Mrs. Gantt Observes Her 90th Birthday

About 100 People Gather at the Home of Mrs. John Gantt, Only Surviving Member of Her Family.

Mrs. J. H. Gantt, who lives alone in her home on Blanton street, near the oil mill, celebrated her 90th birthday last Saturday when a large number of her relatives and friends gathered at the home, bringing with them boxes and baskets of food for the dinner which was the feature of the occasion. The occasion was also the birthday of Mr. Amos Gantt, a son of Mrs. Gantt, who lives on his farm near

Pleasant Hill church, on route 7. The dinner was placed on a large table erected in the yard of the Ganti home and the large crowd, numbering about 100, gathered around the table. Just before partaking of the bount. ful dinner, Rev. C. B. Way, pastor of the Methodist Protestant church, was introduced and delivered a brief talk in which he expressed the thanks of Mrs. Gantt for the kindness of her neighbors, friends and relatives who contributed to the dinner. He also offered the prayer of thanks at the

Mrs. Gantt, in whose honor the occasion was planned, has reached the ripe old age of 90 years and is the only surviving member of her immediate family. She is one of the few women in Cleveland county over 90 years of age. All of her seven living children were present, together with a large number of her grand-children and great grand-children. Mrs. Gantt has 56 grand-children, 141 great-grandchildren, and four great, great grand-children. The sons and daughters present for the dinner are as follows: Mr. J. A. Gantt, of Florence, S. C.; Messrs. D. I., and W. H. Gantt, of Kings Mountain; Mr. Amos Gante, of route 7, Shelby; Mrs. Robert Newton, of Casar; Mrs. D. R. Williams of S. Shelby; Mrs. B. F. Spake of Shelby.

Mrs. Gantt has resided at her St by home for the past 20 years. Her husband died in 1924. She is very active considering her age, and besides doing her housework she conducts a small grocery store in her home.

Cows Perish In Early Morn Blaze

Two barns, a granary, 100 bushels of corn, some good hay and a num-ber of farming implements, all be-longing to Ed Houser of North Brook township were destroyed by fire Friday morning about 1 o'clock.

The origin of the fire is not known but it began in the building used for the cows, two of them perishing in the flames. The other livestock

The loss is estimated at about 500, and was partly insured in t Farmers mutual.
