

LITTLE STARS

Birth—Born to Mr. and Mrs. Loy Thompson, last week, a fine daughter, Cornelia Hoke.

Home Coming—Home coming day will be held at Mt. Pleasant church on Briar creek, the first Saturday in August.

At Polkville—There will be an ice cream supper at the Polkville church Saturday night. Proceeds to go for benefit of church. Everybody invited.

Move—Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Sparks of Newport, Tenn., have moved into Mrs. Marion Putnam residence on N. Lafayette street.

Masonic Notice—Cleveland lodge No. 202 will meet in called communication for work in third degree Friday night at 8 o'clock. Brethren and visitors requested to attend.

New Fireman—The city aldermen and mayor have appointed Mr. Joseph Carroll as a member of the city fire department, succeeding Bobby Rudasill, who had been with the department for some time.

Back From Tourney—W. H. Lyle Cleveland Springs professional, and Willis McMurry, amateur, have returned from Linville where they were in the pro-amateur and amateur golf tournaments there last week.

In Hospital—The friends of Mrs. Carey W. Boshamer will regret to hear that she is a patient in the Shelby hospital suffering an attack of typhoid fever. It is thought that the fever was contracted while on a trip in South Carolina.

Presiding Elder Here—Rev. C. S. Kirkpatrick, presiding elder of the Shelby district, was in Shelby Sunday and preached at the evening service at Central Methodist church. Thirty quarterly conference was held immediately after the service.

License—Marriage license has been issued recently to the following couples: Harry L. Anderson and Rhoda S. Miller; DeWitt T. Haynes and Biddle Irvin. Also two colored couples: J. M. Brooks and Mattie J. Cobb; Roosevelt Wood and Gertrude Degree.

New Directory—Manager Earwood of the local telephone exchange was busy yesterday distributing a new telephone directory for the Shelby and Kings Mountain exchanges which are operated by the Piedmont Telephone and Telegraph Co. This is the second issue of the directory this year and is corrected to June 15th.

Ripe Cantaloupes—W. H. Humphries who lives in the Beaver Dam community brought a ripe cantaloupe with him to town Saturday, the first that has been reported this season. Mr. Humphries says his crop is very good this year and that he will have a quantity ready for market this week.

Old Landmark Goes—The Kerr old home place on West Warren street is being torn down. It was purchased some time ago by Mrs. T. H. Lowery of Patterson Springs from Mr. Lee Kerr. This is one of the oldest homes in Cleveland county and was so dilapidated that it has not been occupied for some time. No plans to rebuild have been made as yet.

Open on Fourth—Since the Fourth of July comes on Saturday this year and there is no celebration planned for Shelby, the local merchants will not close but keep one for business. Saturday is the main trading day in Shelby and the merchants feel they could not afford to miss a Saturday's business. The postoffices will observe the holiday hours and mail carriers will not make their usual trips.

Mr. McFarland Coming—Mr. Earl McFarland, native of Shelby is expected to arrive this week from Boston, Mass., where he is on a business trip. Mr. McFarland holds a high position with the United Fruit company, the largest growers and shippers of bananas, and other tropical fruits in the world. He lives in Panama where he married the daughter of a former governor. Mr. McFarland will visit his sisters, Mrs. T. J. Babington and Mrs. R. L. Armour.

Grover Car Runs Over Girl At Gastonia

Young Grover Garage Man Under Bond There, But Witnesses Say Accident Was Unavoidable.

Lizzie Garren, age 11, of West Gastonia, whose parents are employees of the Gray Manufacturing company, was run over by a Ford touring car driven by R. P. Randall jr., well known young garage man of Grover, Thursday at four o'clock on the Bessemer City-Gastonia highway near West Franklin avenue, says a Gastonia dispatch.

Randall is under a $1,000 bond, signed by his father, R. P. Randall, sr., and his brother, E. D. Randall, of Grover. He will appear for a hearing before Squire B. Capps.

Witnesses named in the warrant charging the defendant with assault and battery include John C. Rhyme, Beatrice Haney, Mrs. Press Cobb, Mrs. May Gibson, Gladys Cobb and Officers O. F. Adorholt and A. B. Hord.

Mr. Randall damaged his car considerably in an attempt to dodge the child as she crossed the highway. It was stated by one witness. The child was rushed to the City hospital. Bruises and cuts were suffered about the head and breast. She was later taken home.

Witnesses state that the accident was unavoidable.

THEATRES

"The Birth of a Nation" the immortal Southern-American story written by Tom Dixon, son of Shelby, and filmed by D. W. Griffith, seer of the screen, will be on Tuesday at Webb theatre, completing atwo-day run. Many people are seeing the picture not only because the gripping story it tells never grows old, but because it is Dixon's masterpiece—a vivid tale, near real, that makes a nation's heart beat faster.

Wednesday, the Webbs will show a powerful drama with a new and unusual love thread—"Another Man's Wife." Some big stars are in the film and the background for the colorful romance is itself colorful.

Thursday, something unique comes to Webb theatre—"The King of Wild Horses," the big five-reel Pathe-picture produced by Hal Roach. Untamed and unconquered by man or beast this king of horses is the center of a sensational, amazing story.

You lovers of the Speedway have a treat Tuesday at the Princess theatre for the feature that day is Richard Talmadge in "The Speed King," and it's different even for Dick. Yes, he was the speed king over here and thrilled Americans with his demon, daredevil spirit, but he resembled a Balkan king and the story shifts to wars, princesses and such like.

On Wednesday, the Princess will present a thrilling Saturday Evening Post story—"There's Millions in It."—and the picture's easily worth the price they say, packed with thrills and oddities.

Elinor Glynn is wise and witty—that is to the intimate secrets of love and being loved. Sure one of her stories, "Man and Maid," with all the dainty kick of sex will be on at the Princess Thursday. It's the daring Elinor's tale of the airraid over wartime Paris—the romance of a millionaire and his secretary.
