

Around Our Town

SHELBY SIDELIGHTS—
By Ben Drum.

Wiseman Kendall, Shelby boy who is now editor of the Rocky Mount Telegram, was a visitor with relatives during Easter and while here the spread of the real estate business apparently engaged his attention. At least he had the following to say about it in The Telegram on his return to Eastern Carolina:

WE HAVE been.
AWAY SPENDING Easter.

UP IN western Carolina.
WHERE THE real estate boom.

IS IN full swing.
AND WE hadn't.

BEEN THERE long.
UNTIL WE found it out.

BECAUSE IT looked.
AS THOUGH every fellow.

WHOM WE met.
WAS A real estate man.

AND AS WE were.
A COMPARATIVE stranger.

IN THE community.
AND AS they had.

JUST ABOUT talked out.
WITH ALL the natives.

THEY ALL hopped on us.
AND AS WE were.

OFF ON vacation.
AND HAD nothing to do.

WE LET 'em rave.
BECAUSE it gave us.

A FEELING of prosperity.
FOR ALL those fellows.

TO BE trying.
TO SE... us something.

AND APPARENTLY taking.
IT FOR granted.

THAT WE at least.
WERE IN position

TO MAKE a first payment.
BUT NOW that we are.

BACK HOME again.
AND ON the job.

WE DON'T want.
ANY SUCH bombardment.

FROM EASTERN Carolina.
SEASHORE LAND salesman.

BUT AT that.
THERE'S NOT a chance.

OF ANY such happening.
FOR IT'S too well known.

THAT WE'RE a newspaperman
AND EVERY salesman knows.

THAT THESE newspaper guys.
ARE ALWAYS broke.

AND REPRESENT just about
THE WORST prospects.

THERE EVER were.
I THANK YOU.

You've often heard no doubt of such addites as a hen mothering baby ducks and suchlike. Rev. John W. Suttle, expert poultryman, goes the unusual one better.

Rev. Mr. Suttle has an incubator that dumps a bunch of new "dibs" or "biddies," as you would have it, every week or two. And as guardians for the incubator with its precious burden he has two dogs. Imagine a dog—they sometimes like eggs—protecting a mute tin arrangement that mothers chickens.

Despite the loyal guardians it is reported that someone slipped in the other night and made away with six fine "fryers."

Mencken and his reading group of intellectuals—some are; some ain't—would make merry at the expense of ordinary old Shelby could they have visited here this week.

Over to the school auditorium a soprano, trained abroad, sang opera numbers. 2 folks composed her curtain audience. Down to Milt Tolbert's tent show, where the Virginia Senators put forth peppy music, scores were turned away for lack of space. And on the same night, Mencken might say "that marks Shelby's culture."

But did you hear: "Come mother, come Nan, come Liza Darling?"

By the way, wonder how many calls Mr. Ebeltoft had for Mencken's Mercury magazine Tuesday after Shelby folks read in the newspapers that there was an obscene article in the April number?

This one is for the kiddies. They've all heard the ancient version of Jack and Jill. The modern one follows:

Jack and Jill Sped up a hill A curve up there was sharp; The car upset, Jack's rolling yet; Jill's playing on a harp.

—University Life.

Some fellow has promulgated a list of songs for all occasions and in order that no one may be lacking along this line we reproduce them below:

While walking the floor with the baby—"All Through the Night."

While peeling an onion—"Why Should I cry over You?"

When sampling your wife's biscuits—"Rock of Ages."

While tuning in the radio—"Oh Silent Night."

When borrowing from a friend—"Then You'll Remember Me."

While buying from a bootlegger—"When the Roll is Called Up You-oh."

While looking in the gas tank with a limited match—"When I'm Gone You'll Soon Forget."

When you can't get Central—"Somewhere a Voice is Calling."

When your wife hasn't spoken to you for a week—"Old Pal, Why don't You Answer Me?"

Mooresboro School Closes April 15th

(Special to The Star)

Our public school, under the able manager of Professor Latham, is nearing the end of one of the most successful years in its history. The enrollment for the year was over 200, and the average attendance has been very creditable for a rural community.

The commencement exercises will be given on April 15th and 16th, Thursday and Friday nights, respectively. On the first night the lower grades will render a program of songs and drills, the climax of which is capped with a beautiful operetta. The high school grades will present two plays on the last night, both of which will be highly enjoyable.

Woman can mimic man in many particulars but the yearning to place your feet on the table is born in you.

A scientist says the American nose is becoming flatter. What we need, apparently is softer windshields.

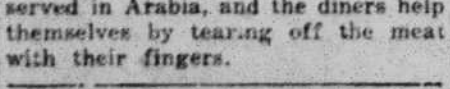

Did you know that a whole lamb is served in Arabia, and the diners help themselves by tearing off the meat with their fingers.

MRS. BASSETT ALWAYS TIRED

Now in Good Health by Using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Lansing, Michigan.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound whenever I needed it. When I first used it I was so bad I could hardly walk across the room without crying. I was tired all the time. I think my troubles was coming on me for six months before I realized it. I read of your wonderful medicine in the paper, and my husband bought me a bottle, and after the first few doses I felt better, so kept on taking it until I was well and strong. I take it at times when I feel tired and it helps me. I will always have a good word for your medicine and tell anyone what good it has done me. I recommended it to my neighbor for her girl, who is sixteen years old, and it was just what she needed. She is feeling fine now, and goes to school every day."—Mrs. E. F. Bassett, 216 South Hayford Avenue, Lansing, Michigan.

Do not continue to feel all run-down and half sick when Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is sold by druggists everywhere. It is a root and herb medicine and has been used by women for over fifty years.
