Cotton seed per bush. . . . 55 1-2c

—Commandery—Shelby commandery will hold a special convocation Tuesday night March 2nd for work in the Red Cross degree.

—Moves to Shelby—A. B. C. D. Priest, merchant, farmer and cotton buyer at Polkville, for a number of years, moved with his family to Shelby last week, occupying their new brick home on East Marion street.

—Has Good Month—Sixteen real estate sales made during the month of February amounted to $44,350. Anthony and Anthony who declare this to be one of their best months in a year or more. They attribute much of their success to newspaper advertising in The Star.

—Pays Out $57,500—With the payment Saturday the Shelby Building and Loan Association matured its 47th series, maturing 1099 shares of stock, valued of $169,900. Of this amount $52,400 represents paid up loans and $57,500 will be distributed this week in cash to gladden the hearts of the thrifty.

—Retiring Bonds—The City is retiring bonds due for street improvement done in the past. Over twenty one thousand dollars worth of bonds have been retired within the past few weeks and $5,700 worth more are due and will be paid as soon as property owners, against whom assessments are due, have paid their assessments.

—Work Progressing—The remodeling of the rear portion of the Hamrick Jewelry store is practically complete, and the next job of rebuilding the establishment will be to put in the new front. When that section in turn is finished, the business section will be removed to the rear to allow work to proceed on the center portion.

—Mrs. White Dead—Mr. C. Glenn White and daughter, Ormie Lee returned Saturday evening from York, S. C., where they were called to the bedside of his mother, Mrs. R. A. White, who was seriously ill. She died and was laid to rest Saturday in Rose Hill cemetery beside her husband, who preceded her to the grave some five years ago.

—Dixon is Coming—Tom Dixon is planning another visit to Shelby, according to J. D. Lineberger who heard Mr. Dixon speak at a Kiwanis luncheon at Asheville last week. The novelists subject was Western Carolina, boosting the big playground. Mr. Lineberger said that after the dinner, he talked with Mr. Dixon, who assured him he was coming again to Shelby and at a near date.

—Watching Signals—Watching the traffic observe the stop and go signals at the congested street corners was the amusement for hundreds Saturday. The signals are set to change every twenty seconds and officers declare that the new regulations worked much better than they had expected. As soon as the public gets accustomed to the signals, they feel that it will be unnecessary to stand and direct the traffic.

—Child is Improving—Mr. W. H. Hudson returned to Shelby Saturday from the hospital at Spartanburg where his infant daughter is being treated by Dr. Smith. The child has been in the hospital for a month, during which time Mrs. Hudson has been continually with it. Mr. Hudson said Saturday upon his return here that he believed a change for the better in the little sufferer's condition has been noted.

—267 Miles in 9 Hours—M. P. Coley, of Shelby, made a trip last week to Roanoke, Virginia. Roanoke is 267 miles from Shelby; and Mr. Coley made the trip in nine hours flat. That is to say, one way. Now sit down and take your pencil in hand and calculate just how slowly Mr. Coley had to drive to cover a little distance like that in nine hours. Then ask him the next time you see him how he avoided the collective bunch of sheriffs between here and there.

Ring And Mat Stars At Armory Saturday

Fight fans of Shelby and the surrounding parts are looking forward to a bout here to be staged Saturday night at the old Armory hall. Charles Cordell, of Shelby, will meet Marion Ford of Kings Mountain, in an eight round go.

There will be wrestling preliminaries between Raymond Johnson and Young Thomas.

Cordell, Shelby fighter, is gaining quite a reputation, and it is believed the Saturday card will be a good one.

Raising Church Debts At Dover And Eastside

A contest which started Sunday between Dover and Eastside Baptist churches, designed to raise the debts on these two new buildings, is having a gratifying success. Just how much each church is raising from week to week is a profound secret in order to stimulate interest in the contest. Sunday subscriptions were taken at the Dover Baptist church and the total was very satisfactory. The Men's quartet, composed of J. J. Lattimore, Mal Spangler, Rush Hamrick and Tom Lattimore from the First Baptist church, furnished music Sunday morning at the contest at Dover and church. The benevolence of the people there is remarkable.

One son lives in Florida, hence the delay in the funeral services, awaiting his arrival from the sunshine state.

THEATRES

Today the Princess presents "Smiling at Trouble." A daughter of a wealthy contractor and a young civil engineer—pretty Kathleen O'Toole, whom she thought a rival—a never-to-be forgotten tableau in his office—an evil tongued young blue-blood, who sowed the seeds of distrust—a snake in the grass—but until long afterwards she did not understand. Tuesday "Parisian Nights" The winking lights of Paris—the splash of smooth, sinister waters in the Seine; water that tells no tales—the sound of guns—the roar of artillery—the hum of soft-voiced French girls, laughter, love, treachery, the countless coyness beneath the surface of the great capital of diplomatic Europe. Wednesday "Lazybones" presented by William Fox. A story of a typical American small town life and its citizenship. It is full of human touches that will appeal to everyone. Back Jones is star.

The Webb is featuring two snappy action pictures the first two days of the week. Concerning action films Mr. Claude Webb said: "Local audiences like this class of pictures, and we are catering to the demand."

"Geared to Go" is on today, with Red Howes, a fast moving thriller, revealing the intricacies of a taxi cab war. It will prove good entertainment.

A five part good, old-fashioned western melodrama is on tomorrow, entitled "Lawless Trails." This is a corker play, done in the approved style, full of ginger and fast tricks.

Mr. Webb announces that Colleen Moore will be seen at the theatre Friday in "Painted People."

Fire At Cook Home On Sunday Morning

The fire department was called to the home of L. C. Cook, in southeast Shelby Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock. The roof of the bungalow was on fire, having caught, it is believed, from sparks from the chimney.

The flames were extinguished after a hole some ten feet square had been burned in the shingles. While the fire department was making the run to the scene, the Cook family carried many of the effects of the home out into the yard.

Mr. Cook is proprietor of the Crock barber shop, in the Union Trust building.

It was a lucky thing for Paul Rivers, says Paul Webb, that no speed cop was lurking in any of the bushes that he passed.

Don't plant potato peels and expect a good crop of Irish potatoes this year. The seed pieces should weigh at least 2 ounces, state horticultural workers at State College.

BE GOOD TO YOUR MOTOR

CHEAP OIL IS THE MOST EXPENSIVE.

If you want your motor to render the best service and keep in good condition you must use good oil. Texaco, Clean, Clear Full Bodied Motor Oils are cheapest in the long run.

They last—They lubricate.

It pays to drain your oil. This should be done every 500 miles on a new car and at least each 1000 miles on a used car.

Keep the working parts of your car well greased.

Texaco Oil and Grease will cut your repair bills.

DRIVE TO THE TEXACO FILLING STATIONS.
