Asks For Meet Of Confederate Vets

Squire Falls Suggests that Veterans Should Meet and Elect Commander Before Convention.

Mr. J. C. Elliott writing in The Star recently discussed the matter of a commander for the county camp of Confederate veterans to succeed the late Rev. A. C. Irvin. Mr. Elliott in his article advanced the name of Squire J. Z. Falls for the place.

Noting the article Mr. Falls suggests that a meeting of all veterans able to attend be held in the court house here on the first Monday in February, which is February 1. At this meeting it is planned that a commander be elected. Squire Falls was appreciative of the suggestion of Mr. Elliott, but felt that it would be better should a regular election or appointment be held by the veterans.

A commander is needed, he stated, and must be had before the state convention in April in order to make arrangements for veterans of the county concerning attendance, reports and other matters.

If nothing further develops Mr. Falls urges that as many veterans as possible meet at the court house for the proposed election on the first Monday.

Hundreds Visit Blue Ridge Cream Factory

Hundreds, or possibly a thousand people visited the formal opening of the Blue Ridge Ice cream factory Tuesday evening from 6 to 11 o'clock when the new plant was thrown open for inspection. The Taylors had everything in tip-top shape and gave the visitors a cordial reception, having a number of pretty young ladies to serve ice cream cones, Esquimo pie and chocolate milk shakes. The Esquimo pie machine was in operation, showing the visitors how this popular chocolate coated ice cream is made. Music was furnished by the Shelby High School orchestra under the direction of Professor Sinclair. The Taylors are pleased with the reception the Shelby people have given them in the opening of this new enterprise here, the first of its kind in Shelby and indications are that the Blue Ridge Ice cream will meet with a rapid sale.

THEATRES

The Princess today presents "Taming the West," a sparkling comedy-romance of the great west, full of Hoot Gibson's daring stunts, such as wild cow-boy riding and hard fighting. Thursday a comedy await you. Everybody likes comedy and you will thoroughly enjoy "Don't." It's a screen of fast flapper life, a story of a girl who wanted freedom until she got it—and then didn't want it. Friday comes "Cobra" with Rudolph Valentino and Naldi in a romantic, sumptuous setting, showing the lure of a fascinating yet unscrupulous woman—the charm which the cobra exercises over its victims.

Fair Officials Seek Some Prize Winners

Several prizes are in Shelby waiting their winners, not having been claimed since the fair last fall.

The prizes still to be given out are those awarded in the Old Lady's department. Through some slip the list of prize winners was lost by Mrs. Tom Osborne, secretary of the department. Usually, ordinarily the prizes or awards would have been mailed out several weeks ago, but as the list was misplaced such has been impossible.

Fair officials are anxious to straighten the matter up and those holding winning ribbons are asked to communicate with Mrs. Osborne, giving their winning number and other details so that prizes may be mailed to them.

HUFFSTETLER MEMBER OF VERY REMARKABLE FAMILY

Kings Mountain, Jan. 25.—Alfred Dewey Huffstetler died in the hospital in Durham Wednesday, January 20, and was brought to Kings Mountain for burial on Friday. He was the eighth son of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Huffstetler, a farmer who lives two or three miles out to the north of town.

This was the first death in a big family of two daughters and nine sons. The oldest son, Henry, lives just south of the city, the second son, William, lives in Greensboro, and the six other sons, Erskine, Boyce, J. F., Hunter, Ernest, and Theodore, all live here in Kings Mountain. The two daughters are Mrs. Annie Patterson, a widow, who lives with her parents, and Mrs. Lillian Bridgers, of the same community.

He was buried at Bethel A. R. P. church, at the old family cemetery, two miles above the old home place. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. O. P. Ader, pastor of the family, and he was assisted by Dr. J. M. Garrison, pastor of the A. R. P. church of Kings Mountain. Of the nine sons of this very remarkable family Alfred alone was unmarried.

Broad River News of School and Church

Shelby R-2—During the inclement weather of the past few weeks the chief occupation of the farmers in this community has been cutting and hauling wood and making fires.

Rev. J. C. Gillespie filled his appointment at Mt. Sinai church third Sunday morning and preached a very interesting sermon.

The hour of service on Saturday has been changed from 2 in the afternoon to 11 o'clock Saturday morning.

Our B. Y. P. U. is getting along nicely. The following new officers have been elected: President, Miss Oveda Putman, Vice-president, Miss Kate Bridges, Secretary, Miss Maude Rollins organist, Miss Kate Bridges chorister, Mr. Milann Bridges.

Instead of the usual hour Sunday school will meet next Sunday afternoon at two o'clock after which there will be a meeting in behalf of the Baptist missionary work.

The meeting of the Sunbeam Band has been postponed for the past few Sundays on account of unfavorable weather. A meeting was held at the school house last Friday afternoon but the members of the organization will meet at the church on Sunday afternoon as usual.

Fair officials are anxious to straighten the matter up and those holding winning ribbons are asked to communicate with Mrs. Osborne, giving their winning number and other details so that prizes may be mailed to them.
