

ARE YOU GOING TO BUY A FARM THIS YEAR

We hear that money is tight and it is, but that's the very time to buy if you can make the financial arrangements. It is our business to not only sell Real Estate but to help you in making the arrangements to pay for that which you buy.

On most of the farms we have listed with us we can arrange very liberal terms. By paying a small cash payment at this time of year, the land you buy will be deeded to you and the deed held by us until January 1st, at which time another payment will become due, Deed of Trust for deferred payments will date from January 1st. The listings we have can be bought on terms as a rule in payments running from three to five years time.

33,000 bales of cotton will probably be made in the county and this means that somebody is going to have some money. If it is you the safest and best place to put it is in a GOOD FARM.

We are not mind readers—if you happen to be one that is interested in buying this year, either write us a card stating that you want to see a farm of so many acres or else come in and see us any time. We will arrange to carry you out and let you see just what we have.

The farms we name below are just a few of those taken from our list of options. We try to keep a varied list, made up of farms both large and small, with the price ranging from a few dollars per acre to a reasonable price for the better located and best grades of farm land.

If these do not appeal to you we have others.

Consistency.
(Morganton News-Herald.)
Regardless of explanations or excuses there's not getting around the fact that it looks mighty bad that the Made-in-Carolinas exposition is being advertised by made-in-Michigan signs and the critical comment made in newspapers throughout the state, to the effect that it is not consistent to get printing away from home to advertise a "trade-at-home" idea is bound to have a detrimental influence on the exposition.
Replying to the criticisms the exposition officials say that their policy is to advocate buying Carolina products when price and quality are equal or less than elsewhere, and the inference is—in fact the statement is made—that the Michigan-made yellow cards were cheaper and better than could be produced by North Carolina printers. Wonder if this point was fully investigated!
But even that argument in defense of the out-of-state printing is better than to say that "anyway" Charlotte and North Carolina printers were not supporting the exposition.
An idea as big as the Made-in-

Will Undo Much Evil By Dr. V. M. Pierce

Knowing the vast amount of harm wrought by diseases of the kidneys, and having had opportunity to observe the analyses and the successful methods of treatment in thousands of cases of kidney trouble at the Invalids' Hotel, I have recently given to the public the latest and perhaps most important of the Dr. Pierce home remedies, "An-uric" (anti-uric-acid) Tablets, which now recommend to those who suffer with kidney backache, irregularity of urination and the pains and disturbances that come from excess of uric acid in the blood.

"An-uric" can be obtained at all the drug stores. The mere drinking of a cup of hot water each morning and a little "An-uric" before every meal should bring remarkably quick improvement. You may have kidney trouble and not know it. The danger signals to be quickly heeded are backache, depression, aches, pains, heaviness, drowsiness, dizziness, irritability, headaches, chilliness, rheumatic twinges, swollen joints, gout.

If you desire a trial package, send 10c to Dr. Pierce's Clinic in Buffalo, N. Y., and write for free advice.

Carolina proposition should not be cheapened by trying to "get even" with any class of producers who do not collectively or individually contribute directly to the movement.
The whole thing is so similar to local trade-at-home propagandea. It too often happens that the folks who have the most to say to the newspaper about preaching trading at home are the very ones who buy their printing out of town. Trading at home and buying Carolina goods are all right for advice to the other fellow, but the majority of people will go right along doing what happens to please them and buying where and what they want.

He's Mistaken.

(Charlotte News.)

One of the well-known syndicate writers had "a piece in the papers," the other day in which he claimed that the immigrant contributed nine-tenths of the labor in the cotton mills of this country, which, of course, we would nail instantly as a gross libel upon the labor in the Southern cotton mills, even from only a superficial survey.
The charge did not escape the always alert eye of the editor of the Manufacturers Record who drew the statistics on the writer and the Presbyterian survey which printed the statement, declaring that the last U. S. census shows that the average number of wage-earners in the United States employed in the manufacture of cotton goods was 495,197, and of this number 239,459 were employed in the cotton mills of the Southern States. As the South has about one-half of the wage earners in the cotton mills of the country, and, as anyone at all familiar with the cotton industry of the United States knows, the cotton mill workers of the South are practically without exception native white American of Anglo-Saxon stock, how can the immigrant furnish nine-tenths of the cotton mill labor? We are all aware of the fact that the cotton mill labor in the east is composed almost entirely of foreign stock, but we also know that Southern cotton mill labor, which is half the country's total thus employed, is native white American.

The Talkless Barber.

Asheville Citizen.

They shut the shop and put a "For Rent" sign in the window, this barber shop in New York whose failure is a monument to those who do not want what they think they want. There are several such scattered throughout the United States.
The shop was the fad of a rich man. He abominated talkative barbers and he concluded that all barbers were talkative. From his boyhood days he had read jokes in funny papers about the chatty barber, illustrated with cuts showing him absent-mindedly snipping off a patron's ear while intent on talking into the other ear. He decided that people would eagerly patronize a shop where the barbers acted the part of the deaf and dumb.

So he started this shop and advertised it and people came and said that the barbers did not talk—heard no traditional conversation—billed back—and new ones were scarce. The case—if not the shop—was analyzed with surprising results. It was found that people do want to hear the cheery barber chat—they want no silent dummy tonsorialist. They may say they do, but they don't.

No Longer Necessary to "Dose" Children With Internal Medicines to Break Colds.

Children's ailments are easily upset by too much "dosing." Vicks VapoRub being externally applied does not upset the stomachs.
