Beautiful Dinner Party

for Panama Visitors. One of the loveliest events of the week was the beautiful dinner given at Cleveland Springs Hotel on Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Clyde R. Hoey honoring their delightful kinspeople, Mr. and Mrs. Earl McFarland of Panama. The table was centered with a vase of beautiful summer flowers and a delightful and delicious luncheon was served.

Celebration of July Fourth.

A number of young people of Latimore enjoyed a picnic on Saturday. The party first motored to the foot of the mountain near Sunshine. The lively group set out with a vigorous determination to reach the top. After two hours of climbing a delicious lunch was served of which each one ate heartily. The splendid mountain breeze and scenery was thoroughly enjoyed. On the way home a wiener roast at Andrews mill completed the delightful outing. The party was made up of the following: Misses Whoree Calton, Katie Mae Toms, Verdine Bridges, Lillie Blanton, Imogene Wilson, Burnette Hunt, Leila, Maude, Daisy and Hattie Crowder. Messrs. Aubrey Calton, Malcolm Wilson, Forrest Crowder, George Blanton, Colon Harrill and Wilbur Wilson.

Armour, their sister, gave a beautiful family dinner on Friday evening at their attractive home on North Morgan street. The table was beautifully appointed having for its centerpiece a handsome basket of lovely summer flowers in many varieties making a brilliant scene. 'Looker On' Writes of 'The Flag of the United States.' As the Fourth of July has just passed with its decorations of flags, 'The Looker On' was inspired to write something about our own United States flag. Either plain ignorance or lack of thought is responsible for the greater part of the so-called desecration of the flag of the United States. In the circumstances, it would seem as if much of the time spent in denunciation would better be employed in education. Certainly, there ought to be no need of more legislation. The newspapers would do a lot of good if they would set forth occasionally in plain language the correct flag etiquette and at the same time try to get it through the head of the public that, regardless of what is technically right or wrong, the Stars and Stripes is something not to be used too commonly. The abuse of it for purely decorative purposes, which often degenerates into mere advertising, is something appalling. No wrong is intended; nevertheless it is there. And education, rather than legislation, must be counted upon to remedy the evil.

Miss Webb Entertains

For Miss Simmons. At her lovely home on South Washington street on Friday evening Miss Elizabeth Webb was a most gracious hostess to the younger set, honoring her attractive cousin and house guest Miss Mary Foote Simmons, with a beautiful porch party. On the wide and spacious verandas seats and vines welcomed the guests and inside the rooms were prettily decorated with summer flowers. Delightful Victrola music was played and much enjoyed, also progressive conversation. All during the hours cooling punch was served and at the closing of the evening elegant ices, cakes and sweets were served, and a most enjoyable evening was spent by these happy young people. About 28 were present.

Mr. Burton Mitchell

Charming Hostess. At the attractive home of Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Mitchell on South Washington street, their daughter-in-law Mrs. Burton Mitchell of Mt. Holly, was a most gracious hostess at a delightful bridge party on Saturday morning celebrating the glorious '4th of July.' The charming porch, wide and spacious, was a setting of beauty with its potted plants, cut flowers, opening baskets, swings, and comfortable seats. The tables were most attractive with their little crystal vases of flowers, red, white and blue; red craniums, and blue and white larkspur. The score and place cards were so patriotic, with the Revolutionary soldier and flag, both most appropriate for the day. Four tables of bridges was played during the morning and such enjoyed. At the conclusion of the games it was found that Mrs. Tom Moore had highest score, and she received a beautiful vase. In celebration of Miss Emma Frick's birthday, she was presented with a beautiful handkerchief. The gifts were tied with red, white and blue ribbons. A delicious luncheon was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. W. F. Mitchell, Miss Margaret Morgan, and Miss Burtie Gettys. The guests present were: Miss Emma Frick, Miss Virginia Shepherd of Cincinnati, Misses Margaret Morgan, Elizabeth Ebeltoft, Mrs. Frank Love of Lincoln; Mrs. Willis McMurtry; Mrs. John Schenck jr.; Mrs. Jean Schenck, Mrs. Riley, Mrs. Flay Hoey, Mrs. Charles Williams, Miss Elizabeth Webb, Mrs. Oliver Anthony, Mrs. Tom Moore and Mrs. Harry Woodson.

Fourth of July Well Attended.

Quite a number of out-of-town guests motored to Cleveland Springs hotel for the Fourth and attended the dance that night. Many dinner parties were given and quite a number of Shelby people were guests for dinner and lunch. Many out of town people remained over the week end.

Flower Girl In Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McDowell and little daughter Harriett returned Wednesday from Greensboro where they attended the wedding of Mr. McDowell's sister, Miss Dorothy McDowell. Little Harriett was one of the beautiful flower girls in the wedding.

Miss Margaret Vanstony Celebrates Birthday.

Miss Margaret Vanstony was a charming young hostess last week celebrating her birthday with a beautiful dinner party at Cleveland Springs hotel. The hostess and young guests made lovely picture seated around a charmingly appointed table decorated with beautiful summer flowers, pretty place cards and dainty little favors. A delicious course dinner was served, and a very happy time spent. Miss Vanstony received many useful and beautiful presents from her friends.

Mr. Forrest Eskridge Delightful Host.

Mr. Forrest Eskridge was a delightful host on Sunday evening at Cleveland Springs with a lovely dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Earl C. McFarland of Panama, being the charming honorees. The table was beautifully appointed, a large and attractive basket of beautiful summer flowers centered the table and seated around it were Mr. and Mrs. McFarland, Mr. Eskridge, Miss Ora Eskridge, Mr. Charles C. Blanton, Mrs. S. R. Riley and Mr. Herman Gudger of Asheville.

THEATRES

The flirtatious, audacious, vivacious Pola Negri will be at the Princess Tuesday in "The Charmer," and when has Pola with those eyes failed to charm. It's Pola livelier than ever and when she dances the fandango men's hearts go whang-o. The picture's more dazzling and colorful than the rainbow, they say. Wednesday, "That Wild West," a stirring story of the old west, the one you read about, is the bill at the Princess with a two-reel fun-maker additional. "The Sporting Venus" by Marshal Neilaan is the go Thursday. He was young and she beautiful. She could swim, ride and love and he was—well, a man.

"Baby Peggy," a classic that has thrilled America ever and over comes to Shelby Tuesday on the screen at Webb theatre. Of the sea, men, and women and love it tells, but throughout is that cheerful child face, "Baby Peggy." It's a real treat. Then Wednesday is "The Mirage" with Florence Vidor. The small town belle that singed her beautiful wings on the bright lights of Broadway. A screen story you'll like. For modern husbands and wives there's a fine picture at Webb's for Thursday—"When A Girl Loves." A thrilling story of shackled lives; a big romance of today.

Charge Negro With Entering Homes

Hunt Suspected Of Store Breaking In Addition To Robbing Many Houses Here And Elsewhere.

In Recorder's court Monday morning John Hunt, negro, was bound over to Superior court under bonds totalling $1,200 for breaking and entering four negro homes here last week. Hunt plead not guilty, but the evidence according to the court was sufficient to hold him for court.

According to the charges Hunt has entered and robbed at least four homes of colored people here and possibly several more. The homes entered were those of Sallie Edwards, Ed Price, Lee Wright and Will Dawkins. He was caught in the Edwards home, witnesses said, Saturday morning but made his getaway. Saturday night he was arrested in a colored area by Officer Bob Kondrick, who found a .38 calibre Spanish gun on the negro's person. A search of his suitcase revealed many of the missing articles, which included razors, pistols, knives, fountain pens, watches, gold bar pins, money, cuff links, shaving cups and other articles. Hunt, who says he is from Norfolk although he is a native of this county, declared he had purchased the articles and denied knowing anything about the series of robberies over Friday and Saturday. In the most of the cases, it is said, the homes were entered during the day. Officers suspect the negro of being guilty of store breaking at Charlotte and may connect him up with other robberies of recent months. It is not thought likely that he will be able to give bond.

AMERICA'S BEAUTY BILL IS $5,000,000 PER DAY

Women are spending more than $5,000,000 daily for beautification purposes, which is nearly $2,000,000,000 a year, according to Dr. Nellie Buchanan Cooper. "This tremendous beauty bill of America is believed to be attributable to woman's entrance into the business world," Dr. Cooper said. "A pleasing appearance gives any woman more self confidence, which is a big asset in the business world."

Urges Grandpa To Pass—Wreck Follows

The little six year old son of Roscoe Lutz of the Paragon Furniture was innocently responsible for an automobile wreck on the Fallston road Sunday afternoon which resulted in an injury to his great-grandmother Mrs. Hoyle and the smash-up of two cars belonging to his grandfather, J. P. Austell, and to his father, Roscoe Lutz. The Lutz and Austell families were returning from a visit to Fallston. The Lutz child riding in the rear car with his grandfather urged him to pass the "d-dy" and the grandfather undertook to do as he suggested. He passed the Lutz car but struck a sand bar and took the ditch. Mr. Lutz's car was following so close behind that he collided with the Austell car and both were damaged. Mrs. Hoyle, riding in the Lutz car was thrown out and bruised.

Will we continue to do so? What will our country be a half century hence? What of the glory of Greece and Rome? Why?

The Lord's talk to Moses on Sinai regarding the observation of the Sabbath was read by Rev. Mr. Stanford from Exodus as was other mention of God's order for reverence of the 7th day, "which ye shall keep therefore; for it is Holy unto you. Every one that defileth it shall surely be put to death; for whosoever doeth any work therein, that soul shall be cut off from among his people. Six days may work be done; but in the seventh is the Sabbath of rest, holy to the Lord—Wherefore the children of Israel shall keep the Sabbath, to observe the Sabbath through their generations, for a perpetual covenant. It is a sign between me and the children of Israel forever." The sermon created a profound impression with the congregation, and with its sincerity carried a telling effect. By many it was considered one of the most open discussions of the manna to the church and Christian religion ever heard in Shelby.

CARPENTERS WALLED HIS AUTOMOBILE IN STORE

Danville, Va., July 3.—The solution to the problem of engineering that will enable him to remove his automobile from the storehouse in which it was inadvertently walled up was being sought here today by John Massey, of Yanceyville.

When rearranging partitions and remodeling the exterior of the building, carpenters and bricklayers failed to realize that no means of egress for Massey's automobile was left.

The owner will now have to tear down a portion of the wall or devise means of lifting the car through the roof.

800 Bear Gifts To Orphanage

Kings Mountain Herald. The Baptist excursion to Thomasville Baptist orphanage last Wednesday was grand success from every angle. Over 800 people from this section went in a body and spent six hours on the grounds, and carried gifts amounting to around $400.00.

The special excursion train operated by the Southern and supervised by Rev. C. J. Black, pastor of the First Baptist church, pulled out of the station here Wednesday at 7 o'clock laden with nearly 700 people from the town and county all bent on seeing the North Carolina Baptist home for their orphan children at Thomasville. The rain of the early morning may have kept a good many at home but the ten cars were pretty well loaded. Stops were made at Bessemer City, Gastonia, Lowell, Cramerton and Belmont and a few taken on at these points. In all there were 782 having tickets, 17 deadheads, and lots of pretty little babies who needed no tickets. Two automobile loads went through the country. All told the excursion crowds numbered considerably over 800. Others coming down from High Point and other places swelled the crowds to larger proportions.
