PUBLISHED A newspaper.
HERE IN Shelby,
WHICH MAY be news.
TO SOME people here.
ANYWAY HE did.
AND JUST this week.
ANNOUNCEMENT COMES.
THAT PROFESSOR Cobb,
HAS BEEN wandering.
AROUND CHIMNEY Rock.
AND HAS found things.
THAT MAKE him think.
GEEFWELLERS ONCE lived.
IN THIS section.
WHEN THE feature writers,
AND PHOTOGRAPHERS come.
WE CAN persuade them.

YOU CAN SAVE
On your shoes. Why throw them away when you haven't had your full money's worth? We repair them with Good year Welt system. New soles, new heels, a little mending here and there and you SAVE ON YOUR SHOE BILL.

An inside tip of what spring will bring this section has wandered into the office. Jack Houser, formerly a member of The Star staff and city editor of the Greensboro News, now with a Sarasota, Florida, paper, writes his father Dr. E. A. Houser, that they're meaning the moneyed tourists) coming this way in droves in March. And attached to the message is the idea that owning a lot or so roundabouts wouldn't be a bad plan.
Which sounds good coming from Florida. For you know it's hard to see the glow of a flashlight while standing in the glare of a big electric light, if you get us.
The first snowfall of January marked the passing of a saintly minister, whose niche in life will be hard to fill over the county, and the second snowfall Sunday evening last, marked the departure from a snow-blanketed earth of a gentle lady that will be greatly missed. Mrs. L. M. Hull was

COMMISSIONERS RESALE OF LAND.
By virtue of an order of resale made in Special Proceeding entitled "C. P. Grigg et als. vs. Ruth McKee et als." by the Clerk of the Superior Court for Cleveland County, N. C., I will sell to the highest bidder at the court house door in Shelby, N. C., on Saturday, January 30th, 1926, at 12 o'clock M., or within legal hours following described real estate: Situated in No. 7 and No. 8 townships, Cleveland County, N. C., adjoining the lands of C. P. Grigg, L. A. White and others, and being the lands conveyed to C. P. Grigg and G. H. Grigg by P. H. Grigg by deed recorded in Book CC page 221 of the office of the register for said county, and containing 33 acres more or less.
Terms of sale: One-half cash on day of sale, balance in 12 months, deferred payments to bear 6 per cent interest.
The bidding will begin at $3,620.00, the raised bid.
This 12th day of January, 1926.
B. T. FALLS, Commissioner.

prominent in social and civic life of Shelby and in that respect will be missed, but the blackness will come from the absence of the kindly gentleness of her personal contact with those among whom she passed. On the sunset side of life, far past the meridian, she retained her beauty and was considered one of the most beautiful women of her age in many people's acquaintance. It must have been a reflection of the gentleness and sweetness of her spirit for the lines of beauty usually give away to age. Numerous men have often remarked: "She reminds me of mother." When men say that their highest compliment has been paid, for to any man, the highest or lowest, classing anyone near their mother is placing them on the verge of immortality. In that light, the gentle way of being a real friend to those she met, Mrs. Hull's place will be harder to fill than in library work or civic development.
Owners of possum dogs and wise old bird dogs will have to take a back seat now. A new type of dog is now being offered for sale in Shelby. Now perhaps some of the fellows who were "out-told" in telling yarns about their dogs, may buy one of the bloodhounds and have him trace down the other story to see if it is exactly correct.
During the week several boys about Shelby were noticed looking for a job. Seeing that several of them didn't get one we'll suggest a few soft jobs that might be open:
A barber in Moscow.
Horse doctor in Detroit.
Killing the fleas on a goldfish.
Keeping flies off a snow man.
Sweeping leaves from a hall tree.
Dyeing the hole of a doughnut.
Being nightwatchman on a sardinal.
To be captain of the Swiss navy.
Keeping the dust off Niagara Falls.
Managers of an ice house in Africa.
Driving a street sprinkler in Venice.
Assistant lineman for a wireless company.
Bathing suit censor on the Sahara desert.
Keeping the grass cut at the North

Fallston School News Of Interest
Parents-Teachers Meeting. School Equipment Added. Oyster Supper At School Jan. 30.
(Special to The Star.)
Fallston, Jan. 25.—The Parent-teacher association held an enthusiastic meeting at the school building last Thursday. A good program was rendered, interesting topics were discussed, and several new members were added. The organization is yet in its infancy, but many worth while things have been accomplished which are mentioned in another paragraph. With a group of enthusiastic members, such as compose the local group, the success of the organization is assured, and will in time be regarded not only as an indispensable asset to our school but to the community at large. It is hoped that our aim "every patron a member" will be realized. In many cases the child is interested in school to the same extent that his parents are interested. Surely, all can give a small portion of their time to come out to discuss problems relative to the welfare of their children, and to join in a movement leading toward a more progressive school.
Stage Curtain.
A complete set of stage curtains has been installed, and we take this opportunity to further express our appreciation to the business firms for their generous support in buying advertising space. These spaces were sold by members of the Parent-Teacher association.
New Equipment Added.

Boiling Springs News of Late Happenings
(Special to The Star.)
Mrs. John Mintz was the charming hostess to the Tongues and Needles club Friday afternoon an interesting contest pertaining to sewing was held. Mrs. Lillian Ritch and Mrs. Ella Pruett were the winners. Mrs. Ritch received a beautiful linen handkerchief, Mrs. Pruett a centerpiece to embroidery.
Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ledford are here from Miami, Fla. They are visiting Mrs. Ledford's mother, Mrs. P. D. Hopper.
Mr. and Mrs. Chivus Bridges are very sick.
Mrs. J. M. Walker is improving.
Miss Rosalyn Pruett is out again. She had mumps last week.
Miss Evelyn Huggins is also able to go to school after having mumps. Others in the community that are sick are improving as well as could be expected.
The Attie Bostick circle of the woman's Missionary society meets with Mrs. J. R. Greene, Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock.
Another trying experience is using this year's income to pay for last year's car.

The principal's office has been lately furnished with a roll-top desk, a filing cabinet, and other accessory equipment. New shelves for books and magazines have been placed in the library along with 180 new volumes which include reference material, essays, poetry, history, geography and travel. A complete library classification system has been introduced along with the card charging system. The danger to books and equipment has been reduced to a minimum. Every student has a chance to actually use the library every day.
The school has been handicapped by having no janitor this year, and the high school pupils, realizing the situation, came to the rescue by voluntarily offering their services for any kind of work necessary to keep the building in order. The work is so distributed that each pupil spend only 45 minutes each week at a stated period. This is an admirable spirit in our students, and they are to be commended for their co-operation and loyalty.
Basket Ball.
The high school basketball team met the Piedmont team on the local court last Friday and won by a score of 31 to 16. The win was much appreciated locally, because it ended a long string of defeats including a defeat by this same team one week ago. An oyster supper will be given by the Parent-Teachers association at

The school building next Saturday night, January 30. Sandwiches, coffee, and other things will be served. Musical entertainment will also be furnished. Everybody is invited for a pleasant evening.
CC-EDS USE MEN'S HOSE SET A NEW FAD
Bloomington.—Co-eds of Indiana University have created a new fad in femine footgear which already is spreading throughout the state.
A group of them made their bow at a football game with men's hose pulled on over their own thin silk hosiery to protect their ankles from the blasts of autumn winds.
A few days later all the co-eds on the campus had adopted the custom, and clothing merchants reported that there was not a pair of cotton hose left in the city's stores.
The hose are pulled up as far as they will reach and give the impression of half hose, coming a few inches below the bottom of the skirt. They threaten to supplant galoshes for mildly cold weather among the fair sex.
Measure left in the barn lot loses its value, in the field it is worth about five dollars per ton. The more quickly it is spread, the better, because the plant foods it contains are soon lost.
