Child is Better—Will Arcey, jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Arcey who has been quite ill with pneumonia for two weeks, is much improved, the many friends of the Arceys will be glad to learn.

Birthday—There will be a birthday celebration for Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Cook at Casar, April 4th. A general invitation is extended to all who will come and bring well-filled baskets.

Camp Inspected—The No. 6 town ship convict camp was inspected a few days ago by a representative of the state board of welfare and public charities and found to be in splendid sanitary condition with the surroundings neat and acceptable.

Locates Here—Mr. T. D. McCoy has moved to Shelby from Gastonia and will establish headquarters here for the Durham Life Insurance company, a North Carolina insurance organization.

Raised $400—At the First Baptist church Sunday school Mrs. Robert Doggett was leader of an interesting program on missions Sunday morning, following which a collection was taken amounting to $400 which will be distributed among the various mission board of the Southern Baptist convention.

Meet Here—The Belwood council of the Junior Order United American mechanics, is meeting with the Shelby council Tuesday night at the Webb hall. Interesting talks will be made by C. G. Hodges, of Belwood, and Ed Dixon of Fallston. All Juniors are invited to be present. R. J. Hamrick, recording secretary.

Buy Business Property—J. E. and Gies Webb of Shelby have bought the two J. C. Baumgardner building right in the heart of the business district on Mountain street in Kings Mountain. The buildings are occupied by the Strand theatre and the Watson millinery. The purchase price is outside money brought to Kings Mountain and adds much to our ready cash. The Webbs bought the property merely as an investment having disposed of some of their holdings in Shelby. There is no immediate prospect of a change in tenancy of the buildings.—Kings Mountain Herald.

LOCAL G. O. P. HOLDS HARMONIOUS MEET

3 That we point with pride to the marvelous record made by the Republican party in the great reduction in our national indebtedness while making a continual reduction in taxation since the close of the World war. "Economy" being the watchword in all departments of the government.

4 That we renew the oft-repeated demand of the Republican party of North Carolina for honest, free secret and untrammelled elections in this State by which every legal voter, man or woman, can vote as he or she pleases and have the assurance that the ballot will be counted as cast. To this end, we appeal for a pure and honest Australian ballot and for the repeal or purification of the absentee voter law which, at present, affords an open channel for unlimited fraud.

5 That we commend most heartily the good women of North Carolina, regardless of political affiliation, for the firm stand that they are taking for the Australian ballot and for honest elections.

6 That we commend and thank most heartily Hon. Wm. C. Branham, our retiring State Chairman, for his faithful loyal, and untiring services to the Republican party during the four years of his administration of the affairs of the party. As he retires from active leadership, he will carry with him the highest esteem of his party friends.

7 That we recommend to the Republican State Convention which convenes in Durham, N. C., on the 8th day of April, 1926, that our plan of state organization be as amended, or modified, as to harmonize throughout, as nearly as practicable with the plan of organization of the national organization.

8 That we point with special pride to the loyalty and patriotism of the Republicans of Cleveland County who have stood firmly by the principles of the Republican party during these many years in the face of an irresistible political foe. They have never surrendered to defeat nor been disheartened by opposing majorities. Such manhood and patriotism is worthy of the fathers who fought yonder at Kings Mountain for American liberty.

ANNOUNCEMENT

I hereby announce myself a candidate for re-election to the office of Sheriff of Cleveland county subject to the action of the Democratic primary June 5th, 1926.

HUGH A. LOGAN.

THEATRES

Colleen Moore in "Irene" proclaimed as the world's most superb fashion show, and this star's ace comedy production, is due at the Webb theatre today and tomorrow (Monday and Tuesday). We quote the following descriptive paragraph of this super production:

"Gowns that will amaze every dress make in Paris! Hollywood beauties that will open your eyes! Comedy that sets a new pace for the laugh-makers! They call this Colleen Moore's greatest comedy achievement."

The fashion display, which, it is said, will amaze the women, is done in colors.

With Miss Moore appear Lloyd Hughes, George K. Arthur and that inimitable comedian, Charlie Murphy.

A great comedy picture, revealing the sunny side of the war, entitled "Behind the Front" is the stellar attraction at the Princess theatre Monday and Tuesday—today and tomorrow—shown under the auspices of the American Legion.

A comedy accompanies the main bill Monday night, and "Fox News" Tuesday night.

"Behind the Front" is something new in a war picture—a comedy—revealing the lighter side of the great conflict. The play is set against a background of the rush and glamor of the preparation of 1917. The stellar role is played by the man who made a classic of the role of King Richard in "Robin Hood," Wallace Beery.

RUTHERFORD'S ECONOMIC DEMONSTRATOR TO MARRY

(Rutherford Sun)

Mr. Atkin G. Harrelson was married Wednesday afternoon to Miss Gladys Perry, Home Demonstration Agent for Rutherford county. The exact place is not definitely known, as The News goes to press.

The happy couple left here yesterday afternoon for parts unknown but stated to friends that they would be married and would not return for some two or three weeks.

The bride is a native of Idaho and has been Home Agent of this county since last summer. During this time she has endeared herself to the people of this county by her winning ways and charming personality. She is a most excellent agent and has done much good in the county.

A Cobweb Radio

Mrs. Alden was proceeding through the house with her new maid on a tour of inspection. She halted in one corner and pointing to a cobweb, said: "Have you seen this?"

"Yes, ma'am," said the new maid. "That was there when I come—something to do with your radio ain't it?"
