

LITTLE STARS

Hail at Toluca—Hail did a considerable amount of damage in the Toluca section Saturday afternoon. In New Home—Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Roberts have moved into their new home, a pretty Dutch colonial bungalow on the Cleveland Springs road. New Electric Sign—The La Marr shop has received and will erect a handsome electric sign of large proportions, thus adding to the illumination of the business section. A Duke Jones—The Star force is indebted to Mr. A. B. McSwain of No. 1 township for a luscious "Duke Jones" watermelon which he brought us Saturday. Everyone in the office will testify that the Duke Jones is a delicious variety. Birthday Dinner—There will be a birthday dinner given August 2nd at the home of Mrs. H. A. Thrift in honor of her mother, Mrs. M. Borders of Charlotte. Everybody is cordially invited to come and bring well filled baskets. In Hospital—The many friends of Mr. Marshall McBrayer, popular Shelby travelling man, will regret to learn that he is a patient in the Shelby hospital, being taken there last when he became ill uptown. His condition now, however, appears to be favorable. Back from Camp—Mr. Fred Logan, son of Sheriff and Mrs. Hugh A. Logan, returned last week from Camp McClelland, Ala., where he has been taking the six weeks training for reserve officers. Mr. Logan was last year sergeant-major in the R. O. T. C. unit at State college. Undergoing Treatment—Clyde Hoey, Jr., who for a week has been undergoing treatment at Johns Hopkins hospital has returned to Shelby and will undergo about two months treatment here before going to Schenectady, N. Y., where he will accept a position with the General Electric company. At Pleasant Grove—Rev. G. P. Abernethy is conducting a revival this week at Pleasant Grove church, it is announced, with services at 10 in the morning and 8 in the evening. Assisting him in the personal work is Mr. W. Deaton, Wake Forest student. Rev. Mr. Abernethy on Sunday closed a very successful revival at Sandy Plains. During the meeting there were 7 additions to the church, eight by letter and 39 by baptism. Ervin Assists—Attorney S. J. Ervin, Jr., of Morganton, one of the candidates for solicitor in this district upon the retirement of Solicitor Huffman, has been employed to assist in the defense of Charlie Abrams, negro, charged with the murder of Will Carpenter. Attorneys already employed by the defense are P. Cleveland Gardner and O. Max Gardner. Mr. Ervin, one of Morganton's leading attorneys and a member of one of Burke's outstanding families, was educated at the State University and Harvard and will make a strong bid for the solicitorship through both his ability as an attorney and his personal popularity. To Convention—Around 100 Cleveland county farmers with County Agent Lawrence are expected to leave Shelby Tuesday for Raleigh to attend the State Farmers Convention of which O. Max Gardner is president. Feature of the local delegation's trip is that every car will carry a sign of some nature advertising the farm leadership of Cleveland. The signs were furnished by the First National bank and some of them read as follows: "Cleveland Produces 40,000 Bales of Cotton"; "Cleveland is the Best Electrically Lighted County in America"; "Cleveland, The Poultry County"; "Cleveland, The Terraced Farm County"; "Cleveland, The Butter County"; "Cleveland Leads the State in Diversified Agriculture."

Card of Thanks. I wish to thank those who were so kind, attentive and sympathetic during the long illness of my beloved husband for the many expressions of sympathy occasioned by his untimely passing. I also wish to thank all the nurses and doctors at the Shelby hospital and especially Dr. Ben Gold and Miss Leak, the nurse. MRS. CHARLIE SMITH. Card of Thanks. We wish to thank out many friends and neighbors for their kindness shown us during the sickness and death of our loving husband and father. Mrs. J. W. Owens and Children. THEATRES A great mystery play thrilled serene Broadway for two years. It was "Cordoned", and now it is being shown on the screen. In fact, it will be at Webb theatre Tuesday and features Marie Prevost. It tells of a beautiful silken girl that stole a heart at the point of a pistol. You will enjoy this one. And then the Webbs want you to laugh Wednesday and Thursday. They believe the whole town will be laughing by Thursday midnight for Harold Lloyd is coming both days to Webbs in "Why Worry," the funniest piece of fun the screen has ever shown. You know Harold and you'll sure be there one of these two days. Laugh, say you will forget the hot weather. Ricardo Cortez, the soulful lover, will be at the Princess Tuesday in "The Spaniard". The aristocratic, hand some Spaniard boasts in this film that he can tame any woman living. It's the 1925 model Shiek with a volcanic lover, daring women and Spanish romance. Wednesday the Princess will show "Wings of Youth" and how they were clipped. It's a thunderbolt of strong society drama with thrills and risque treats. "The White Desert," a melodrama of the great snow country comes to the Princess on Thursday with plenty of suspense, heart interest and humor, and it features Pat O'Malley. Card of Thanks. I wish to take this means of expressing my thanks and gratitude to my many friends for their sympathy and kindnesses shown during the sickness and death of my husband. Mrs. M. G. Martln. PRINCESS ALWAYS A GOOD SHOW —TUESDAY— "THE SPANIARD" A production that combines all the best features of "Blood and Sand" and "The Sheik," while the whole art of modern love-making is exposed. With Ricardo Cortez, Jetta Goudal and Noah Beery. —WEDNESDAY— "WINGS OF YOUTH" Beautiful women, wonderful gowns and jazz form the background for this powerful drama, with Madge Bellamy and Ethel Clayton in the leading feminine roles. —THURSDAY— "THE WHITE DESERT" A melodrama of the great snow country that affords plenty of action, suspense, heart interest and humor—It's the story of a man's courage against tremendous odds. With Pat O'Malley and Claire Windsor in the leading roles.

CLIPPING THE WINGS OF YOUR DOLLARS "DOLLARS HAVE WINGS" That is an old saying that has come to be accepted without question. In fact something of this spirit seems to lay hold of some men from the beginning. This type of man is sure that "dollars have wings" that he is "licked before he starts." We don't see as many poultry yards now as we used to see: but most of us remember what happened to the old hen that persisted in flying over the fence. In spite of her squawking the feathers of one wing were clipped, and thereafter she was a law-abiding biddy. Law-abiding perforce, perhaps—but nevertheless, law-abiding. Dollars have wings—let us admit that. Dollars are constantly escaping from the unwar—flying away. Through the exercise of vigilance, you can make them fly your way. But it really isn't worth the trouble—if you fail to clip their wings, once you have them! There is no better way to clip the wings of a dollar than to deposit it in a savings account, promptly. They have a way of escaping from one's pocket; the fence around a checking account doesn't always hold them—but a savings account—well, a savings account seems to have a way about it, somehow! Dollars stop their flying, once they have been trained to go to a savings account. It is well worth trying, when one stops to consider that a savings account in this bank earns interest at four per cent, compounded each three months. First National Bank SHELBY, N. C. MORE MILEAGE FOR YOUR DOLLARS The purchaser of an automobile considers the number of miles a car will run to the gallon of gasoline and quart of oil, when making his selection. Many times the prospective purchaser decides in favor of another car, when comparisons of fuel consumption have been made. When a man equips his car with new tires, he is careful to select those tires enjoying long mileage reputation. And yet— Too frequently that same man ignores the possibility of giving his dollars more "mileage." If, by exercising a little forethought, the man could add more than four per cent each year to the lifetime of his tires, he would do it. A savings account in any of THE UNION TRUST CO., banks will yield four per cent interest compounded each three months. Savings deposits will double themselves in approximately seventeen years. This is almost equal to six per cent simple interest. (Simple interest, at six per cent, doubles itself in sixteen and two thirds years.) By carefully watching your idle money, and depositing in a savings account, you can add more mileage to your dollars. The difference is worth saving! UNION TRUST CO. SHELBY, N.
