Mejdames Riley and Gardner Entertain.
Mrs. S. R. Riley and Mrs. O. Max Gardner were hostesses at an informal tea on Wednesday afternoon when they had as their guests Mrs. Jones of Asheville and Mrs. Church of New York. Tea was served to ten. Hyacinths decorated the tea table and Mrs. James L. Webb presided at the tea.

Eastern Star Gives Beautiful Dinner.
The members of the Eastern Star Order gave a beautiful dinner at the Woman's Club rooms on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. The tables were beautifully decorated and Mrs. Charlie Mintz was toast mistress for the occasion. A lovely five course dinner was served and charming spring flowers were used as the artistic decorations.

New Book Club Organized.
A new Book Club has been organized in Shelby bearing the name of The Contemporary Book Club. Eighteen members of the young social and married set belong and the object is to study the modern novels and writers of the day. They will meet every two weeks and discuss the books read. Simple refreshments will be served. This adds one more to Shelby's many clubs.

Mrs. J. J. McMurry Hostess At Lovely Dinner Party.
Honoring her charming house guest Mrs. Mamie Ivy Stradley, Mrs. J. J. McMurry was a gracious hostess at a beautiful dinner party on Friday at her lovely home. The table was beautifully appointed and had for its center piece a lovely bowl of spring flowers in all their fragrant beauty. Covers were laid for ten and a delicious five course dinner was served.

Mrs. O. Max Gardner Honors Mrs. Stradley.
Honoring one of Shelby's most delightful visitors Mrs. Mayme Ivy Stradley, Mrs. O. Max Gardner was hostess on Friday afternoon with a five o'clock tea. The rooms were decorated with spring flowers and the tea table was covered with a handsome lace piece. Centering the table was a green bowl filled with many colored tulips. Mrs. James L. Webb poured tea and Mrs. Gardner was assisted in serving by Mrs. S. R. Riley and Mrs. Eugene Burgess.

Miss Elizabeth Webb Entertains.
Miss Elizabeth Webb entertained informally and delightfully on Thursday afternoon honoring Miss Margaret Edmunds a most feted visitor. The rooms were most beautiful with spring flowers and the friends of this charming girl got together and spent a most happy afternoon talking of old times. At five o'clock Mrs. Webb served delicious tea and sandwiches, cakes nuts and candies and much delightful conversation was enjoyed over the teacups.

Civics Department To Meet.
The Civics Department of the Woman's club will meet on Tuesday March the twenty third at the Woman's Club Room. These meetings have been changed from Thursday to the third Tuesday of each month. The hour is four o'clock. It is very important and imperative that every member of this Division be present on Tuesday at four o'clock. Mrs. Ceph Blanton, the leader, has something very important to tell the members besides a number of business propositions are to come up so all members are urged to attend.

Afternoon Division No 1 Has Delightful Meeting.
The afternoon Division No. 1 of the Woman's club was beautifully entertained by the following hostesses on Thursday afternoon, Mejdames Jake Quinn, Ab Poston and Maynard Washburn. With the sprig blossoms of pear and apple in all their fragrant beauty and the fresh green longtail with its vivid yellow the rooms where the meeting was held at the Woman's Club were indeed beautiful beyond description. The subject of the afternoon was "The Quare Woman". Mrs. R. E. Carpenter was the leader, and the following papers were read: Anecdotes from the book by Mrs. Earl Hamrick was much enjoyed. The Southern Highlander by Mrs. Coleman Doggett was most delightfully given and Mrs. Coln Hull closed the literary part of the program by telling in a most interesting way about the Roadside in Mountain Literature. The club was then favored by delightful vocal solos by Mrs. Cleveland Gardner and Mrs. Grady Lovelace. Mrs. Pitt Beam being the splendid accompanist. The hostesses served the most delicious refreshments.

Miss Mac Washburn Honors Miss Margaret Edmunds.
A beautiful St. Patrick's party was given by Miss Mac Washburn on Wednesday afternoon honoring Miss Margaret Edmunds a delightful Shelby visitor from Fairfax Va. Miss Washburn's attractive home was lovely on this occasion with its wealth of jonquils, appleblossoms and ferns. The tables were most charming with their crystal vases of gracefully arranged flowers and the St. Patrick's favors and score cards. Three tables of bridge was played during the afternoon and when the cards were laid aside Miss Washburn served an elegant salad and sweet course the cream being served in beautiful little flower pots of green and the joyous accessories. The whole course was carried out in the St. Patrick's idea. The invited guests were: Miss Edmunds, Miss Mary Griffin, Miss Grace Reid, Miss Edna Jordan, Mrs. Oliver Anthony, Mrs. Harry Higson, Miss Elizabeth Saulte, Miss Mathilda Lattimore, Miss Eugenia Holland, Miss Elizabeth Webb, Miss Margaret Morgan, Mrs. Dick Gurley, Miss Adeline Bostick and Mrs. Renn Drum.

Sunday Program at Presbyterian Church

Sunday is to be a day of unusual interest at the Presbyterian Church. It is the day for raising the annual church budget. A new plan has been adopted for this annual effort. Instead of the Deacons going out and making a canvass of the congregation, the day has been set aside as Volunteer Sunday, and every member is asked to go to the church between 2 and 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon and make a subscription on the approved budget, which calls for a 40 percent increase in subscriptions over last year. The scheme being new the officials of the local church, as well as of other churches, are watching its success with great interest. The Presbyterians of the city are backing the plan to the hilt and will turn out enthusiastically. Sunday afternoon to signify their support for the coming ecclesiastical year. Deacons will be at the church to assist and instruct members in making subscriptions. The whole budget subscribed in three and one-half hours is the desire of the church officials. The Deacons promise the members that if they will volunteer Sunday afternoon they will not be made converts later.

The Workers Council of the Sunday School will meet promptly at 9:30 Sunday morning. The departmental work begins at 9:45 a. m. At 11 a. m. the pastor, Rev. H. N. McDiarmid, will have for his subject "A Delayed Grace." The theme at 7:30 a. m. will be "Christian Relationships." There will be special music at both services. The Junior Christian Endeavor will meet at 4 p. m., and the seniors at 6:30 p. m. A cordial invitation is extended the public to all services at this church.
