

W. M. Union To Meet Next At Bethlehem

Mrs. Wacaster Heads the Organization For Another Year. Play Given By B. S. H. S. Students.

Holland, returned missionary at the 14th annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary union held at Bowling Springs, Rev. H. E. Waldrop preached the annual sermon on Thursday morning. The union was indeed fortunate in having present Mrs. W. N. Jones, state president, who gave a wonderful message on prayer. Society methods was given to us

CONDUCTOR-EVANGELIST PREACHING HERE.

Programs, Mrs. Raymond Cline; Entertainment, Mrs. H. M. Pippin; Personals Service, Mrs. J. C. Dodd; Stewardship, Mrs. J. C. Blanton; Mission Studies, Mrs. D. F. Hord; Social Life, Miss Gladys Simms; Seasons of Prayer, Mrs. Frank Williams; Fostering of Societies, Mrs. S. B. Hamrick.

Thursday night a playlet "Farmer Brown's Conversion to Stewardship" was given by students of the B. S. H. S. This was well rendered and enjoyed by all. An address on "Christian Education" was delivered by Prof. J. D. Huggins which was very beneficial to us as a denomination. There is no one better prepared than Professor Huggins to talk on "Christian Education," as he has won the hearts and love of hundreds of girls and boys in the institution of B. S. H. S., by his fine Christian character.

The faculty of B. S. H. S. gave a reception to delegates which was greatly enjoyed on Thursday afternoon August 27. The superintendent's address "Come Go," was an inspiration to us. She bid us "Come to Jesus" and learn of him, and then to "go" and tell others of his great love, one of the outstanding things was the presentation of a lovely banner given by the Kings Mountain W. M. U. of the W. M. S., doing the best work the past year.

The elections of officers was as follows: Mrs. John Wacaster, superintendent; Mrs. J. W. Davis, jr., superintendent; Mrs. Fred Washburn, mission study leader; Mrs. U. A. Black, secretary-treasurer.

The association accepted the invitation to meet with the Bethlehem church next August and the best attended meeting of the union adjourned. GERTRUDE A. STREET, Secretary-Treasurer.

talks. A banquet will be served on Saturday evening at each of the conferences. At Shelby the delegates will be the guests of the Kiwanis club at the banquet.

Every school west of Statesville is entitled to representatives to one of the conferences. The territory will be divided so that delegates can go to the most convenient place.

Halys G. Moore To Marry Ellenboro Girl

(Special to The Star.) Mrs. R. B. Tapp and Miss Leah Martin were joint hostesses at a lovely party Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Tapp, announcing the engagement of Miss Fannie Wright to Mr. Halys G. Moore of Shelby.

The guests were met at the door by Miss Martin and shown their places in the living room, which was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and potted plants.

The afternoon was enjoyed by the use of two contests "authors" and "historical." Miss Edna Scoggin being winner of "authors" and Mrs. W. A. Harrill "historical." The prizes were lovely boxes of stationery.

After the refreshments were served, which consisted of delicious ice cream and cake, the secret was revealed. Mrs. Tapp passed a basket filled with nuts saying "It is all in a nut shell." Upon opening the announcements were found written on small slips of paper, "Moore-Wright, Oct. 1, 1925."

The bride elect was lovely in a gown of blue and gold embroidered in silver. The guests departed wishing her much happiness. Those enjoying Mrs. Martin's and Mrs. Tapp's hospitality were:

Misses Fannie Wright, Virginia Helms, Hallie Carson, Melrose Hawkins, Edna Scoggin, Ida and Bettie Green, Carrie and Zada Harrill, Lucie Wright, Lucie Wright, Jessie Lou Moore, of Shelby, Katie Lou Smart of Monroboro, Miss Wilkins, and Miss Polly Martin.

Boys' Conference To Be Held Here Oct. 16-18

Grady H. Leonard Calls Attention to the Older Boys' Meeting in Shelby to Discuss Problems.

(Special to The Star.) All older boys will please take notice. This will be a very interesting announcement to you. There are to be two Y. M. C. A. older boys' conferences in the western district this fall. One will be in Shelby October 16-18 and the other in Morganton in November, the exact date of which has not been set.

The fellows who attended the conference at Statesville last fall will always remember it as one of the best times of their lives. It is up to them to pass the good news on to the fellows who did not attend last year and get them to take advantage of the opportunity this year.

It will be a group of boys and young men from this section of the state, meeting together to face some of the problems that confront young men of today. These problems are discussed and the solutions to the same also discussed. Friendships are formed and contracts made that are never forgotten. The best boy leaders will be present to lead the discussions and make

C. R. WEBB

APPOINTED PILOT GENERAL AGENT FOR WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA. HEADQUARTERS AT SHELBY.

Mr. Carl R. Webb has just been given the appointment of General Agent for the Pilot Life Insurance Company in Western North Carolina, with headquarters at Shelby and offices in Lineberger Building.

The position of general agent for a life insurance company calls for unusual ability and training in the life insurance business, the general agent being complete charge of and wholly responsible for production in his particular territory. Mr. Webb is especially well qualified for the position of general agent, and the company considers itself fortunate in securing his services.

Mr. Webb's decision to represent the Pilot in Western Carolina was greatly influenced by the fact that the Pilot is a North Carolina company which for years has followed the practice of investing largely in North Carolina property, thereby having an important part in the development of our state.

More and more the people of Carolina are realizing the importance of keeping their insurance money in the good old North State, and with the service of the Pilot Life Insurance Company at his command, Mr. Webb is in a position to offer the people of western Carolina a complete line of personal protection with a home company.
