

AROUND OUR TOWN

SHELBY SIDELIGHTS

BY RENN DRUM

THEY ARE four things.
 CLEVELAND COUNTY folks.
 SHOULDN'T FORGET this week.
 ONE WILL be easy.
 TO REMEMBER—Thanksgiving.
 AND THE three others.
 ARE IN that connection.
 AND WILL TEND to show.
 JUST HOW thankful.
 YOU MAY be.
 FIRST NORTH Carolina orphans.
 ARE WONDERING if you.
 WILL GIVE one day's salary.
 TO THEIR upkeep.
 AND THEN there are.
 CHILDREN IN the town.
 AND OVER the county.
 WHO HAVE no money.
 TO BUY school books.
 AND THINK how thankful.
 THEY WOULD be.
 IF SOMEONE stepped in.
 WITH ALL the needed books.
 AND THEN the good women.
 OF CITY and county.
 ARE PLANNING a shower.
 FOR THE hospital.
 SO JUST think it over.
 AND IF you're not.
 THANKFUL ENOUGH for all.
 YOU HAVE received.
 IN 365 days.
 TO GIVE one day.
 FOR SOME unfortunate.
 THEN WHY do you.
 OBSERVE THANKSGIVING.
 IS IT after all.
 JUST A day.
 TO GO rabbit hunting
 AND HAVE big dinners?
 IT DOES seem.
 THAT SOME think since.
 THE DAY was first observed.
 AT PLYMOUTH Rock.
 THAT A chicken dinner.
 IS THE best way.
 TO OBSERVE the day.

much that is becoming slick.
 After looking over all the different things that drug stores downtown carry in stock an old-timer remarks that once was pharmacist merely had to pass a medical board before he started working in a drug store, but that nowadays he had to be an expert soda hop and a philosopher on dispensing garden and flower seeds as well as knowing how to get the static out of a radio bedtime story. Ain't it so?

A lawyer who read in the column recently of the advertising being carried on for what is owing to doctors takes a fling in saying that most people usually have to do heroic deeds to have a monument erected, but that every time a doctor made a mistake it meant another monument. We suppose they erect no monuments or slabs to the poor ginks the lawyers let go to the electric chair when they make a mistake during the trial.

The latest thing in the milady's world as regards to hosiery is colorful, judging from the observation of Wythe Royster, proprietor of Shelby's hosiery plant. Orchid is the present popular color, he says, but orchid is only one of 45.

That may be news for some Shelby folks who haven't followed the advice of "Seeing Shelby First." The Olive hosiery mill here makes hosiery for the flappers in 45 different colors.

Joseph with his coat would be a beck number in that riot of color. Yet Joseph didn't have the added attraction of rolls.

The fundamentalists who say there are only seven colors should visit the Royster plant. It will take you longer to memorize the names of the 45 colors than it did to learn the Ten Commandments.

There's one called atmosphere.
 And the Royster plant fills orders from Africa, but it's a cinch that none of the belles there wear atmosphere, transparent, or nude hose.

If they did they might as well order pure black—that is if there is such a thing as pure black.

What's more there are still other things to be learned about a hosiery plant. For instance people in some countries have bigger feet than those in others.

The column almost forgot to say a picture of a Thanksgiving turkey for Thanksgiving.

Broad River News of People Going

Few Cases of Whooping Cough. Fields Are Green With Fall Grain. Personal News.

In this vicinity the cotton is picked, the corn is in the crib and the fields are green with growing grain. Truly we are ready for Thanksgiving.

There are a number of cases of whooping cough in the community, but all seem to be getting along nicely.

Double Springs News of Recent Interest

(Special to The Star)

Double Springs, Nov. 24.—Mr and Mrs. J. B. Jones and little son, Paul of Caroleen, visited her father, Mr. J. L. Green Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Durham Johnson were at the home of Mr. Gree. . . .

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Hamrick and others from our community went to B. S. H. S. for the Ramseur debate Saturday night. The program was unusually fine and was greatly enjoyed by all who attended.

Some from our community attended the Baptist state convention at Charlotte last week and report a good session of the convention with the largest attendance in the history of the convention.

Mr. Will Humphries and family are moving this week to Lattimore. We are sorry to give up this estimable family. Mr. John Blanton will occupy the house vacated by Mr. Humphries.

Mr. Jim Fowler continues quite ill at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Monroe Morgan.

Mrs. W. W. Washburn and daughter Annie Lee are visiting Mrs. Washburn's daughter, Mrs. C. R. Bankhead of Sharon, S. C., this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Davis and baby of Charlotte, visited his brother Mr. John Ed. Davis recently.

A large crowd was present at the B. Y. P. U. Sunday night. We were pleased to see many visitors. Among them were the following: Mr. Lester Warlick, Lattimore; Mr. Sloan Elliotte, Falston; Mr. Geo. Richbourg, Shelby; Mrs. Foster Elliotte, and mother widow of the late Bob Elliotte, of Polkville.

Thanksgiving services will be held at the church on Thanksgiving Day, at 10:30 o'clock, when an offering will be made to the Baptist Orphanage at Thomasville. As a people, we have much to be thankful for, and we feel that it is fitting that we should go to the House of the Lord and show our appreciation to Him for our many blessings on this "Thanksgiving Day."

With grateful hearts, and loving minds,
 We worship God today;
 With thanks to Him for blessings brought,
 Accept them now, we pray.

For health and strength, for friends so true,
 And too, for thy dear Son;
 Who gave His life so full and free,
 To save us every one.

Oh may we use these gifts from God,
 In service to our King;
 So we may bless some brother, sad,
 And cheer and comfort bring.

LADIES, CURLD HAIR STYLE IS COMING BACK, ITS HERE

London.—The curl once seen in the coiffure is coming back. . . .

The curl of the hair dresser is coming back again must show from the brim of woman's hats. The stern mannish line of the small hat crammed upon an eton-cropped head so that not a single hair is visible, has been ordained a thing of the past. The lost curl, or a bunch of stray, wavy ends of hair, which will give softness to the face, are to be the vogue.

Dame fashion has decreed that the curls must match the dress of the wearer. They come in pastel shades and are pinned on so that only hair in pale blue petunia, rose or green shows from under the hat. For evening wear, complete wigs in pastel evening dresses.

Dr. W. A. Amesbury Loses Big Estate and $5,000,000 by Slaying of Wife Near Boston

Boston, Nov. 19.—Broken in health Dr. Walter R. Amesbury, former Hyde Park physician and descendant of Sir Walter Raleigh, has been transferred from Charlestown State Prison to the prison camp in Rutland.

Amesbury was sentenced to life imprisonment in 1909 for murder of his wife on Christmas Day, 1907.

Grim steel bars for the past sixteen years have prevented this once respected member of the medical profession from inheriting a British title a castle, 167,000 acres and a fortune of $5,000,000.

Brother Against Brother
 Two years ago, his sons, Dr. Walter Raleigh Amesbury and Ivan Raleigh Amesbury, arrayed themselves against each other on the question of his parole.

"If I had my say," Walter at that time said, "he would take his medicine like any other murderer in the electric chair. He is my father, yes, but he is still my mother's slayer."

In direct contrast was the attitude of Ivan.

"I bear no ill toward my father," he declared. "There was no premeditation and he has suffered enough."

Served With "Bobs"
 Dr. Amesbury claims direct descent from Sir Walter Raleigh, the petted favorite of the "Virgin Queen," Elizabeth. He is 66 years old and is a son of a surgeon-general in the British army. He himself entered the British service and was a lieutenant with Lord Roberts in the Afghan campaign in 1877.

In 1898 he came to Duxbury and settled there to practice medicine. Later he left the Cape and went to Texas.

He remained in the Southwest a year; then came to Hyde Park, where he was practicing medicine when the murder of his wife took place.

Tom Tarheel says his idea of a big dinner is to have among other things a well baked ham and that is why he takes so much trouble in curing out his meat properly.

tramp also begs food and shelter. Farmers who have listened to their tales and given shelter to such persons have found when the visitors left the next day that articles from the farm had been stolen.
 Oregon residents are starting a movement against the gasoline tramps. They wish to have these wanderers known for what they are. They have been classed as tourists, but now they are beginning to be recognized as a menace. A tramp is a tramp whether he follows the cross-ties or goes about the country in a motor car. The honest man who is going somewhere in search of work has nothing to fear from the reform movement.

Maybe He Saw a Crowd.

"Did you get home all right last night, sir?" asked the street conductor.
 "Of course—why not?" came back the passenger.
 "Well, when you got up to give your seat to that lady last night you were the only two people in the car."

American Capital Is Flowing to Germany

New York.—The flow of American capital into German industry continued this week when Speyer and company, announced that a loan of $7,500,000 had been arranged for the Westphalia United Electric Power corporation. Public offerings of 25 year 6 1-2 per cent bonds will be made at a price of 87 1-2 to yield 7.92 per cent.

Additional funds for public utility improvement were raised through the sale of municipal bonds, for Dresden and Frankfurt, which were oversubscribed heavily.

London.—Thousands of plumpuddings soaked with brandy, sherry or rum are being mailed by Britons to friends in the United States for Thanksgiving and Christmas.
