Twentieth Century Meets With Mrs. Griffin.
Easter with all its lovely motifs was displayed in the beautiful decorations of the attractive home of Mrs. L. C. Griffin on Friday afternoon when Mrs. Griffin was the gracious hostess to the members of the Twentieth Century club at four o'clock. Spring flowers in delightful abundance were used and radiated the beauty of spring. A most interesting program had been prepared and was given by the following women their subjects being: Biographical Sketches of Edna St. Vincent Millay by Mrs. Reuben McBrayer, Poems, by Mrs. May Gardner, the play by Mrs. J. D. Linberger. These papers were beautifully prepared and splendidly rendered. During the social hour Mrs. Griffin assisted by her daughter, Miss Mary Griffin served a tempting salad and sweet course and gave each member a little Easter favor.

Miss Ruby McBrayer Entertains Ishpeming Club.
At the delightful home of Miss Ruby McBrayer on Thursday afternoon the members of the Ishpeming club and a few visitors were beautifully entertained with a most enjoyable and lovely bridge party. The Easter motif was charmingly carried out in the decorations and delicious refreshments. Jonquils in all their yellow beauty graced the mantel tables and piano. The little score and place cards were of this flower too and the tables where the cards were played were centered with lovely colored crystal vases holding the flower of the afternoon. Five tables of bridge was played during the enjoyable hours and much enjoyed. When the cards were laid aside, Miss McBrayer assisted by her mother, Mrs. Mary McBrayer, Miss Agnes McBrayer and Mrs. J. S. Dorton served a beautiful salad and sweet course.

Mrs. George Blanton Hostess to Chicora.
Mrs. George Blanton entertained the members of the Chicora club at her delightful home on Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The rooms where the members assembled were bright with spring flowers their delicate beauty enhancing the bowls and vases used as their receptacles. The program was most appropriate for the season the subject being, "Under the Open Sky." The roll call was answered with American trees and flowers. The first paper was "My life and Work," by Luther Burbank. Mrs. Hennessy made her paper so interesting you could almost see the plants grow. Mrs. L. P. Holland followed with a lofty and beautiful paper on "The Forest," then Mrs. Sim McMurry in her charming way told the club members all about "American Wild Flowers." This concluded one of the most enjoyable and entertaining programs of the year. When the papers were laid aside Mrs. Blanton assisted by her daughter Miss Millicent served a most delicious salad and sweet course.

Afternoon Division No 2 Has Delightful Meeting.
At the Woman's club room on Thursday the members of the Afternoon Division No. 2 held a most delightful meeting Mrs. Frank Sanders and Mrs. Richard Brabbe being the gracious hostesses. The room was beautifully decorated with spring flowers and a profusion of jonquils and the Easter motif was carried out in the decorations and refreshments. Mrs. Herman Eskridge was leader, and after a business session she called for the following program, the subject being "The Quare Woman." Mrs. Clayton Peeler gave a anecdotes entertaining paper on the Anecdotes from the Book. This was followed by "The Southern Highlander" given in an instructive way by Mrs. Will King. Mrs. C. C. Pearce then gave some delightful readings of Mountain Literature. In the absence of Mrs. Frasier Mrs. Olin Hamrick read her interesting paper. Charming music was furnished by Miss Alice Sanders and Miss Dorothy King which added much to the afternoon's enjoyment. When the program was concluded the most delicious and appetizing refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Mrs. Lovelace Entertains Cecilia Music Club.
With spring in the air and a beautiful day, the members of the Cecilia Music club, and a number of delightful visitors assembled at the hospitable charming home of Mrs.

Grady Lovelace on Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The rooms braced with their decorations of the different kinds of lovely spring flowers most artistically arranged in low bowls of charming hues, and lovely vases held the riot of beautiful colors. The subject of the afternoon was Russian Music. Mrs. D. W. Royster read an interesting history of this subject. Mrs. Bennett sang delightfully the song, "Morning". This was followed by an instrumental solo by a Russian artist played like an artist by Miss Eugenia Holland. Mrs. John Schenck Jr. was enjoyed when she played a violin solo from the Russian school of music. Miss Adams sang exceedingly well, "The Greatest Wish in the World".

Mrs. Pitt Beam Delightful Hostess to Ishpeming Club.
Mrs. Pitt Beam always a charming hostess entertained the members of the Ishpeming club on Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Her decorations pertained to Easter and were very effective, interspersed with the lovely flowers used. This being a Literary program the subject of the afternoon was Hawaii. Miss Mary Moore gave a delightful paper on "National Park of Hawaii" this was followed by Hawaiian music charmingly told by Mrs. De Witt Quinn. Mrs. Grady Lovelace then sang a beautiful Hawaiian selection and her sweet voice was most appealing in this soft slow music. When the program was concluded most elegant refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by her mother Mrs. Keppner Kendall and Mrs. J. J. Lattimore.

Evening Division Met With Miss Mayme Roberts
Miss Mayme Roberts' hospitable home was thrown open on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock to the members of the Evening Division of the Woman's club. The rooms where the guests assembled bargained description with their wonderful wealth of spring flowers used in charming array and with beautiful effect. Assisting Mrs. Roberts in receiving and serving were Mrs. Roberts and her sister Mrs. C. C. Roberts. In the absence of Mrs. Wallace, Miss Carol Lever was leader of the meeting. Misses Oeland Washburn, Mrs. R. T. Legrand and Mrs. Yarbrough's papers on the subject "The Quare Woman" were indeed clever and most enjoyable. Their version of each paper was original and bright and many enlightening things were given to the club members. Miss Aline Webb favored the guests with a beautiful instrumental solo and Miss Ettale Moses added much to the evening's entertainment with her lovely music. The duet played with rhythm and technique by Miss Mamie Roberts and Miss Lucile Nix closed an evening of pure enjoyment. A course of delicious refreshments, was served with coffee and nuts and sweets.

Sunday Program at Presbyterian Church

Sunday is to be Decision Day at the Presbyterian Church. It is expected that several new members will be received into the church on this closing day of the church year. On next Wednesday evening the congregation is to give a Welcome Service in honor of all new members received this ecclesiastical year. It is hoped every member new and old will be present for this service of good fellowship. The services Sunday are to be of special interest, and good music will be a feature. "Palm Branches" as written by Jean Faure will be sung by a well trained choir at 11 o'clock. The subject of the pastor's sermon will be "Jesus Facing Jerusalem." The topic for 7:30 p. m. is to be "The Moral Character of Heaven." At this hour the choir will meet at 9:30 a. m. The worship periods for the departments begin at 9:45 a. m. This church extends a public invitation to all its services.
