderin' who they'll marry an' the other half wonderin' what to fix for dinner."
"If ever we wreck the jitney and I'm carried unconscious to the hospital, I hope and pray I'll have on my best corset."
"I knowed I dropped that handkerchief on the street yesterday, but I wasn't goin' to stoop over and ground in public."
"That kitchen door is loose on the hinges. It's the one pa slams while I'm finishin' the argument."
"I ain't feelin' sorry for myself, but it's right hard at times to have a truck chassis and a sport model mind."
"About the quickest way to get sophisticated is to lend money to kin folks."
What do you think of his choice?
If only the brakes would get tight when the driver does.—St. Thomas Times-Journal.

—FINAL COUNTY TAX NOTICE—

The time for payment of 1924 County Taxes expires May 1st, 1925. Already there is a penalty of 1 1-2 per cent and the law adds an additional penalty where forced collection is made. Delay is costly to you and unpleasant to me, therefore see me at once. The County Commissioners have instructed me to force collection by May First and after that date I will proceed, as is provided by law, to advertise and sell all property on which the taxes are not paid.

In the past I have given all tax payers all the time allowed by law for payment and have done so this year but on the above mentioned date all taxes must be paid.
