Entered as second class matter January 1, 1906, at the postoffice at Shelby, North Carolina, under the Act of Congress, March 3, 1879.

We wish to call your attention to the fact that it is, and has been our custom to charge five cents per line for resolutions of respect, cards of thanks and obituary notices, after one death notice has been published. This will be strictly adhered to.

MONDAY, NOV. 16, 1925.

Some people may not laugh at their own jokes, but a news dispatch says Charlie Chaplain attended the movies.

The prize this week passes to the philosopher who said: An optimist is the fellow who will eat chestnuts in the dark. Second prize goes to the remark that everything didn't start in the garden of Eden—for example the borrowing habit.

JUST THINK!

Those who question the required building permits of the city laws should stop and think for a moment: Suppose a filling station or small store was going up just across the street or adjoining your home—or a fire-trap building in which you have the fortune of a life time invested?

NO CHRISTMAS DAY MAIL.

The ruling of the postoffice department to close the postoffices of the country and not deliver Christmas day mail will be a source of disappointment to the patrons, but they should consider the thousands of postal employees who have a right to this holiday with their families. While all the rest of us are enjoying the day, given mostly to the exchange of gifts with friends through the mails, we do not realize that for us to patronize the postoffice on its heaviest mail day of the year, these hundreds of thousands of postal workers are denied any freedom but on the other hand have before them their hardest day's work. Gradually the postoffice department has been breaking up the Christmas day delivery custom and while it may not suit some of us to be denied the privilege of the mails on that day, it is nothing but right that the government men who toil day in and day out should have the holidays to spend with their families.

THE MARKET BASKET.

Statistics have it that 85 per cent of America's income is spent by women. Not for personal wants, but for household necessities, food, fuel, groceries, and suchlike. And realizing that the woman is the buyer of a big per centage of that which is bought, The Star last week started a "Market Basket" page. Grocers, meat shops and other business firms that cater to the housewife realized what advertising directly to the housewife meant and flooded the page with advertising.

From early reports it seems as if the page will be a success—more so than any other special page ever published in The Star. It is made more interesting because the news columns carry recipes for favorite dishes prepared by Shelby women.

Watch the "Market Basket" page for your wants and if there are important items missing notify us and the next issue will carry quotations on the items that were formerly missing. It's the service of the family grocer and butcher to his customers and prospective customers with The Star as a medium.

A DANGER SPOT.

Out West Marion street just in front of the Central school building is perhaps Shelby's most dangerous spot. Unless strict care is taken that section of town may be the scene of a tragedy some day. Your boy or girl may be the victim.

Watch it, and warn them! With the detour on Highway 29 the street is by the noon hour packed with main traffic in addition to the usual street traffic and the flurry of cars to take the children to lunch. It is a busy spot and school children, being young and inexperienced, are naturally careless unless sufficiently warned. Then just as the care are getting away there's the railroad and the shifting engines. It is a very dangerous spot.

Charlotte, Gastonia, and other cities and town are using traffic officers at such spots during the lunch hour in protection of the lives of their children, and such is a credit to the municipal authorities of the respective cities. Shelby as yet may not need an officer to overlook the situation, but it is the duty of Shelby parents that they warn their children, and also the duty of motorists to be careful in driving by the school building about that hour.

$50,000 TO ORPHANS.

Cleveland county should give $50,000 to the orphans of North Carolina during Thanksgiving week. The sum sounds big, we admit, but think over the appeal and at least the thought will come that it should be.

The North Carolina Orphan association asks of North Carolina people that everyone on or before Thanksgiving Day give the equivalent of one day's salary or income during the past year. That's not much. If your child was fatherless and motherless would one day's work out of an entire year seem too much for your neighbor to contribute towards their upkeep and the little pleasures children should get out of living?

Just one day's salary or income. Is the appeal not worth that? Think what a day of Thanksgiving it would be to North Carolina's hundreds of orphans if every person in the state gave that much.

Then bring it down to terms of Cleveland county. There are 40,000 or more people in this county. Surely the average day's income or salary for the county is $1.25. And 40,000 people giving $1.25 each, an average, according to their ranging incomes, would mean $50,000 from this county alone for the orphans. In the years to come nothing finer could be said of the county than $50,000 was given to the orphans of the state on one Thanksgiving day.

It will not be. Many will not balance the need of the fatherless against one day's salary, but because other do not you are not excused. But this is to YOU! What will you do?

OUR HOSPITAL AND THANKSGIVING.

Next to the churches, the Shelby Public hospital is the greatest institution Cleveland county has in carrying out the noble practice of the Great Physician. It has been here over two years administering unto the sick and suffering and during that time has no doubt saved many lives of friends and neighbors. Quietly it goes on about the Father's business and little do we think of its needs. We take it as a matter of course that the institution is a fixture, which it is, but it cannot do for those unable to pay without help from the outside. Our people are a generous people to all worthy objects of charity but somehow our charity has not been directed to the hospital as it should.

With the Thanksgiving season at hand we hope the people of Shelby and Cleveland county will remember this institution. A donation of money can better be used by the hospital authorities for needs uppermost in the mind of the superintendent, but if you do not care to give money, make some contribution to the pantry or the linen room. Anything in the way of bed room supplies or edibles can be used and the donations would redound to your glory and blessing. It is all right to remember the orphans with a day's wage but above that contribution, there are thousands in Cleveland who could spare more and we offer the suggestion that this local institution be remembered during this Thanksgiving season.

Wouldn't it be a noble act that would serve as a lasting memorial here on earth and lay up a rich treasure in Heaven, if some of our Cleveland county citizens would set aside something in their wills for this institution. Mr. Duke was praised throughout the land for his generosity but the "widow's mite" is more deserving in the eyes of Him who appraises correctly our motives and deeds.

A native is one who feels privileged to butcher his own language. Morons serve. By contrast their superior head leader seems great.

23 Cleveland Boys At Wake Forest

C. C. Horn is Elected President of the Cleveland Club. Miss Frankie Borders is Sponsor.

(Special to The Star.) Wake Forest, Nov. 15.—Accidentally many times the Cleveland county family assembles on the campus for a general discussion of current topics, and the fine spirit manifest there has brought favorable comment from the students and different members of the faculty. Cleveland ranks among the largest in number of any of the like groups in the student body.

It was yesterday that a freshman said that he had to register in a different county but he aimed to tell these professors that he was a Cleveland, "because my physics teacher told me that he had never flunked one of that Cleveland bunch."

One night recently the summons was given for all the Cleveland county men to report in Wingate hall for the purpose of organization. Mr. C. C. Horn was elected president; Mr. C. V. Harrill, vice president, and A. S. Gillespie secretary and treasurer. Then Miss Frankie Borders was unanimously elected as sponsor of the club. Twenty-three men answered to the

Education Week To Be Observed Here

Teachers Will Visit all the Homes of Parents in Shelby. Patrons Are Asked to Co-operate.

This is education week throughout the nation and the same will be observed in Shelby.

Education week is a week set aside by state and national educational authorities as a special time for the community and school to meet each other in a new way and to become acquainted as never before. The patrons of the schools are urged to visit, investigate, and take part in every way in the school life; while the school will carry out special programs for the benefit of the students and visitors. Schools in every locality are urged to compare works, programs, progress, methods and plans and to make use of any knowledge that comes from this procedure. The patrons are urged to do everything in their power to forward the interests of the schools and thus aid in making the community a better place in which to live.

As suggested before, this is not a local or state movement but is national in scope.

If England can't provide work for her unemployed, perhaps Turkey can.
