

Young Rutherford Men Enlisting in the Army

(Special to The Star.)
It is indeed gratifying to see so many young men of this district making application for enlistment in the Army and get a traveling education by enlisting for service in the Hawaiian Islands, Panama Canal or some of the excellent training camps nearer their homes.

The following named young men of this district have enlisted at the Rutherford Station in the last month and are either happily located in their new homes at some post near by or are on their way to Beautiful Hawaii or Panama enjoying the wonderful sights and pleasures which before now they had never dreamed possible.

Wayne B. Duncan, of Lenoir; Zay Wright, of Forest City; Lox C. Cardell, of Union Mills; Walter Matheny, of Harris Station; John M. Robbins, of Harris Station; Grady M. Smith, of Ruth; Charles H. Graham, of Chimney Rock; Clarence W. Hill, of Rutherford; Andrew Lucas, of Avondale; Edward Martin, of Columbus; Ralph Sowers, of Cliffside; Martin J. Flinn, of Bat Cave.

There are still a few vacancies for Hawaii and Panama and those who desire these assignments must not loathe any time as at this time of the year they will soon be closed. We have the Field Artillery at Fort Bragg still open. A few men are desired for the Famous 29th Infantry. JAMES C. CRAWFORD, U. S. A. D. E. M. L. (R. S.)

THE GREATEST MEDICINE OF THE DAY AS THOUSANDS TESTIFY

Nothing Like HERB JUICE—The Great Tonic Laxative.

"I have found that HERB JUICE will do all that it is claimed for it and I feel as though I would like to recommend it to others," said Mr. Giles E. Webb, well known merchant of Shelby North Carolina, during a recent conversation with the HERB JUICE demonstrator.

"The most of my trouble was caused from indigestion," said Mr. Webb. "I could not eat anything and have it agree with me. Gas would form on my stomach. All the impurities were going into my blood instead of being eliminated. I was dreadfully constipated and nothing seemed to help me a bit. I would get up in the morning feeling tired and worn out and by night I was too exhausted to sleep. Consequently I became very nervous. I suppose my system was full of poisons for nothing else could have made me feel so bad.

"A friend advised that I try HERB JUICE. I did not have any faith for I had tried too many remedies before, but I was over persuaded and bought a bottle. I now feel good and I eat anything I want and digest it. I get up in the mornings feeling like going to work and at night I am not so exhausted. I sleep well and have gained about 20 pounds in weight. I am so surprised at the change in my condition it is really hard for me to realize that I am the same person of a short time back. My friends marvel at the changes in my condition even as much as I but they are not half as happy and pleased as I am. I think it is the most wonderful medicine on the market today and would not be without it for anything."

—Mr. Welch of the HERB JUICE Laboratories has established headquarters at the Riviere Drug Co., and will gladly tell you without any cost just what benefit you can obtain from the great remedy. (Adv.)

Lawndale Events Of Late Mention

(Special to The Star.)
Lawndale, Dec. 8.—Miss Louise McCall, died last Thursday morning at 1 o'clock and her body was laid to rest Thursday evening at 2:30 in the Lucas graveyard. She had been helpless in bed ever since last June, being 83 years, 8 months and 5 days old. She was a member of Kistler's church and remained so until death. She has one brother, Dave, left out of the McCall family to mourn her death.

Mrs. Letha Moore, of Granite Falls N. C., has been visiting Miss Ethel Elmore, this last week, and returned home Sunday.

Miss Mamie Miller, spent Sunday with Miss Ruby Warlick.
Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Elmore spent Sunday, in Shelby, with Mr. and Mrs. Lem Elmore.

Miss Margaret Cornwell, spent Sunday evening with Miss Mozelle Carpenter.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Stanley of Fallston, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ira Elmore.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Elliott have moved back with his mother Mrs. Bob Elliott.

Misses Lula Vay Elmore and Mozelle Carpenter, of Piedmont High School, spent the week-end at home with their parents.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Carpenter, regret that their little son, Edward, is very ill now, but hope that he will soon be well again.

Recent Items Of Piedmont School

(Special to The Star.)
Lawndale, Dec. 8.—The Gold Bug is flapping its wings in preparation for a flight to Bostic on Friday night, December 11. This drama was recently given at Piedmont High School and met with decided success.

Mrs. Ernest Moore, of Granite Falls was the week-end guest of Miss Ethel Elmore.

Professor Burns has returned from a motor tour across the state. He visited his native county, Onslow, accompanied by Billie Burns, Ebert Eskridge, Homer Burton, and Thomas Cornwell.

Mrs. John Moore and Miss Elaine

Moore spent the holidays with friends at Lattimore; Mrs. Betty Lee and Miss Lucy May Lee at Shelby; Miss Alma Burgess at Gastonia; and Miss Charlotte Young at Asheville.

The class in Domestic Science recently entertained the trustees and a few others, a more extended account appears elsewhere in the paper.

The latest addition to the high school is Creig Gettys, of Polkville.

Miss Evangeline Falls and Miss Esther Beam, who are students in the Appalachian Training School, spent Thanksgiving with home folks.

A class in Public Speaking has been organized in connection with the English department and is doing outstanding work.

Mrs. Burns and Mrs. Moore are swinging a campaign to raise money for the new reception room in Schenck Hall.

A drive is also being planned for funds with which to add a thousand or more volumes to the library. The high school is badly handicapped for lack of adequate reference books and material for parallel reading, fortunate though it is in owning a separate library building, the beautiful memorial to Captain Waters.

Miss Ethel Elmore and her music class gave a most delightful recital on last Thursday evening, a large and appreciative crowd attending.

Those participating were: Ruth Elmore, Eloise Grigg, Sadie Moll, Elaine Moore, Mae Ledford, Lula Vay Elmore, Elbert Eskridge, Robert Carson, Bill Veltin, R. Warlick, M. Williams, E. Elmore, M. L. Lee, Ruby Carpenter, Tom Cornwell, Ann Elmore, Ruby Warlick.

If government can't fix prices for farm products, it might save the farmer by fixing the price for gas.

Belwood News Of People On The Move

(Special to The Star.)

Miss Hallie Grigg, of Shelby, who is teaching at Belwood and Jessie Dixon spent Saturday night with Miss Villa and Maymie Ivester.

Miss Ola Mae Brackett spent Sunday with Miss Maie Edwards.
Miss Addie Dellinger will return home from Morganton, Wednesday.
Miss Villa and Maymie Ivester visited Misses Lucy and Jessie Dixon, Sunday afternoon.

Miss Pauline Dixon, spent the week end, in Cherryville, with her sister, Mrs. E. S. Whahunt.

Miss Rosemary Peeler, spent the week end at home she is attending school at Fallston this term.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Spangler of Shelby route No. 6 spent Saturday, night with Mr. Marvin Lutz, Mrs. Spangler remained with her father, Mr. Ambros Lutz, the following week.

A number of Kad'sh Sunday school members attended the Sunday school convention at Shelby Sunday and Sunday night.

The singers of the Belwood community choir are real anxious for the singing to start again, as every one is a dear lover of singing.

Let's see; what became of the grand orgy of speculation in 1919?
