

GARDNER REMAINS STATE'S FAVORITE

Gastonia Gazette Terms Framed-up Opposition "a Boomerang." Will Win Nomination in 1928.

Gastonia Gazette. If the press agent story in Tuesday's morning papers relative to the 1928 gubernatorial race was expected to hurt Max Gardner's chances it has had the opposite effect.

For instance, note what The Hickory Record says:

"There are many men who support Max Gardner when he ran on Freedom's ticket, but who had planned to fight him as the machine candidate. However, if Gardner is going to be kicked aside by the Simmons-Watts roller he will gain in popularity from those who are sickened unto death at the practice of having governors appointed."

Max Gardner will win the nomination and the election in 1928 if he wants it. Another newspaper, the Charlotte News, takes this position: "Mr. Gardner's conduct and attitude during the Administration of Mr Morrison who won the gubernatorial honors over him in 1920 by the narrowest sort of a margin and after one of the most brilliant campaigns ever conducted in the state, his readiness to serve the party at all times and under all circumstances, the absence of any pouting and sulking when he was licked, the willingness he displayed during the last campaign in going all over the state for the cause of the part when some others were doing absolutely nothing to aid Mr. McLean, the continued and increasing personal popularity of the Shelby man, the fact that some of the ablest and most influential friends of Senator Simmons are the same sort of friends of Mr. Gardner—a whole array of reasons that might be recited will make Mr. Gardner the outstanding favorite for the governorship of 1928 in this event that he wants it, and this newspaper is assured that he is not going to turn his back upon it unless something better falls his way in the meantime."

Lady Says Her Back "Hurt Night and Day"—Least Noise Upset Her. Better After Taking Cardui.

Winfield, Texas.—"My back hurt night and day," says Mrs. C. L. Eason, of R. F. D. 1, this place. "I ached and ached until I could hardly go. I felt weak and did not feel like doing anything. My work was a great burden to me. I just hated to do up the dishes, even. I was no account and extremely nervous. My mother had taken Cardui and she brought it would do me good. So she gave me to take it. My husband got me a bottle and I began on it. I began to improve at once. It was such a help that I continued it until after the baby's birth. I took eight bottles and I can certainly say that it helped me. It is a fine tonic. It built me up and seemed to strengthen me. I grew less nervous and began to sleep better. I can certainly recommend Cardui to expectant mothers, for to me it was a wonderful help. . . . In every way I felt better after taking it and I think it is a splendid medicine. Cardui is purely vegetable, and contains no harmful drugs. For sale everywhere. NC-162

J. D. Falls Greeted Friends From Home At Newark, N. J.

J. D. Falls, native of Cleveland county now living at 54 C. James St., Newark, N. J. has written the following to The Cleveland Star:

On Thursday July 18th at 5:30 p. m. a Cleveland county car owned by C. C. Falls nosed into James St. and halted at my door, No. 54 C. The rugged and stalwart Mr. J. Frank Jenkins, Mr. Hadley, C. C. Falls, Miss Willie Mae Cline and Miss Vick Boone, one of Fallston's accomplished and efficient teachers alighted from the car. Soon we had them seated around the dining table only to spend a few moments in sadness and sorrow. Yet they seemed submissive to their fate.

They took in the sights in these parts such as, visiting the little village of New York City, going to the top of the Woolworth building, 790 feet high where 14,000 people go in and out every day. Viewing the aquarium where all kinds of fish are to be seen through glass in water, going aboard the steamer Majestic and piloted through its beautiful compartments, dining rooms, etc., boat rides in New York harbor, riding the sight seeing busses through 5th Ave and up River Side Drive. All of this was quite interesting to our five visitors. They also visited Red Bank, Atlantic Highland, Long Branch, Ashbury Park and Ocean Grove, noted sea shore resorts where beautiful views of the Atlantic were had.

On Friday the 26th of June at 8:30 a. m. they boarded their car and turned southward returning to Falls-ton. Come again folks.

Kisses Get Common and Cheap. (Statesville Daily.)

Brooklyn lady of 18 summers asked $10,000 for a stolen kiss. Hard-hearted and hard-headed jurors fixed the value at six cents. That added insult to injury. By their verdict the jurors said that the kiss was stolen, taken without permission, as the plaintiff alleged, but they assessed the damages at only six cents, which meant that they didn't consider a kiss, or this particular kiss, of material value. Maybe the jurors were moved to that view by the knowledge that kissing is rather common; and sometimes when things become common they become cheap.

WELL ONE DAY IN BED THREE

That Was the Life of Mrs. Hollister Until she Began Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Wyandotte, Michigan.—"After my baby was born, I did not do my own work for six months and could hardly take care of my own baby. I always had a pain in my right side and it was so bad I was getting round shoulders. I would feel well one day and then feel so bad for three or four days that I would be in bed. One Sunday my mother came to see how I was, and she said a friend told her to tell me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. So the next day I got a bottle and before it was half taken I felt relief. After I was well again I went to the doctor and he asked me how I was getting along. I told him I was taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and he said it did not hurt any one to take it. I am always recommending the Vegetable Compound to others and I always have a bottle of it on hand."—Mrs. HENRY HOLLISTER, R. F. D. No. 1, Box 7, Wyandotte, Mich.

The dry conditions prevail in piedmont North Carolina in steadily diminishing spots. All through the mountain sections "timely" rains have fallen and crops in that section carry the dark green color that indicates richness in "stand." The mountain crops are promising tremendous yields. Some of the dry spots in Cleveland, Lincoln and Gaston counties are eliminated by Sunday's showers and the farm prospects were materially improved.
